Mission Statement
To carry out the wishes of the Samsung Group at the time of the original scholarship endowment. Establish, review and maintain eligibility rules for participants. Determine the number and value of scholarships to be awarded. Select the most qualified applicants as Department Finalists and national Scholars. Investigate and discuss possible expansion of the program. Establish guidelines for participation in one such expansion, the Samsung American Legion Alumni Association. Strive for the continued success of a generous benefactor’s gift.

Introduction
On July 26, 1995, the Samsung Group and The American Legion held a joint press conference in Washington D.C. to announce Samsung’s endowment of $5 million to The American Legion for the purposes of founding a scholarship with emphasis on the families of those who served during the Korean War.

Mr. K.S. Park’s (Chairman, Samsung Engineering & Construction Co.) words from that day – which honored the American military for protecting the Korean peninsula during the Korean War – remain a source of great pride and challenge to The American Legion. “We (Samsung) wanted to demonstrate our appreciation. The best way to do this, we believe, is to offer educational opportunities to the children and grandchildren of the American veterans who served their country so honorably. The American Legion is the perfect organization for accomplishing this.”

At the ceremony, William M. Detweiler, National Commander, The American Legion thanked Samsung for their generous endowment to a scholarship benefitting the children and direct descendants of war-time veterans. In part, Commander Detweiler stated, “We are fully aware of the significance of “Samsung values education. One of the most important contributions we can make is to support students in their pursuits of academic excellence. Helping future generations achieve their scholastic goals is a priority for us.”

-Mr. K.S. Park, Chairman, Samsung Engineering & Construction Co.

Program Overview

Created from Samsung’s generous endowment, the Samsung American Legion Scholarship issues awards only from interest and other income to the fund. The principal amount of the fund will not be used for the scholarships.

Through its existing organizational structure, The American Legion administers the endowment fund and scholarship program at the local, state and national levels. This includes – but is not limited to – selection of scholarship awardees, development and implementation of program organization, and marketing strategy for the program.

Since inception of the scholarship, The American Legion has invited a representative of Samsung to aid the Committee on Youth Education (COYE) in selection of the National Scholars. The COYE consists of members of The American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary. In addition to selecting the National Scholars, the COYE is responsible for developing and maintaining a plan for the scholarship program’s selection process and eligibility criteria. The committee announced the first Samsung American Legion National Scholars in September 1996.

“Americans who answered a call to duty in the earliest days of the Cold War, and served under the United Nations banner to enforce its mandate and preserve the security of the Korean Peninsula, are truly deserving of this long awaited and deserved recognition (Korean War Veterans Memorial) in what has become known as ‘The Forgotten War.’

“The proud and tenacious people of the Republic of Korea have not forgotten what took place 45 years ago... and they have not forgotten the close alliance the United States has maintained with the Republic of Korea ever since.”
Eligible applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Direct-descendant\(^1\) of a wartime veteran, as officially designated by the United States government, who served honorably
  - World War I (April 6, 1917 – November 11, 1918)
  - World War II (December 7, 1941 – December 31, 1946)
  - Korean War (June 25, 1950 – January 31, 1955)
  - Vietnam War (February 28, 1961 – May 7, 1975)
  - Lebanon/Grenada (August 24, 1982 – July 31, 1984)
  - Panama (December 20, 1989 – January 31, 1990)
  - Persian Gulf War/War on Terrorism (August 2, 1990 – Present)
- Attend American Legion Boys State or American Legion Auxiliary Girls State during the summer between their junior and senior years of high school
- Complete the online application process including upload of all supporting documentation prior to 11:59PM at the close of the first day of their respective Boys State or Girls State program

To be considered as a National Scholar the applicant must be:

- Selected as the (one) State Finalist from their respective Boys State or Girls State program\(^2\)
- Selected as a Samsung American Legion National Scholar by the members of the Committee on Youth Education at their fall meetings, typically held in October of each year

\(^1\) Direct-descendant is defined as the applicant being the legal child, grandchild, great grandchild, et cetera of a qualified wartime veteran

\(^2\) 98-100 Department Finalists are named each year (two from each state: one from each Boys State and one from each Girls State). Hawaii is given the opportunity to nominate two young people (male and female), as they typically do have a Boys State or Girls State program. However, in 2016, Hawaii hosted its first Girls State.
REVISED RULES AND CONDITIONS FOR ADMINISTRATION OF THE SAMSUNG AMERICAN LEGION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

WHEREAS, In 1995 The American Legion was honored to receive a $5 million scholarship endowment from Samsung Group as a gesture of appreciation for the sacrifices of U.S. service men and women who helped maintain security of the Korean peninsula during the Korean War; and

WHEREAS, Res. No. 1 of the National Executive Committee, September 3, 1995, titled “Samsung American Legion Scholarship Program” authorized The American Legion to create a scholarship program by the same name; and

WHEREAS, Res. No. 28 of the National Executive Committee, October 18-19, 2000, titled “Rules and Conditions for Administration of the Samsung American Legion Scholarship Program” established criteria for awarding the Samsung American Legion Scholarship Program from an applicant pool of representatives from The American Legion Boys State and American Legion Auxiliary Girls State programs; and

WHEREAS, Res. No. 19, National Executive Committee, October 9-10, 2002, incorporated changes in eligibility criteria for students from Hawaii as recommended by the National Committee on Education with subsequent concurrence by the National Americanism Commission; and

WHEREAS, In 2013 The American Legion was pleased to honor its longstanding relationship with Samsung through presentation of its prestigious Patriot Award, followed by a visit to Samsung Global Headquarters in Seoul, Korea, by the National Commander; and

WHEREAS, The American Legion and Samsung Electronics located at the North America Headquarters in Ridgefield Park, New Jersey, have reinvigorated discussions of the Samsung American Legion Scholarship Program to enhance the application process for benefit of the applicants, and publicly promote and elevate prominence of the Samsung American Legion Scholars; and
WHEREAS, Changes to the Rules and Conditions under which Samsung American Legion scholarships are awarded is recommended by the Committee on Youth Education with subsequent concurrence by the National Americanism Commission; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, By the National Executive Committee of The American Legion in regular meeting assembled in Indianapolis, Indiana, on October 15-16, 2014, That effective in 2015 the Rules and Conditions under which Samsung American Legion Scholarships are awarded shall be:

1. As previously established, one representative from each American Legion Boys State program, one representative from each American Legion Auxiliary Girls State program and one high school junior boy and one high school junior girl from the Department of Hawaii will comprise the pool of “Samsung American Legion State Finalists”,

Tim Vasil, MSCS, MBA

Tim Vasil, Samsung American Legion Alumnus – 1998, works as the Vice President of Engineering at Hospital IQ. Tim holds a Bachelor of Computer Science from Harvard and an MBA and Masters of Computer Science from MIT, where he was an MIT Fellow in the Leaders for Global Operations program, winning the 2011 Best Thesis Award. He also holds a utility patent for a technique involving workflow on a plurality of task servers. In his spare time, Tim works with the Pan Mass Challenge bike-a-thon fundraiser for cancer research. Tim was the featured alumni speaker at the 2016 Samsung American Legion Scholar Recognition in Washington D.C.
Beginning in June 2014, Samsung and The American Legion conceived the Samsung American Legion Scholar National Recognition in Washington, D.C. The recipients of the $20,000 Samsung American Legion Scholarship from the previous Fall Meetings were brought to our nation’s capital, where each organization honored them. In June 2015, the event expanded from one to three days. The additional time gave Scholars a greater chance to learn about both organizations and experience some of the history in Washington, D.C. The culmination of the trip is a breakfast or luncheon on Capitol Hill with representatives from Samsung, The American Legion and Senators and members of the House from each Scholar’s home state. For the first two years, Samsung and The American Legion shared the cost of the event. A generous grant from Samsung in 2015 allowed for the entirety of the recognition to be covered from 2016 – 2018. A breakdown of the 2016 expenses follows:

“NO? You’re serious, aren’t you?! Oh my god, this is awesome! Thank you, thank you, thank you!”

Sadie Mace (2016 – National Scholar) on initial news of her award

“Wow! I can’t begin to thank Samsung and The American Legion enough. This makes such a huge difference for me and my family. Thank you.”

Ryan Zuzulock (2016 – National Scholar)

“Thank you. This will definitely help me make my own way in obtaining my education. Thank you for very, very much to The American Legion and Samsung for making this possible.”

Nicholas Cordero (2016 – National Scholar)

“Thank you for your generous $750 Samsung American Legion Scholarship. I was more than excited to receive this. My day actually woke me up to ask why I was receiving letters from [The] American Legion… I am excited to begin my pursuit in the biochemistry field after high school… Your generosity has inspired me to help others and give back. Again, thank you very much.”

Rachel Winburn (2016 – Department Finalist)

“The Samsung Recognition will long hold a special place in the hearts of both myself and my family. Immediately upon landing back in New York, I received news of the passing of my grandfather, whose service in the Korean War made my participation in the recognition possible. I can think of no greater way to honor Poppop than through our visits to national war monuments and through The American Legion’s constant support of and recognition for the sacrifice made by men and women in America’s armed forces. When I found out I was a finalist for the scholarship, he was one of the first people I called, and I will never forget him telling me that this award “made Korea worth it.”... The American Legion has changed my life for the better, and I look forward to contributing to the organization as often as possible in the years to come.”

Meghan Slattery (2015 – National Scholar)

“Thank you for selecting me as your 2015 [Nebraska] Girl’s State Samsung American Legion Scholarship recipient. I will work diligently to heed this honor and will not disappoint your decision of choosing me as a recipient. In August, I will be attending the University of Nebraska – Lincoln to study Pre-Veterinary Medicine... I will be the first generation in my family to attend college, and this scholarship will help greatly in accomplishing my lifelong passion of becoming a veterinarian.”

Caitlyn Deal (2015 – Department Finalist)

“As another semester begins, I want to thank you and the Samsung Corporation for the scholarship you gave me. It has a huge impact on allowing me to pursue my education, and I am so grateful to you for that. The American Legion has always held a special place in my heart, and I wish you the best.”
