For God and country we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate a one hundred per cent Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the great war; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and to transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.
The Guest of Honor of the Seventh Annual Convention of the American Legion
Here by the banks of the old Missouri at the gateway of the mighty West, Nebraska bids the Legion welcome. Your glorious deeds of yesterday were the heritage of the blood of the pioneers who builded our cities and conquered our plains. The spirit of Nebraska, past and present, finds fellowship with the legion spirit you bring. Our Latch String is out for you, our welcome to you is as wide as Nebraska's plains,—as smiling as her bluest skies. For you it lasts forever and a day.

ADAM McMULLEN,
Governor of Nebraska.
TO THE AMERICAN LEGIONNAIRES:

Never in the history of our city has anything so stirred the affections of our people, and, in their name and in my own name, I bid you a welcome whose warmth arises from the grateful love of a grateful people. An infinite welcome from the great heart of a great city which appreciates the honor you are conferring upon it.
