Resolution No. 14: National Commander's Blood Donor Awards
Origin: Resolution No. 207 (IL) 1983 National Convention
Submitted by: Internal Affairs Commission

WHEREAS, National Commander's Blood Donor Awards have been presented for several years to the department having the greatest post participation and the department having the greatest individual participation; and

WHEREAS, There is a continuing need to recognize those American Legion departments having successful blood donor programs; and

WHEREAS, These awards have been instrumental in motivating some department blood donor chairmen to superior performance in recruiting members of The American Legion to donate blood in their communities; and

WHEREAS, It has become apparent that the awards program should be expanded to issue awards in each category according to the size of the department; and

WHEREAS, The issuance of awards according to the size of the department; and

WHEREAS, The issuance of awards according to department size would greatly expand the incentives available to department blood donor chairmen; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, By the National Executive Committee of The American Legion in regular meeting assembled in Indianapolis, Indiana, on May 8-9, 1985, That the National Commander is authorized to issue a Blood Donor Award based on the greatest participation of Legion posts to each of five departments based on department size, according to the size criteria established by the national Membership & Post Activities Committee; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That the National Commander is authorized to issue a Blood Donor Award based on greatest individual participation to each of five departments based on department size according to the size criteria established by the national Membership & Post Activities Committee; and, be it finally

RESOLVED, That the administration of this program is hereby assigned to the National Security Commission.
