Whereas, Veterans are in need of employment after exiting the military; and
Whereas, The Department of Defense (DOD) provides some of the best vocational training in the nation for its military personnel; and
Whereas, DOD establishes, measures and evaluates performance standards for every occupation within the Armed Forces; and
Whereas, There are many occupational career fields in the Armed Forces that can easily translate to a civilian counterpart; and
Whereas, There are many occupations in the civilian workforce that require a license or certification; and
Whereas, In the Armed Forces, these unique occupations are performed to approved military standards that may meet or exceed the civilian license or certification criteria; and
Whereas, Upon separation, many former military personnel, certified as proficient in their military occupational career, are not licensed or certified to perform the comparable job in the civilian workforce, thus hindering chances for immediate civilian employment and delaying career advancement; and
Whereas, This situation creates an artificial barrier to employment upon separation from military service; and
Whereas, A study by the Presidential Commission on Servicemembers and Veterans Transition Assistance identified a total of 105 military professions where civilian credentialing is required; and
Whereas, DOD is obligated to keep such licenses and certifications current and cover the costs of renewal; now, therefore, be it
