...At 9:00 a.m., Wednesday, October 11, 2017, the National Executive Committee was called to order by National Commander Denise H. Rohan.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: With the colors of our nation in place, hand salute: Two. I now call on our chaplain, Robert Vick from Florida, for invocation. Please uncover.

Invocation
Robert A. Vick, Florida, National Chaplain

I have good news for you this morning. God is alive and well and still in control, He's on his throne. I know, because I talked to Him this morning. Bow your heads with me, please.

Father, today we pray for wisdom to make decisions that not only will be long lasting but will be effective for the precious souls that we represent. We play not only for wisdom, but we pray for determination to do the things that we have taken an oath to do, and we pray for strength to stand in the gap to represent those who can't represent themselves. And this is my prayer today. Amen.

POW/MIA Remembrance Ceremony
Robert A. Vick, Florida, National Chaplain

While you're standing, our POW/MIA flag is in position. Resolution 288 adopted at the 67th Annual National Convention requires the designation of a POW/MIA chair or flag at the official meetings of The American Legion. This is a symbol of the thousands of American POWs and MIAs still unaccounted for from all wars and conflicts involving our nation. With the POW/MIA flag positioned to my left, let it serve as a reminder for all of us to spare no effort to secure the release of any American prisoners, the repatriation of the remains of those who have been killed in action, and a full accounting of those who are still missing. Let us rededicate ourselves to this vital endeavor.

I hear, occasionally, people refer to those missing in action as "presumed dead." I don't presume them dead. I presume them alive. And until I see evidence that they are dead, I'm going to believe they're alive and I'm going to work and promote finding our POWs, getting them released, recovering the remains of those who have died, and bring them home and give them their proper respect and due. Now for just a moment, bow your heads and thank God for people like these who gave us the freedoms we have and enjoy today. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance and Preamble to the Constitution of The American Legion
Roy A. Helms, Wisconsin, National Sergeant-at-Arms

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: I call on National Sergeant-at-Arms Roy Helms from Wisconsin to lead us in the Pledge of Allegiance.
The National Executive Committee recited the Pledge of Allegiance followed by the Preamble to the Constitution of The American Legion.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: I now declare this National Executive Committee in session, regularly convened. Mr. Adjutant, will you please do the roll call.

NATIONAL ADJUTANT WHEELER: You have a quorum.
NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Thank you very much.
...National Vice Commander Bryant assumed the chair.
Opening Remarks
Denise H. Rohan, Wisconsin, National Commander

Good morning, national officers, past national commanders, members of the NEC, and all of our guests. You may have noticed in your handouts, there is this article. The photo in this article is startling, but the headline is not the least bit surprising. This is an article that was in the New York Post with the headline, "Hero who shields woman from Vegas carnage is a U.S. soldier." This heartbreaking image of a brave man using his entire body to comfort and shield a wounded woman from further harm is a true depiction. But this picture is also a metaphor.

Our military soldiers, sailors, airmen, marine, and coast guardsmen, protect, shield, and comfort each and every one of us every day. Since the founding of our American Legion, veterans have shielded us from the likes of Hitler, imperial Japan, Marxist tyrants, and terrorists. But this photo illustrates something a little different; it illustrates that the war is here. Now, the motive of this shooter is still not clear. But as veterans, we swore to protect our country from enemies, both foreign and domestic. Can there be any doubt that this killer is our enemy?

But I prefer not to dwell on the evil. A much more compelling aspect of this is the good. Chances are, the soldier, Matthew Cobos, did not know the woman who he was risking his life to comfort and to protect. We may not know all of the names of the more than two million active-duty reservists and guards members who are currently serving, but we do know their character. We do know the sacrifice and dedication that is expected of them because we, too, have gone through it. And just as they are protectors, like an older brother or an older sister, we, at The American Legion, need to be their mentors.

Now, as a dual member, a member of The American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary, family is obviously very important to me, which is why my theme is Family First. I loved my time in the Army. One reason that I did not reenlist is because there was no guarantee that I would be stationed with my husband, Mike, who was also serving in the Army. The Legion Family understands that oftentimes, it is the spouse of an active-duty or deployed veteran that carries a disproportionate share of child-rearing, household chores, and family decision-making.

Today, the U.S. military is much more family-friendly, and I'd like to think part of the reason is because of the advocacy of our own American Legion Family. Even though we have taken off our uniforms, we do continue to serve. In reality, it's The American Legion Family that takes care of our nation's families. We see it along our Gulf Coast after the devastation of Hurricane Harvey, Irma, and now most recently, Nate. Communications in Puerto Rico are still not fully restored since Hurricane Maria hit.

But I just know, I know that our American Legion Family is making life better for those who live there and in the Virgin Islands. We are well represented within the ranks of our first responders, our military personnel, and our FEMA workers. American Legion posts, such as Post 658 in Crosby, Texas, have been lifesavers to people who have lost everything.

One such person is Leo Garcia. Leo was fleeing with his family from Port Arthur, Texas, when floodwaters surrounded his Jeep. All of his belongings, his pregnant teenage daughter, his wife, and their baby girl were in the vehicle. They were rescued, but it was The American Legion post that took them in, provided clothes, hot meals, and shelter from the storm. As soon as Leo gets back on his feet and again earns an income, he promises to join our Sons of The American Legion. He explained his desire to be part of our American Legion Family, and I quote, "These are the people that I want my children to grow up around." And who wouldn't? We are here for those impacted by hurricanes, we are here for the people affected by the western wildfires, and we are here for the Department of Mexico which had a devastating earthquake last month.
In between disasters and horrific attacks, like what happened in Las Vegas, we must continue to give blood. Because you see, it's the blood that's on the shelves when something like this happens that saves lives. We know that last year, Legionnaires donated more than 78,000 pints of blood, and that number is just what posts reported on their CPRs. We have donated more than four million hours of service to our communities, and we raised $1.2 million for the Legacy Fund during the ride to Reno.

But now getting back to that photo from Las Vegas. The best way for us to comfort, protect, and support Matthew Cobos and his brothers and sisters in arms is not just to advocate for our military, but to advocate for their families as well. I ask you to attend yellow ribbon events, get to know the Family Readiness Group leaders, fix broken water heaters for families of deployed soldiers, let them know that The American Legion Family is there for their family.

That's the main goal on Veterans Day, where I'm hoping that all posts agree to host an open house and open your doors to the public, and introduce the public, the community, to The American Legion Family. Let them know that we are America's family. I'm hoping that posts can report about their events on the Legiotiont website, that's legion.org/legiontown. We will use the Veterans Day media packets on legion.org. Invite the youth to participate, your church groups, the reserve units, recruiters, active-duty military personnel, all other nonprofit organizations. We can't support our communities if people in our community don't know who we are. So basically, invite anybody who's willing to come.

We also can't grow our membership if people do not know who we are and what we do. We have lost a lot of members in recent years; we're already more than 26,000 members behind where we were at this time last year. Most of our World War II vets have long gone and they've moved on to Post Everlasting, so we can no longer use that for an excuse. But letting our younger generation of veterans know that we're there for them and we're there for their families, we will earn membership.

We've had tremendous legislative successes lately and we should all feel great pride in the recent months with the fantastic legislation that we've passed, bringing greater accountability in our VA; whistleblowers are increasingly being protected; and a better and forever GI Bill. We have seen the Appeals Modernization Act which was signed on stage at our national convention. And then most recently, Congress approved and the president signed the commemorative centennial coin for The American Legion.

These are the types of issues that will keep us in the public eye. But it's what happens in our local-level posts, it's the family level. That's what matters most in our communities. The Choice Program is still very confusing to a lot of people, but having your service officers explain it to our veterans in your area, we cannot only improve their lives, but we can introduce them to extended family members that they didn't even know that they had. Our benefit fairs, our open houses, our dinners, our blood drives; there's no limit to what our organization can do. So while we often use these meetings to focus on membership, programs, operations, legislative priorities, let us also remember the importance of keeping family first. We owe it to those who are protecting and defending us each and every day.

So thank you, and I hope we have a great meeting. Thanks. (Standing applause)

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE VICE CHAIRMAN KILE: Commander, motion to receive and file the report of National Commander Denise Rohan. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: There's been a motion and a second to receive my report. Are there any questions? All those in favor of receiving and filing the report, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Carried.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: I'd like to recognize Past National Commander Jake Comer.
PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: Thank you, commander, for calling me out of order. I just want to remind the members of the National Executive Committee that, for many of you, I have placed a form on your desk this morning in regards to ANAVICUS dues. This is how we support the nine or ten scholarships that we have. Someone says, "What do your dues cover?" That's all it covers, is scholarship; all the money goes out.

On that list are delinquents, some of them are the perennials. But if you want to pay some of their dues, some do, go up to see Jennifer Norton on the third floor and give her $20 and she'll take their name off the list. As I said when I addressed the NEC and the commanders and adjutants, if you find someone on that list that you know now is in a nursing home or hospital, has Alzheimer's, dementia, but longtime great members of our organization, then just remind Jennifer to leave them on the list without payment, so that when the time comes to go to their great reward, we can remember them. If they're not on the list, they wouldn't be remembered, but they've been longtime dues-paying members. If you find someone on that list that is just a vagabond, you're never going to see him again, he just doesn't want to be involved, then tell Jennifer to take his name off the list. So with all that said, go out and collect that money.

Announcements, Mr. Wheeler.

Announcements

NATIONAL ADJUTANT WHEELER: In your folders you have two documents which will be of a great deal of help to you. One of them is American Legion Message Points from 2017-2018, please don't overlook that. And there's a pocket guide to our positions and programs which you can carry with you. If you need to do an off-the-cuff speech, all you have to do is pick a couple of pages in here and concentrate on them. So these are two things that should be very helpful to you.

The National Commander's dinner honoring the NEC is tonight at the Sheraton City Centre in Indianapolis. The reception will be held in the Circle Suites at 6 p.m. The dinner will be served in the Meridian Ballroom at 7 p.m.
NECmen who have not yet submitted names of attendees will find a bright yellow form on their desk. This needs to be completed and returned to Kevin Long, who is in the back of the room smiling. The cutoff for seating requests is 10 a.m. So if you have a yellow form, please complete it and turn it in immediately. Tickets will be available in the front office for pickup after lunch.

All members of the NEC are asked to stop by the fourth floor lounge during their lunch break for your 2017-2018 official portrait sitting, which I think appears in the January issue. That completes the announcements, Madam Commander.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: I now call on Chairman Dave Warnken for resolutions.

Oral Report: Subcommittee on Resolutions
David O. Warnken, Kansas, Chairman

Thank you, commander. Good morning. Commander, your Subcommittee on Resolutions have been in session for the last two days. We have 21 resolutions that will be presented, coming from the commissions and committees who will make reports. Any resolution seeking National Executive Committee approval will follow the report of the commission. All resolutions which have been disposed of by other action or held for further study will be reported on an addendum. Our thanks to the commissions for their efficient and accurate handling of the resolutions during these meetings. This has had a positive impact on the work of the Subcommittee on Resolutions.

Commander, at this time I would like to present a resolution. That resolution is not in the packet but it should be on your desk in a singular form, and that is Resolution No. 21. I will read this resolution under rule 8A and note that the time is 9:27 a.m.

WHEREAS, The American Legion has in place many programs designed to meet the basic needs of those who are currently or have recently served, and their families, through programs to include, but not limited to, Family Support Network and Temporary Financial Assistance, but there remain other challenges faced by the current generation of veterans related to multiple deployments, serious injuries incurred during combat and reintegration to civilian society; and

How Beautiful To Be With God

How beautiful to be with God,
When earth is fading like a dream,
And from this mist-encircled shore
We launch upon the unknown stream

No doubt, no fear, no anxious care,
But comforted by staff and rod,
In the faith-brightened hour of Death
How beautiful to be with God.

— Wayside Altar

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Cover. You may be seated. Is there a motion to receive and file?

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE VICE CHAIRMAN KILE: Commander, I make a motion to receive and file the report. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: There is a motion to receive and file the report. Are there any questions? All those in favor, say aye. Opposed, same sign. Carried. It is now my privilege to introduce to you the president of our nation's largest women's patriotic organization. From the Department of Wisconsin, Diane Duscheck. (Standing applause)

Greetings: Diane Duscheck
National President, American Legion Auxiliary

Thank you very much. Commander, NEC members, guests, it is so great to be here and bringing you greetings from another part of your American Legion Family, the American Legion Auxiliary. I know that NEC members are tasked with the responsibility of the health of the organization. So for you today, I wish you great deliberations. Commander, I hope you have a wonderful meeting. The American Legion Auxiliary is working to be a strong member of The American Legion Family, and we're doing that through our strategic plan and through our planning also. So have a wonderful meeting, I wish you all the best. Thank you very much. (Standing applause)

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: I now call on National Judge Advocate Phil Onderdonk for his report.

Oral Report: National Judge Advocate
Philip B. Onderdonk, Jr., Maryland

My apologies for being a little slow. We had 114 contracts this year. I have a full list here if anyone wants me to read it, but otherwise, I'll pass. We'll go to the litigation.

Steich versus The American Legion, et al. This is a case in Pennsylvania that has been filed but nothing has ever happened. The individual suing doesn't like the fact that we didn't represent him in court. He's a prisoner. So nothing has happened. It should have been dismissed by the court automatically. It's not even worth filing a request for that, so we just keep it on the list until the court finally wakes up.

The American Humanist Association versus the Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission, including The American Legion. This is the cross in Maryland. It is a World War I Veterans Memorial, but because it's a cross, the American Humanist Association wants it torn down. We won at the trial court. It's on appeal to the third circuit. Our brief has been filed, we're waiting for a schedule of argument.

I have a number of cases with Daniel Bernath in Florida, both in state and federal court, plus appeals in state and federal court. Rather than going through the details, I will just say this individual has been found to be a vexatious litigant, and we are hoping to get our fees back one of these days, whenever the court rules.

Fleming versus The American Legion. Plaintiff claims she was sexually assaulted by the post commander while a waitress at a post in New Jersey. The court has not ruled. They keep trying to settle, and they want it settled without prejudice. We're not going to settle on that basis. There's no real claim or damages from the national organization. The case is pretty well resolved, but it's still pending.

Silva versus The American Legion. Dram shop case in Wayne County, Pennsylvania, which is northeast Pennsylvania, filed in Philadelphia because the Philadelphia courts are very pro-plaintiff. The post judge advocate in the bar left to go home after one drink; an hour later, had a car crash and killed three people, including himself. The problem is, his home was only ten minutes away. We do not know what happened in that hour. But the plaintiffs have tried to proceed any way they can. They did not sue the department and they did not sue the home association. The home association has the liquor license, which is a required defendant. They didn't do it right. They deposed me, and now they have prepared an expert witness to state that The American Legion national does control the post, despite the wording of our corporate charter. They did not give the corporate charter or my deposition to this expert. So when he does testify, if and when we ever get to a hearing, we're going to have a little fun.

Richard Staab versus David Shulkin. This is an individual who had a car crash, a heart attack, and a stroke. The VA sent him to local hospitals, but full payment did not occur. So he appealed to the Court of Veterans Appeals and won. The VA wanted to take it to the circuit court. We opposed the VA with an amicus curiae brief, and the secretary of Veterans Affairs has withdrawn the appeal.

I have a number of trademarks pending. We will rewrite the trademark booklet as soon as we get the word from the government. The Poppy should be published shortly. We're getting an amendment to the Legion College emblem because they put the year of the particular class on the emblem when they award it to the class participants.

We had an individual in San Francisco who was running for office and trying to use the Legion emblem. Sent him cease-and-desist letter. He ignored it, figured San Francisco was too far from Indianapolis. So I called our lawyer in San Francisco who sent him a letter; he dropped the emblem immediately. We're just not going to put up with that. Our emblem is filed in a number of foreign countries: European Union; Russia; India; China; Australia; and New Zealand; not so much in Africa; four countries in South America. Because every now and then, there are some challenges to our emblem in various countries. In fact, we're probably going to have to send some cease-and-desist letters to Europe because people are using the emblem who are not eligible for The American Legion.

On other legal matters, there have been 362 written opinions to several departments and posts. Media and communications: I've reviewed all the articles. The retirement plan: I've attended all the meetings. There are two retirement plans, actually, now, so I've done both, salary savings committee meetings. I serve as parliamentarian and any other duties assigned.

I would also like to address another issue here. On your desks is a form, a conflict-of-interest form required by the IRS from all directors, that would include the alternates, past national commanders may file it, certainly I would recommend it, and commission chairmen. Please fill it out, give it to me or drop it off at my office, that way we won't have to pester you by mail to get it done, because it gets filed with the tax return with the IRS. Thank you. Commander, that concludes my report.

Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission,
Defendant.

The American Humanist Association sued to compel destruction of the “Bladensburg Cross” which is on state land. It was erected on private property that was taken to enlarge a road intersection. It was erected by The American Legion in 1925 as a veteran’s memorial. One of the plaintiffs is “upset” to see it. National, the Department of Maryland and the Bladensburg post are amici and will file to protect the cross.

On September 18, 2014, the U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland, allowed The American Legion, the Department of Maryland and Colmar Manor Post No. 131 to be admitted as intervening defendants.

I was deposed March 4, 2015.

Our brief was filed to seek Summary Judgement. Summary Judgement was granted.

The plaintiffs have appealed to the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Our brief has been filed. The Appellants will have a chance to file a Reply Brief, then Arguments will be scheduled.

A case filed by the Plaintiff, Daniel A. Bernath, in the Circuit Court of the Twentieth Judicial Circuit, Florida, on June 20, 2014. The case was voluntarily dismissed by the Plaintiff on October 2, 2014. This case alleged causes of action for slander, IIED and negligent infliction of emotional distress and now is over.

YouTube LLC, Mark Seavey, LLL, et al. )

A pending case filed by the Plaintiff, Daniel A. Bernath, in the Circuit Court of the Twentieth Judicial Circuit, Florida, on December 28, 2015. The case was involuntarily dismissed by the court with leave to amend, which the Plaintiff subsequently abused. A court hearing was held attended by some of the Defendants. Judge Krier issued an order that a Florida attorney currently licensed in that state must sign any further filings submitted by him. Bernath violated this order repeatedly and Judge Krier dismissed the case. Bernath then appealed to the Florida Second Court of Appeal, however the vast bulk of Bernath’s appeal motion deals with a default by the Shipley’s, a defendant not related to us. In fact, a cursory review doesn’t show any reference at all to The American Legion or Mark Seavey. We await the Court’s ruling on the appeal.

DANIEL BERNATH,
   Plaintiff,
vs.   CIVIL ACTION NO. 2:15-cv-358-FtM-99CM
MARK CAMERON SEAVEY
   Defendant.

Plaintiff, Daniel A. Bernath sued Mark Seavey, an employee, in Florida alleging many false claims. The case was filed in the US District Ct, Middle District of Florida, on June 16, 2015.

After numerous filing of hundreds of documents by Bernath the federal Court granted Seavey’s Motion for Summary Judgment for Libel and Defamation Per Se, and denied Bernath’s claims of Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress (IIED) and Copyright Infringement.

Additionally, The American Legion’s Verified Motion for Summary Judgment on Plaintiff’s Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress and Copyright Infringement Claims, for Declaratory Judgment on Plaintiff’s Claims of Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress and Copyright Infringement Claims, and for Copyright Infringement, Cybersquatting, and Violation of Federal Statutes Regarding Emblem and Name of American Legion, and Libel and Defamation Per Se were granted.

Documents were filed for damages, attorney fees and naming Bernath a “vexatious litigant.”

On August 8, 2017, the judge ruled he was a “vexatious litigant” and denied the fees and costs without prejudice.

A case currently on appeal to the 11th Circuit, originally filed in United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida around August 1, 2016. The lower court dismissed the Plaintiff’s case with finality, but without prejudice. It was dismissed both on the basis of lack of diversity of jurisdiction as well as failure to state a claim. This case was filed in June 2015. Plaintiff claims she was sexually harassed by the post commander while a waitress at New Jersey Post No. 129 while she worked for the catering company hired by the post. She further claims a hostile work environment and retaliation and reprisal along with negligence and vicarious liability.

We filed a motion to dismiss The American Legion because we do not control the post per our corporate charter. Plaintiff’s attorney has alleged our charter does not mean what it says. We have provided the legislative history to prove it does. The court has not ruled yet.

We have also filed a motion for sanctions because plaintiff’s lawyer keeps trying to insist on dropping the case “without prejudice.” The court has not yet ruled.

This is a dram shop case involving a car accident in Wayne County, Pennsylvania. The case was brought in Philadelphia because the plaintiffs’ belief the judges are more plaintiff prone and Philadelphia juries award larger judgments.
The plaintiffs have named as defendants “American Legion, District 15 Post 311” and The American Legion. They clearly do not understand the structure of The American Legion. We have filed a motion to send the case back to Wayne County and to correct a number of other defects in the complaint.

For example, the accident occurred a full 45 minutes after the defendant left the post on his 10-12-minute drive home. We do not know why the delay occurred.

The National Judge Advocate was deposed on venue and The American Legion’s Corporate Charter on January 28, 2016.

The American Legion is also filing for removal of the case to Wayne County, Pennsylvania. This was denied. We have asked the court to reconsider. Plaintiff has filed for new deadlines, which will probably not be final.

The American Legion will be filing for dismissal and/or summary judgement once the procedural defects are corrected. We are also filing for removal of the case to Wayne County, Pennsylvania. This was denied. We have asked the court to reconsider. Plaintiff has filed for new deadlines, which will probably not be final.

Plaintiffs did not sue the “Home Association” which holds the liquor license as is required under Pennsylvania Law. The court of common pleas in Philadelphia is so pro plaintiff we have to wait until discovery closes for any satisfaction.

No. 16-2671
IN THE US COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FEDERAL CIRCUIT

RICHARD W. STAAB,
Claimant-Appellee,

v.

DAVID J. SHULKIN,
Secretary of Veterans Affairs
Respondent-Appellant,

Appeal from the United States Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims
Case No. 14-0957

We were asked by the National Veterans Legal Services Programs (NVLSP) if we would be an amicus in the Richard W. Staab v. David J. Shulkin case. Jones Day is appearing pro se as our counsel.

In this case, the Appellee, Richard W. Staab, had a heart attack and stroke and was treated at a non-Veterans Administration medical facility. Apparently, $48,000 was not covered by his Medicare Plan. The Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims ruled in his favor pursuant to 38 U.S.C. §1725. The Veterans Administration appealed despite the well-reasoned decision in the court below and legal precedent. Briefs have been filed. The case should be argued next fall.

The American Legion convinced the government to drop its appeal. The veterans won. The case is over.

Trademark Report and Use of The American Legion Emblem by Political Candidates

As you know, The American Legion does not participate in political campaigns for office. This last election year we had a large number of candidates use the emblem to campaign. Every time we learned of one we sent a “Cease and Desist” letter which normally resolved the problem.

However, one candidate in San Francisco took the position he did not have to comply because Indianapolis was too far away. I referred the matter to Winston and Strawn in San Francisco who sent a two-sentence letter which told the candidate to follow the “Cease and Desist” letter. He promptly backed down. At the election, he lost.

In addition, trademarking the mark: “National Poppy Day” and the class year to the Legion College scroll is in progress.

Other Legal Matters

There are a number of other legal proceedings in which The American Legion has been contacted for discovery purposes, which are not part of or named in the particular cause and a number of cases are in the beginning stages but not yet filed.

The National Judge Advocate has rendered 362 written opinions on questions which have been submitted by the several Departments and/or Posts of The American Legion, National Officers, staff members and individual members of our organization. These opinions involved matters legal, such as contracts, probate matters, federal tax questions, torts, insurance matters, Articles of Incorporation, civil rights statutes, retirement benefits under the law and other matters of a legal nature; problems concerning the interpretation and construction of the National Constitution and By-Laws of The American Legion, policy matters, many of which matters required a great deal of legal research.

In each instance, when appropriate, a copy of the opinion rendered was furnished to each of the following so that they would be acquainted with the opinions affecting their Department; National Executive Committeeeman, Department Commander, Department Adjutant, and the Department Judge Advocate of the Department involved.

Many oral opinions were also rendered to the National Officers, National Commission Chairmen, to Department Officers, and to staff Directors of the national organization upon subjects involving matters legal, financial, administrative and policy.

There were 8 written opinions rendered during the year to the National Secretary of the American Legion Auxiliary, in response to queries submitted to her for determination by me.

The National Judge Advocate has also rendered oral advice on matters legal and administrative to the National Officers of the American Legion Auxiliary on many occasions during the past year.

Media & Communications

The American Legion Magazine

The National Judge Advocate in accordance with established policy, has reviewed manuscripts of articles destined for future publication in The American Legion Magazine and the Dispatch, for the purpose of expunging statements or materials questionable in character, contained therein which might subject The American Legion to a suit in libel. To date 818 manuscripts have been reviewed and appropriate comments in connection therewith were transmitted, when necessary, to the Publisher or Editor of The American Legion Magazine. The National Judge Advocate also reviews videos posted on The American Legion website.

Starting in July, the National Judge Advocate and the Assistant National Judge Advocate have reviewed 252 articles and 30 videos for posting on the computer site under the title “Legiontown” and others and 67 identifications of veterans memorials.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE VICE CHAIRMAN KILE: Commander, motion to receive and file the report of National Judge Advocate Onderdonk. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to accept the report from Judge Onderdonk. Are there any questions? Past National Commander Comer?

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: I didn't hear it clearly, I'm a little concerned. Could you explain more about the Carolina one, about the gentleman using the seal to run for office?

NATIONAL JUDGE ADVOCATE ONDERDONK: Okay. That was in California, sir. He lost the election. He was using it on his pamphlets and pictures. We sent him a cease-and-desist letter and he ignored it, kept right on doing it. I send those out certified mail, return receipt requested, so we had the receipt and could prove he had gotten the letter. He didn't stop.
PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: I don't understand. You mean he's running for office, he's a Legionnaire, he sends out a letter for his campaign?

NATIONAL JUDGE ADVOCATE ONDERDONK: Yes, sir.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: Why can't he use the seal if he gets permission from the national?

NATIONAL JUDGE ADVOCATE ONDERDONK: Because he did not have permission, sir. And when you're running for partisan office, we're not allowed to get into partisan politics.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: Oh, I'm sorry. I thought he was running for Legion office.

NATIONAL JUDGE ADVOCATE ONDERDONK: Oh, no, sir. This was public office.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: Case closed.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Are there any other questions? On the motion to receive and file the judge's report, all those in favor, say aye. Opposed, same sign. Carried.

NATIONAL JUDGE ADVOCATE ONDERDONK: Commander, with your permission, I'd like to address one other issue.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Go ahead.

NATIONAL JUDGE ADVOCATE ONDERDONK: Members of the NEC, Legion staff, Legionnaires, I will be retiring as national judge advocate at the end of this year and continuing as a consultant until after the Minneapolis convention. I just want to thank you all for your kindness, friendship, and support. (Standing applause)

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: First of all, on behalf of the body and Legionnaires everywhere, I want to thank National Judge Advocate Phil Onderdonk for his 35 years of service to this great organization. So thank you again. (Applause)

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Inasmuch as he is retiring as our national judge advocate on December 31, 2017, in order to accept the position of legal consultant, I recommend Kevin Bartlett from Michigan to be the national judge advocate, effective January 1, 2018.

Oral Report: Marketing Commission
Kenneth D. Danilson, Iowa, Chairman

Good morning. Madam Commander, members of the NEC, and guests, you all have my written report, but I have some key topics that I will be going through. First, I want to thank James Baca and everyone in the Marketing Division for the outstanding job they are doing in this new role and continue their efforts. So thanks, James, and everybody, thank you.
Your Marketing Commission met October 9 and 10, 2017, at the Sheraton Panorama Ballroom in Indianapolis, Indiana. The Marketing Commission continues to work diligently with the Marketing Division, using all marketing tactics available to raise public awareness of The American Legion emblem, brand, and our efforts on behalf of veterans' issues.

First, I would like to cover with you some information on the recently passed coin bill, and I know down the road you'll be getting a lot more information. Commemorative coin legislation generally has a specific format. Once a coin is authorized, it follows a specific process for design and minting. Following the conclusion of a coin program, designated recipient organizations may receive surcharge payments once the U.S. Mint has recouped all costs associated with producing the coin.

Now that Congress has authorized the coin, the U.S. Treasury begins the coin-design process. After receiving advice from the Citizens Coinage Advisory Committee and the Commission on Fine Arts, the secretary-treasurer, through the U.S. Mint, finalizes the coin design and schedules it for production at the appropriate time. From authorization to coin launch, it is estimated that a commemorative coin takes a minimum of 56 to 60 weeks. Disbursement of surcharges, this is the money that The American Legion will receive. Each authorizing statute sets this amount. The American Legion surcharge amounts are, it's $35 for the $5 coin, $10 for the $1 coin, and $5 for the half-dollar coin.

Just as an FYI, the amount of coins that will be minted; the half-dollar coin, 750,000 is the production amount; the silver coin, 400,000; and the gold coin, 50,000. That's 1.2 million coins. If we sell all those, we'll realize $9.5 million. So that's the goal. You will be receiving much more information in the future on this and how you can purchase the coins. The Marketing Division is working on different ways that we work with the mint to market these, there are certain rules we have to follow. So those will be upcoming.

Changing gears a little bit, membership acquisition test. The Marketing and Finance Commissions approved the development and testing a supplement new-member recruitment model where like-minded organizations have the ability to raise money for their own organization while recruiting members to The American Legion. The new supplement recruitment model would pay the organization amount as negotiated for each new member that they recruit into The American Legion. The American Legion benefits by saving money and forging new and strengthening current relationships with other veteran-centric organizations, and the organizations benefit by getting a new revenue stream. This will be a pilot project that you'll hear more on later.

DMS membership acquisition. The 2018 DMS membership cycle started in July as planned with the first three to four campaigns. Year-to-date, it has acquired more than 36,000 members and is on pace to meet the projected goals. A new communications plan is being developed to standardize the communication flow to these new members for the first 24 months of their membership.

The department fundraising program continues the transition process from national headquarters to Patriot Fundraising Group. At this time, 17 departments have signed on and three more departments are waiting on approval from their DEC to go into this program. More to come later.

National fundraising, nonmember. Year-to-date, the national fundraising program is on pace to finish as planned. We are expecting gross revenue to finish at about $11 million and net income at 1.8 million. The active donor has grown to about 340,000 donors who have made one gift in the past 12 months.

DMS fundraising will finish the year with net income of about $200,000. This is the result of ten campaigns mailed this year. This fundraising campaign will change to support the new member communication plan being developed for the 2019 membership year. Details will follow on that later at, I think, the Washington meeting.
A presentation was made to the Marketing Commission on the Legacy Ride and much work has been done in the last two years by the Marketing Division to promote the ride, which in turn raises awareness of The American Legion. The Marketing Commission seeks to have more input in the routing and planning of the Legacy ride to ensure we can maximize our capital in further promotion of The American Legion and attract potential new members and increased donations.

Finally, I want to touch upon the alumni program. We have discussed reenergizing our efforts to create an effective alumni association through the Marketing Division for the purposes of fundraising and recognizing our youth program participants who may achieve success in their lives after their participation in our programs. For these reasons, it is recommended that the coordination of the alumni association be centered in the Marketing Division. This will enable us to maximize our efforts to engage past participants in our many youth programs.

Madam Commander, this concludes my report. On behalf of the Marketing Commission and myself, I thank you and everyone else who has and continues to support our efforts. Thank you.

Report: Marketing Commission
Kenneth D. Danilson, Iowa, Chairman
October 11, 2017

The Marketing Commission met October 9th and 10th, 2017 at the Sheraton Panoramic ball room in Indianapolis Indiana.

The Marketing Commission continues to work diligently using all marketing tactics available to raise public awareness of The American Legion emblem, brand and our efforts on behalf of veteran issues. The intent of this report is to outline next steps following the president’s signature of the coin bill. In addition, a report from the National Emblem Committee to the Marketing Commission has been included. Also information on other marketing initiatives are summarized.

Coin Bill Information

Commemorative Coins: Background: Process following signature of the President

Commemorative coin legislation generally has a specific format. Once a coin is authorized, it follows a specific process for design and minting (see “Design of Coins” below). This process includes consultation and recommendations by the Citizens Coin Advisory Commission (CCAC) and the U.S. Commission of Fine Arts (CFA), pursuant to any statutory instructions, before the Secretary of the Treasury makes the final decision on a coin’s design. Following the conclusion of a coin program, designated recipient organizations may receive surcharge payments, once the U.S. Mint has recouped all costs associated with producing the coin.

Design of Coins

After Congress has authorized a commemorative coin, the U.S. Treasury begins the coin design process. This process involves consultation with the CCAC and a design recommendation by the CFA. The final decision on a coin’s design is made by the Secretary of the Treasury.¹

Citizens Coinage Advisory Committee (CCAC)

Established by P.L. 108-15,² the CCAC advises the Secretary of the Treasury on theme and design of all U.S. coins and medals. For commemorative coins, the CCAC advises the Secretary with regard to events, persons, or places to be commemorated, the mintage level of coins, and commemorative coin designs. The CCAC consists of 11 members appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury, with four persons appointed upon the recommendation of the congressional leadership (one each by the Speaker of the House, the House minority leader, the Senate majority leader, and the Senate minority leader). The CCAC meets several times each year to consider design suggestions for coins and medals. For each coin considered, the CCAC provides advice to the Secretary “on thematic, technical, and design issues related to the production of coins.” Recommendations are then published to the committee’s website, at http://www.ccac.gov.

U.S. Commission of Fine Arts

Once the CCAC has recommended a commemorative coin design, the U.S. Mint makes a formal presentation of CCAC’s recommendation and other design options to the U.S. Commission of Fine Arts (CFA). Established in 1910, the CFA advises “upon the location of statues, fountains, and monuments in the public squares, streets, and parks in the District of Columbia, the selection of models for statues, fountains, and monuments erected under the authority of the Federal Government; the selection of artists; and questions of art generally when required to do so by the President or a committee of Congress.” This includes review of commemorative coins when they are presented by the U.S. Mint and the issuance of recommendations for a coin’s design.
U.S. Mint

After receiving advice from the CCAC and the CFA, the Secretary of the Treasury, through the U.S. Mint, finalizes the coin’s design and schedules it for production at the appropriate time. In some cases, the U.S. Mint holds a competition for coin designs.

Commemorative Coin Timeline

From authorization to coin launch, the CCAC has estimated that a commemorative coin takes a minimum of between 56 and 60 weeks. This includes the coin design process, engraving, marketing, printing materials, and coin launch. This timeline, however, does not account for coin programs that might be authorized years in advance of the coins’ scheduled release. In those circumstances, the process from authorization to coin launch will be considerably longer. The process, as described by the CCAC, is shown in Figure 1 (below).

Disbursement of Surcharges

Each authorizing statute sets a surcharge amount per coin and designates one or more recipient organizations to receive the surcharges. A designated recipient organization is “any organization designated, under any provision of law, as the recipient of any surcharge imposed on the sale of any numismatic item.”6

“The American Legion 100th Anniversary Commemorative Coin Act” bill as it has been passed calls for the following surcharges:

(a) In General.—All sales of coins minted under this Act shall include a surcharge as follows:

(1) A surcharge of $35 per coin for the $5 coin.
(2) A surcharge of $10 per coin for the $1 coin.
(3) A surcharge of $5 per coin for the half-dollar coin.

Further the bill directs the distribution of surcharges as follows:
(b) Distribution.—Subject to section 5134(f) of title 31, United States Code, all surcharges received by the Secretary from the sale of coins issued under this Act shall be promptly paid by the Secretary to The American Legion for costs related to—

(1) promoting the importance of and caring for those who have served in uniform, ensuring they receive proper health care and disability benefits earned through military service;
(2) promoting the importance of, and caring for, those who are still serving in the Armed Forces;
(3) promoting the importance of maintaining the patriotic values, morals, culture, and citizenship of the United States; and
(4) promoting the importance of maintaining strong families, assistance for at-risk children, and activities that promote their healthy and wholesome development.

As an organization, we have a few requirements we will have to meet.

Once a commemorative coin has been authorized, the CCRA requires that certain standards be met before surcharge payments can be distributed to designated recipient organizations:7
1. The recipient organization must raise funds from private sources “in an amount that is equal to or greater than the total amount of the proceeds of such surcharge derived from the sale of such numismatic item.”8
2. The qualifying funds raised from private sources must be for the purposes specified by the enabling legislation.
3. The U.S. Mint must recover “all numismatic operation and program costs allocable to the program.”9
4. The recipient organization must submit an audited financial statement and submit the results of annual audits to demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury, that it has qualified for surcharge proceeds and is properly expending them.10

Guidance provided by the U.S. Mint in Surcharge Recipient Organization’s Compliance Procedures for Surcharge Eligibility & Payments includes further details of the requirements placed on designated recipient groups before surcharge payments can be made. These include requirements for documentation on the amount of money raised from private sources and the period of fund raising. To document these requirements, designated recipient groups must fill out a “Schedule of Funds Raised From Private Sources,” which is provided in an appendix to the Surcharge Recipient Organization’s Compliance Procedures for Surcharge Eligibility & Payments publication.11

Following completion of these tasks, and after the Mint has recouped any expenses related to minting the commemorative coin, surcharges are then disbursed to the designated recipient organization.12 Production costs for each commemorative coin can differ based on design, administrative costs, and metals used.

The following is specific in the bill language for design

(a) In General.— The design for the coins minted under this Act shall be emblematic of The American Legion.

(b) Designations And Inscriptions.— On each coin minted under this Act there shall be —

(1) a designation of the denomination of the coin;
(2) an inscription of the year “2019”; and
(3) inscriptions of the words “Liberty”, “In God We Trust”, “United States of America”, and “E Pluribus Unum”.

Quantity of Coins.

As outlined in the legislation is as follows:

1. $5 Gold Coins.—Not more than 50,000 $5 coins,
2. $1 Silver Coins.—Not more than 400,000 $1 coins,
3. Half-Dollar Clad Coins.—Not more than 750,000 half-dollar coins

3. For a list of current members of the CCAC, see Citizens Coinage Advisory Committee, “Members,” at http://ccac.gov/aboutUs/members.cfm.
8. The CCRA requires that designated recipient organizations demonstrate that funds have been raised from private sources for the project designated to receive the surcharges from the commemorative coin program. In order to receive surcharge payments, “the total of qualifying private funds raised must be greater than or equal to the total amount of the proceeds of such surcharge derived from the sale of such numismatic item.” Further, “private funds are funds raised from non-governmental sources,” and can include cash contribution and other assets that can be readily converted to cash. Other assets that can be readily converted to cash might include “donations of common stock or marketable real estate.” In-kind donations are not considered “funds,” and are not included in calculations for the purpose of surcharge disbursement. Fundraising time limits are also placed on designated recipient organizations. All eligible private funds must be raised “during the period between the inception of the recipient organization and the date two years after the last day any coin in the respective program is issued by the Secretary” (Surcharge Recipient Manual, pp. 4-5).
9. Further, payments are not generally made until “the recipient organization satisfactorily demonstrates that it has raised qualifying funds from private sources in an amount equal to or greater than the maximum amount the organization may receive from the proceeds of surcharges under the respective [commemorative coin] program” (Surcharge Recipient Manual, p. 14). If the recipient organization has demonstrated that qualifying funds have been raised, “the United States Mint will consider accommodating the recipient organization by making interim surcharge payments at the United States Mint’s discretion,” although “any interim surcharge payment will depend on the financial performance of the program and the risk of loss to which the United States Mint may be exposed by releasing surcharge funds before the termination of the program” (Surcharge Recipient Manual, p. 12). Interim payments may be made starting six months after the start of the commemorative coin program with payments up to 50% of surcharges collected by the U.S. Mint. Further payments of up to 25% may be made nine months after the start of the program, with the remainder paid upon program close out.
10. Surcharge Recipient Manual, p. 1. Additionally, audits are required for privately raised funds. “The auditor’s report shall cover the period necessary to demonstrate that required funds from private sources have been raised by the recipient organization. The period reported should be by fiscal year of the recipient organization and must correspond with the period covered by the recipient organization’s assertion. The auditor should submit its report promptly to the recipient organization upon completion” (Surcharge Recipient Manual, p. 6).
11. Surcharge Recipient Manual, p. 1. The “Schedule of Funds Raised From Private Sources,” documentation must be audited pursuant to U.S. Mint guidelines and be accompanied by “a written assertion by its Chief Executive Officer (CEO) or Chief Financial Officer (CFO) that it has met the compliance requirements of the CCRA and specific enabling legislation.” The assertion must include the amount of qualifying funds received; that private funds raised are “for the purposes described in the enabling legislation”; and that “none of the qualifying funds raised from private sources have been used to compensate, directly or indirectly, any agent or attorney for services rendered to support or influence in any way legislative actions of Congress relating to numismatic coin activity [pursuant to P.L. 104-208, §529].” For more information, see Surcharge Recipient Manual, p. 5. The Mint’s Surcharge Recipient Manual does not specify whether or not a recipient organization may include borrowed money in its demonstration of qualified matching funds (p. 4).

12 31 U.S.C. 5134 (f)(1)(A)(i). The provision reads: “Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no amount derived from the proceeds of any surcharge imposed on the sale of any numismatic item shall be paid from the fund to any designated recipient organization unless- (i) all numismatic operation and program costs allocable to the program under which such numismatic item is produced and sold have been recovered.... ”

Membership Acquisition Test

The Marketing & Finance Commissions approved the development and testing a supplement new-member recruitment model where like-minded organizations have the ability to raise money for their own organization while recruiting members to The American Legion. The new supplement recruitment model would pay the organization amount as negotiated for each new member that they recruit into The American Legion. The American Legion benefits by saving money and forging new or strengthening current relationships with other veteran-centric organizations and the organizations benefit by gaining a new revenue stream.

DMS Membership Acquisition

The 2018 DMS membership cycle started in July as planned with the first of 3-4 campaigns. Year-to-date the program has acquired more than 36,000 members and is on pace to meet the projected goals. This membership year’s focus is to concentrate on acquiring new never before members over their expired counterparts.

A new communications plan is being developed to standardize the communication flow to the at risk members for the first 24 months of their membership. The ultimate goal of this plan is to increase the renewal rate of this group. The plan will be phased in as appropriate but will be an integral part of the 2019 DMS budget that will be presented at the DC conference next year.

Department Fundraising

The department fundraising program continues the transition process from national headquarters to Patriot Fundraising Group (PFG). The department fundraising data has been moved to Patriot for the departments that have signed up with PFG.

National Fundraising (Non-member)

Year-to-date, the national fundraising program is on pace to finish as planned. We are expecting gross revenue to finish at about $11,000,000 and net income at about $1,800,000. The active donor file has grown to about 340,000 donors who have made at least one gift in the past 12 months. The last of the donor acquisition campaigns are mailing in October and donor campaigns continue into December.

DMS Fundraising

DMS Fundraising will finish the year with net income of about $200,000. This is the result of 10 campaigns mailed this year. This fundraising campaign will change to support the new member communications plan being developed for the 2019 membership year. Details will be presented as part of the 2019 DMS Membership Budget.

Legacy Ride

A presentation was made on the Legacy ride and much work has been done in the last two years by the marketing division to promote the ride, which in turn raises awareness of The American Legion. The Marketing Commission seeks to have more input in the routing and planning of the Legacy ride to ensure we can maximize our capital in further promotion of The American Legion and attract potential new members and increased donations.

Programs Alumni

We also discussed reenergizing our efforts in creating an effective Alumni association through marketing division for the purposes of fund raising and recognizing our youth program participants who may achieve success in their lives after their participation in our programs.

Report: Emblem Committee
Alvan T. Fuller, Massachusetts, Chairman
October 8, 2017

As of the August 2017 profit and loss statement, The American Legion Emblem Sales Division had year-to-date revenue of $10.335 million vs. $9.808 million in 2016. Net year-to-date profit was $1.777 million vs. $1.608 million in 2016.

2017 flag sales continue to be strong. Through September 2017, Emblem Sales has sold $2,032,000 in flags, which is a 12% increase over last year. Currently, 1,692 posts are registered in the “Flag Rewards” program and 16,517 schools, businesses, churches and individuals have signed up to sponsor a post.

Emblem Sales continues to market items strategically to members and patriotic Americans, both electronically and in print. In 2017, 670,900 marketing emails have been sent at a cost of only $2,012. These marketing emails have resulted in $125,400 in revenue. In addition, the 2018 Flag & Emblem Catalog will be mailed in November 2017 to active Emblem Sales customers, as well as to every Commander and Adjutant at every level.

New Centennial merchandise continues to be developed in conjunction with the Legion’s 100th Anniversary celebration, with 17 different items now available. Orders for custom Centennial items are also being taken from Posts and Departments.

Flag Rewards

- Flag Rewards is a program where Posts can earn free merchandise credit to spend in Emblem Sales by purchasing American flags.
- Posts can earn a 10% rebate on their flag purchases by either buying flags from Emblem Sales, or encouraging others in their community to buy flags from Emblem Sales.
- Almost 1,700 posts are signed up in the Flag Rewards program.
- Last year, 59 posts earned over $150 in free merchandise credit simply by buying flags from Emblem Sales.
- Our top post (Post 42 in Ankeny, IA) has earned over $1,000 in free merchandise credit EVERY YEAR for the past 5 years. That’s over $5,000 in free merchandise.
- Our top-performing posts buy flags from Emblem Sales, and then re-sell them to the community.
- There are also over 16,000 individuals, schools, towns, and businesses who buy flags from Emblem Sales, and have designated their local post to receive credit for their purchases.
- Who benefits?
  - Posts earn credit for free Emblem Sales merchandise.
  - They can spend this credit on items such as School Award medals, Boys State shirts, Oratorical awards, Baseball supplies, color guard uniforms, or flags for Memorial Day.
  - Departments receive royalties for each flag purchased in their state.
National receives revenue to help fund its programs & activities.

The customer feels good about supporting veterans and the work the Legion does.

- The Flag Rewards program gets posts out into the community by selling flags. This increases the Legion’s visibility in the community, and is a perfect opening for membership recruitment.
- Emblem Sales flags are priced low, and are all made in the USA.
- To participate, the Post Adjutant must register his Post with a user name & password. It takes 30 seconds to register, and can be done online on the Emblem Sales web site (www.Emblem.Legion.org)

Permission to Use the Emblem

- The names and emblems of The American Legion Family are federally protected trademarks.
- Posts or Departments are only permitted to use the names or emblems for communication purposes, such as stationary, publications, newsletters, notices, posters, flyers, etc.
- All other uses of the names or emblems, including merchandise, must be approved by the National Adjutant or his designated representative (American Legion Emblem Sales).
- Departments do not have the legal authority to grant the right to manufacture items bearing the names or emblems.
- Screen printers, embroidery shops, pin and coin producers, or any other manufacturer are in violation of federal trademark law if they reproduce the names or emblems without permission from Emblem Sales.
- Emblem Sales will grant permission to have merchandise produced upon receipt of an approved “permission form” from a Department Adjutant.
- A permission form can be found on the Legion’s web site (www.legion.org) or Emblem Sales web site (www.Emblem.Legion.org).
  - The form must be filled out by a member (not the manufacturer).
  - The form must be sent to the Department Adjutant for approval.
  - The approved form is then sent to Emblem Sales for consideration.
  - If approved, Emblem Sales will send the approval to the manufacturer.
  - Approvals usually occur in less than 24 hours.
  - The approval is a one-time permission, and is only for the quantity requested.
  - Repeat orders require repeat approvals.

Emblem Sales – Special Orders

- Permission requests may also initiate a request from Emblem Sales to bid on the project.
- Special Orders thru Emblem Sales keeps the money in the Legion, and helps to fund its programs and activities.
- Emblem Sales works with hundreds of suppliers.
- Emblem Sales does close to 1,000 Special Orders each year, and is very competitively priced.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: Commander, motion to receive and file the report of the Marketing Commission. There are no resolutions, no addendums. ...Second.
NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to receive and file the Marketing report. Are there any questions? Commander Brieden?

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER BRIEDEN: Not a question but a comment, Madam Commander. As you heard when he was talking about using marketing in the alumni, I think I want to emphasize the point of using marketing in the Legacy Run.

As the Legacy Run has developed, it was initially a fundraising opportunity, and it became also an awareness of The American Legion. Most of the fundraising occurs outside of the actual run and then it is consolidated there. But the fact that it's awareness of The American Legion sometimes gets lost. When we went to Reno and the route was chosen, the Riders called it "the road to nowhere" because there wasn't much there and there wasn't much attention as a result. We squandered the PR of that moment, we squandered the ability and the awareness of The American Legion because of it.

I believe that marketing should be a major part of choosing the routes, and that is not the way it happens currently, and should happen in the future. So my recommendation is, in fact, when whomever it is chooses the route, that marketing is a major part of the discussion, a major part of what's happening, because we do not want to squander any opportunity to make awareness of The American Legion and what we do.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Past National Commander Spanogle.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER SPANOGLE: National Commander, my good friend John Brieden. I've had some experience with the Legacy Ride, both as a rider and with your former national adjutant.

When we formed the Legion Riders Committee, the most important thing of the people being on that committee was that they were certified, most of them, by the Motorcycle Safety Foundation. That ride, ever since the convention in Salt Lake City, we have been one of the safest rides in the United States. No one has been injured except for, I think, one that I remember, but it wasn't a fatality. When you plan these Legacy Runs, I'm listening to John about the press and all of that sort of thing, I would think that you'd want to keep that Legacy Run and the mapping of that run with the Riders Committee who are riders, who believe in safety, and safety first on that run. This is not a PR stunt. I know that they seek input of Marketing Commission and Membership Committee and all that, but safety has got to be the number one objective of that ride. So sometimes when you're going nowhere, you're going nowhere for safety. Coordination with police agencies, coordination with the towns, with the posts, running that run two or three times. I'm going to tell you right now, it's about safety first. I think the Legion Riders ought to design the run and seek the assistance of all the other commissions, including Marketing. Thank you.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Any other comments? And so noted on both issues. All those in favor of receiving and filing the Marketing report, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Carried, thank you. Before I call on our Finance chairman, Gaither Keener from North Carolina, the chairman of the Finance Commission has resigned his appointment to the board of directors of Soldier's Wish, and I recommend the appointment of Denis J. McEneaney from New York, member of the Finance Commission, as his replacement.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: Commander, motion to approve that appointment. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to approve that appointment. Are there any questions? All those in favor, say aye. Opposed, same sign. Carried. Gaither, Finance report, please.
Oral Report: Finance Commission
Gaither M. Keener, Jr., North Carolina, Chairman

Thank you, Madam Commander. Madam Commander, past national commanders, members of the NEC, and guests, you have my written report. The Finance Committee met Monday and Tuesday, October 9 and 10. All the commission members were present except Paul A. Evenson who was excused. Paul's father-in-law died right before he was traveling to our conference. George Lussier attended by conference call. All present were Dan S. Wheeler, national adjutant; George A. Buskirk, national treasurer; Verna Jones, Washington office executive director; Jeffrey O. Brown, Indianapolis office executive director; Shawn Long, finance director; David Warnken; Kenneth Goth; Robert Krause, the Finance NEC Liaison Committee; and numerous guests also came in and out and attended our meeting.

Reports were received from the national adjutant, the national treasurer, the finance director, national judge advocate, executive directors, the Marketing, Internal Affairs, and Media & Communications Commissions, the Membership & Post Activities Committee, the Information Technology Division, and the financial institutions which manage our investments.

Jimmy A. Luther was named agent of record for the health and life coverage of the national headquarters employees. With the addition of the machine operator that we acquired from Xerox when we changed contractors, our authorized strength is still currently 294.

The commission approved the following: $20,000 in emergency purchases for future repairs of the exterior of the Washington office; $80,000 emergency purchases so the Marketing Division can complete a second round of data appends to our membership and nonmember donor files; 2018 capital expenditures of $107,865, you see there's a resolution for IT; and 2018 furniture and fixtures of $17,950; $38,996.90 in the accounts receivable write-offs since our August meeting.

The commission approved a recommendation that Crowe Horwath, certified public accountants, be employed to prepare The American Legion 2017 fiscal year audits and our tax return reviewed.

The commission recommends that the 2018 dues be allocated as follows: $3 to The American Legion Magazine and $15 to the general fund.

An engineering study of the Washington office HVAC system was authorized. The current system is 32 years old and does not function correctly and may not function on certain floors. Future upgrades to the system will come from previously funded depreciated funds in escrow and not the budget.

The commission was briefed on a proposed new 21st Century Ad Hoc Committee and indicated that the 2018 budget was sufficient to handle up to $100,000 for travel and other expenses.

A resolution is recommended for the NEC approval which restructures the TFA program for enhanced fiscal administration and efficiency of the program. The amount of the TFA expenditures increases each year, and currently more than $600,000 of our money is taken annually from the general fund. In order to place some controls on this Temporary Financial Assistance, The Americanism Commission recommends, and the Finance Commission concurs, with that recommendation that the cap of the TFA per recipient be placed at $1,500 with a maximum expenditure per year of $750,000. The only people eligible to receive TFA will be military active under Title 10, that includes your reservists and national guards orders and veterans who are members of The American Legion.

Attached is a report that provides a breakdown of payments to or for the benefit of all our departments paid by national through your dues.
The Finance Commission unanimously approved a resolution for NEC approval which we believe is very important to the future financial stability of both The American Legion National Headquarters and our departments.

We expect to end the 2017 budget year with a net operating surplus of $4,445,952 compared to the budget surplus we had planned of $3,641,581. The reason for the difference? We did not spend all the money in marketing that we were working on DMS.

The 2018 budget request is based on membership of 1,900,000. The request calls for revenues of $78,170,921 and expenses of $77,920,932, for an operating surplus of 2018 of only $249,989.

If the NEC approves the fundraising resolution that is attached to your documentation, that would change the surplus from $249,989 to $1.7 million plus. In your document, it will show you that departments would receive a minimum of $800,000 going forward and it grows.

A list of resolutions recommended for your approval follows the report. Madam Commander, that's my report.

Report: Finance Commission
Gaither M. Keener, Jr., North Carolina, Chairman
October 11, 2017

The Finance Commission met Monday and Tuesday, October 9-10. All commission members were present except Paul A. Evenson, who was excused. George Lussier attended by conference call. Also present were: Daniel S. Wheeler, National Adjutant; George A. Buskirk, Jr., National Treasurer; Verna Jones, Washington Office Executive Director; Jeffrey O. Brown, Indianapolis Office Executive Director; Shawn Long, Finance Director; and David Warnken, Kenneth Goth, and Robert Krause of the Finance NEC Liaison Committee. Several guests joined us throughout the course of the meeting.

Reports were received from the National Adjutant; National Treasurer; Finance Director; National Judge Advocate; the Executive Directors; the Marketing, Internal Affairs and Media & Communications Commission; the Membership & Post Activities Committee; the Information Technology Division, and the financial institutions which manage our investments.

Jimmy A. Luther was named agent-of-record for the health and life coverage of National Headquarters employees. With the addition of the machine operator that we acquired from Xerox when we changed contractors, our authorized strength is currently 294.

The commission approved the following:

- $20,000 in emergency purchases for future repairs to the exterior of the Washington Office.
- $80,000 emergency purchase so the marketing division can complete a second round of data appends to our membership and nonmember donor files.
- 2018 capital expenditures of $107,865.
- 2018 furniture and fixtures of $17,950.
- $38,996.90 in accounts receivable write-offs since its August meeting.

The commission approved a recommendation that Crowe Horwath LLP, certified public accountants, be employed to prepare The American Legion’s 2017 fiscal year audit.

The commission recommends that 2018 dues be allocated as follows: $3 to The American Legion Magazine and $15.50 to the general fund.
An engineering study of the Washington Office HVAC system was authorized. The current system is 32 years old and does not function correctly. Future upgrades to the system will come from a previously-funded depreciation fund and not the budget.

The commission was briefed on a proposed new 21st century ad hoc committee and indicated that the 2018 budget was sufficient to handle up to $100,000 for travel and other expenses.

A resolution is recommended for NEC approval which restructures the TFA program for enhanced fiscal administration and efficiency of the program. WHEREAS, The national Finance Commission recommended in 2015 that the national organization continue to mail to members of The American Legion whose names were purchased on “lists of known donors”; and

RESOLVED, That this resolution does not prevent the department organizations from conducting their own fundraising efforts, nor does it permit departments to opt out of the national organization’s fundraising efforts.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE MEMBER PISA: Resolution No. 8 has the approval of the Finance Commission and the Resolutions Subcommittee, and we recommend its approval. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to approve Resolution No. 8. Are there questions?

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER REHBEIN: Commander, I need a clarification, if I may ask, of the Resolution Subcommittee or the chairman. In the report, it states that "the cap on the TFA per recipient be placed at $1,500." I see that in the resolution. But that sentence goes on to say that "the maximum expended per year be $750." I don't see that $750 in the resolution.

FINANCE COMMISSION CHAIRMAN KEENER: It's not in the resolution, correct. It is part of the policy, my understanding from Americanism. Is that right, Rich?

AMERICANISM COMMISSION CHAIRMAN ANDERSON: Yes.

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN KEENER: Yes, it is.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER REHBEIN: The second definition that I would like to have clarified, when we talk about a TFA recipient, are we talking about the veteran or the child? Because $1,500, if the recipient is the child, we could be writing multiple checks for the family. So who is the recipient?

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN KEENER: The recipient is that of the veteran or the Legion member for the benefit of the child. That's the policy that has been for numerous years, commander.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER REHBEIN: So the recipient is the veteran?

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN KEENER: Yes.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER MILLER: I had two questions, now I have three. Under current policy, if the mother is a veteran and the father is a veteran, the child can only receive one TFA grant. The recipient is determined to be the child, not the veteran, in a situation like that. The answer you just gave changes that policy; correct?

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN KEENER: No, I don't think so. But Jill, since you're the expert on this, and Rich, can you assist me on this, since I look at the finance part? Thank you. I could be wrong on my answer, but I thought I was right based upon the information I got from Americanism. I'll let the expert answer it since she's here.

AMERICANISM DIVISION DIRECTOR DRUSKIS: Good morning, everyone. For those who may not know me, I am Jill Druskis, I am the director of the Americanism Division here at national headquarters. It's my division that helps oversee the Temporary Financial Assistance program. You both are right to a certain degree, how is that? It is the child who the grant is truly for. It's the veteran who gives that child the qualification to be eligible. So you're absolutely right, commander, in that it is the child who is the benefactor, who is receiving the benefit of it. Even though they may have two veteran parents, the child would only get the one-time grant. It would be one of the veteran parents that would have to make them eligible to receive consideration for a grant. Now, when the payment is made, the payment is made to the veteran, it's a two-party check, and to the vendor. So that's how that works.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER MILLER: Second question, under the current policy, a veteran must have served during one of the periods that would make them eligible for Legion membership, but they don't have to be a member. The changed policy, the way I read it, removes that prohibition requirement.

DIVISION DIRECTOR DRUSKIS: Well, the dates before aligned with the dates of Legion membership anyway, so that part really has not changed.
PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER MILLER: One more time?

DIVISION DIRECTOR DRUSKIS: The dates on the current policy, the dates that a veteran would need to serve to qualify their child for a TFA, align with the current dates of membership.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER MILLER: Last question. What about those TFA, when is this taking effect? There are TFA application currently in the pipeline. I know for the fact Indiana has two right now. When will this take effect? And will it affect those currently in the pipeline?

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN KEENER: The Finance Commission discussed that. We've given the national adjutant the laxity to go three to four months if the information comes in that time frame.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER MILLER: Thank you very much.

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN KEENER: You're welcome.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER MILLER: By the way, Jill and her folks do an outstanding job on TFA.

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN KEENER: They surely do. Thank you very much, great questions. (Applause)

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: I believe the chairman has a clarification on TFA.

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN KEENER: Clarification. On my report I may have said $750. It's $750,000; my apologies. We've already spent 496,000 through September. If I only spent 750, I made a mistake. Thank you very much. Lawyers can make a mistake when they read. Thank you.

UNIDENTIFIED NEC MEMBER: Chairman, please tell me when the effective date for this will be. Will it be the first of the year?

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: The question is the effective date of this resolution.

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN KEENER: The effective date is the day you approve it. The national adjutant has permission, and those are coming in in the three- to four-month period to extend it to individuals who are not Legionnaires. I will tell you, if you are involved in this program as I have been and numerous adjutants, there are concerns and issues with people coming back one, two, three times. That's not a temporary assistance program, and they never join the post. So the national adjutant has authority to go up to three months. We gave him that authority after we talked with the team and the leadership.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Are there any other questions on the Resolution No. 8? It's been moved and seconded to approve Resolution No. 8. All those in favor, say aye. Opposed, same sign. Carried.

The American Legion is currently in the process of studying our information technology needs for the future. It is a complex procedure and, in order to ensure the best possible outcome, I am recommending the appointment of an Information Technology Oversight Ad Hoc Committee which would include the following people by position: Gaither Keener from North Carolina, Finance Commission chairman and chairman of the committee; Dave Warnken from Kansas, chairman of the NEC Liaison Committee to Finance and the vice chairman of the committee; Ken Danilson from Iowa, Marketing Commission chairman; Randy Goodman from Georgia, the Membership & Post Activities chairman; and Paul Evenson from South Dakota, member of the Finance Commission. I ask for your approval on those recommendations.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: Commander, motion to approve those appointments. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to approve these appointments. Are there any questions? All those in favor of these appointments, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Carried, thank you. I now call on the the

Report of the 2017 National Convention
John F. Warden, Jr., President, Convention Corporation of Nevada

Before I start, commander, if I may, I would like to have a moment of silence to remember those who lost their lives and were injured in the recent tragedy in Las Vegas, Nevada. ...The NEC observed a moment of silence.

Commander and fellow Legionnaires and guests, good morning. This is the report on The American Legion 99th Annual National Convention, Reno, Nevada, August 18 through the 24, 2017. Before I go any further, I would like to thank Mike Walton, your Convention Commission Chairman, the convention and meetings office, and Bridget Robinson, director for the same, and her staff for the guidance and assistance provided before and during this venture.

The feedback I received from many Legionnaires was that this was a great convention and most said that they were having a good time. If you didn't, it was your own fault. I have heard that the attendance was up overall over the previous years. This statement is being held true by the fact that we had to add an additional shuttle bus to accommodate the additional registrants at the hotels. There were some hiccups, but the bottom line was to provide a venue for a memorable experience, and I hope you had one.

I understand from Destination Reno that they had a great response to the tours that were made available. Nevada has a lot to offer in history and in natural beauty. I learned a long time ago that it is not the quantity and the men and women who volunteer, but the quality. There were 56 Nevada Legionnaire volunteers in total. My main worker bees were Lionel Motta, the secretary of the corporation, and Past Department Commander Mitch Roach who organized the volunteers, was chairman for the badges and packets committee, and organized the water distribution for the parade. The post-parade party chaired by Jim Stewart was well attended. From what I could gather, the bars did very well. As a side note, we did not have a after-parade party or post-parade party in 2007, so that was an addition this year.

The parade, I was told by Mr. Walton, was a good parade. I have to thank the parade marshal, Marco Manor, for staging and moving the participants down the parade route. The excess water from the parade was donated to the Boys and Girls Club; they were very appreciative.

To assist in planning for future conventions and to inform the members of the NEC so they can pass it on to their departments, I would like to address the parade in further depth. I know as servicemen and women, we were taught always to arrive early, but arrival time does not mean start time. Division 1 arrival time was scheduled for 3:15 p.m., and it was mostly made up of our distinguished guests. There were 12 to 15 buses that arrived before 3 p.m., and many buses and vehicles arrived as much as an hour and a half early. Since the staging area was a small venue, this really gummed things up, especially for receiving and staging our distinguished guests. The two Legionnaires assigned to greet the buses, God bless them, could not adjust and adapt to the changing situation. But thanks to Mike, Bridget, and David Garnish who is a member of Capital Post 4 in Carson City, and myself, we were able to get things untangled and move the participants along down the parade route.

One thing I learned from this exercise was that there was a clear lack of communication between the parade chairmen and the members of their departments. I guess I did not make myself clear at the parade meeting, or the participants did not pay attention, listen, or understand my verbal and written instructions. Many of the participants and vehicles accompanying them had no idea where their staging areas were and how to get there. As stated before, there was a lack of communication between the departments and their parade chairmen which made for a very dangerous situation that could have resulted in serious injuries. You might consider in subsequent years limiting the number of vehicles that accompany the departments. Vehicle are harder to move around than people.

It must be remembered the Department of Nevada's original proposal was a convention in 2020, so the department put this together in a little over a year and a half. The final financial transactions will be presented in May 2018 after they have been reviewed and approved by the national finance office. Hopefully, we will make more than the $10,856.61 that was made in 2007. Right now the projection is between 70 and 80,000, which is a 50/50 split between national organization and the department.

Commander, this concludes my report.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE VICE CHAIRMAN KILE: Motion to receive and file the report of the Nevada Convention Commission. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to receive and file the report of the 2017 National Convention. Are there any comments or questions? All those in favor of receiving and filing the report of the 2017 National Convention, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Received. I now call on Chairman Michael Walton from Illinois for the Convention Commission report.

Oral Report: Convention Commission
Michael E. Walton, Illinois, Chairman

Good morning, Commander Rohan, members of the NEC. Although the written report is in your packet, I would like to touch on some of the highlights of our meeting.

Mr. David Priester, the chief judge of contests, gave an excellent report and updated the commission on the contests that were conducted at the national convention this year. He also provided a video and conducted an extensive briefing on the judging process, and made recommendations on how we can improve our contests in the coming years. A question-and-answer period was held with Mr. Priester by the commission and at the end he was reappointed as chief judge of contests, and he has accepted his reappointment. We look forward to working our continued professional relationship with him and his judges.

John Warden, president of The American Legion National Convention Corporation of Nevada, gave a preliminary report on the 2017 National Convention in Reno, and his final report will be at the spring 2018 meeting. We believe that Reno was another very successful national convention.

The members of the commission each submitted a written and then verbal report regarding all of their assignments at the Reno National Convention. Jeff Olson, president of The American Legion National Convention Corporation of Minnesota, gave an initial report regarding our upcoming 100th National Convention in Minneapolis, which will be August 24 through 30, 2018. We’re all looking forward to another outstanding convention in Minneapolis.

In your packet you will find Addendum A, which includes a resolution that was referred to us and subsequently rejected by the commission regarding sanctuary cities.

Two cities have sent in their requests for proposals to host the 2023 National Convention. Those cities are Charlotte, North Carolina; and New Orleans, Louisiana. Site visits for those locations will be conducted after January 1 of 2018.

Commander Rohan and members of the NEC, that concludes my report. Thank you for allowing me to serve. Thank you.
Chairman Michael E. Walton, Illinois, called the meeting to order at 9:00 a.m., Monday, October 9, 2017. Roll call was taken with all members either excused or present.

There were items which required action by the National Executive Committee discussed during the meeting:

Resolution No. 34 – Sanctuary Cities (2017 National Convention) - Rejected

Chief Judge David Priester spoke to the Convention Commission regarding the National Color Guard Contests, which was held on Friday evening, the first day of convention. The Color Guard contests were well attended by contestants and observers. Six color guards competed in three categories with Newport Beach Harbor Post 291 from Newport Beach, California, being crowned again as National Champions. The Chief Judge provided video of the judging process and recommendations on how to improve the Contests. Questions were then entertained by the Convention Commission.

The Convention Commission reappointed Mr. Priester (SAL – VA) as Chief Judge of Contests to serve through the 2018 Fall Meetings. Mr. Priester informed the Commission that he proudly accepts the reappointment to serve as the Chief Judge of Contests for The American Legion.

Mr. Warden thanked the Convention Commission for their support and reported that, in his opinion, the 2017 National Convention was a huge success. He reported that invoices are being paid. At this time, none of the five hotels have sent in their rebates. Mr. Warden will provide a final report at the 2018 Spring Meetings, but he projects a profit of approximately $35,000-$40,000 for the Corporation and the National Organization each. Chairman Walton thanked John Warden and his 56 volunteers for conducting the 2017 National Convention.

Convention Commission members reported on their assignments during the 2017 National Convention. Reports indicated that the local Convention Corporation conducted their duties in outstanding fashion and greatly contributed to the overall success of the National Convention. Chairman Walton and Commission members thanked John Warden and his entire Nevada team for their support to make the Reno Convention a success.

Jeff Olson, President of The American Legion National Convention Corporation of Minnesota, gave an initial report on the planning process for the 2018 100th National Convention in Minneapolis, MN, August 24 – 30, 2018. Planning for the 100th National Convention of The American Legion is on schedule. The headquarters hotel for The American Legion is the Hilton. The American Legion Auxiliary Headquarters will be the Hyatt. The Sons of The American Legion will be at the Hilton. Mr. Olson informed the Convention Commission that almost all contracts between the hotels and the assigned Departments of The American Legion have been completed. Chairman Walton, Convention Corporation personnel, the convention and meetings planning staff and our convention technical companies will conduct a site visit to Minneapolis in November.

We have two Departments of The American Legion that have submitted the proper resolution expressing their interest in bidding on the 2023 National Convention. The cities being supported by the appropriate resolution are Charlotte, North Carolina; New Orleans, Louisiana. Site visits will be conducted after the first of the year.

Dates for future Conventions are the following:
Addendum A

Resolutions Rejected

Resolution No. 34 (CO) Sanctuary Cities

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: Commander, motion to receive and file the report of the Convention Commission with the exception of Addendum A. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to receive and file the Convention Commission report with one exception. Are there questions? Commander Comer?

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: I'm a little concerned when you have something as important as Mr. Priester directing the judging. Don't we have any Legionnaires that can do the same? Do we have to go to the Sons for that program?

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN WALTON: We did have a Legionnaire previously, several years ago. Mr. Priester, he is a member of the Sons of The American Legion, he's one of the most well-respected judges in the country that's really brought our program quite forward. Quite honestly, no, we haven't been able to find another person. He does have Legionnaires that work with him from around the country that are judges, but he's one of the most well-respected chief judges in the country, so we've been very fortunate. If anybody knows of someone that they would like us to reach out to, we'd be glad to do that, that's a Legionnaire.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: Is he paid?

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN WALTON: He receives call-ins. He doesn't receive a stipend. Call-in, that's it, he receives call-in.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: You ought to keep looking.

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN WALTON: Thank you, we can do that. If anybody has thoughts on that, please get those to us through the convention office or myself. Thank you.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: Commander, attached to the Convention Commission report is Addendum A. I move the actions of the Convention Commission become the actions of the National Executive Committee. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded that the actions on Addendum A of the commission be the actions of the NEC. Are there any questions? All those in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Carried. Thank you. I now call on James "Bill" Oxford from North Carolina, chairman of the Legislative Commission.

Oral Report: Legislative Commission

James W. Oxford, North Carolina, Chairman

Commander Rohan, members of the National Executive Committee, Adjutant Wheeler, and guests, good morning. Each of you should have a copy of the commission's written report. Addendum 1 lists the resolutions with legislative intent that were approved at this NEC and the national convention. The American Legion legislative program is in accordance with Rule 8B of the rules of the National Executive Committee.

Since my report to you at the national convention, the Legislative Commission has testified before Congress four times, adding another today. We’ve attended four congressional roundtables and have been hard at work on The American Legion coin bill. So hard, in fact, that the coin bill, much to the thanks and hard work and dedicated work of our members and those in this room, it passed the House and Senate and has been signed into law by the president. Passing this coin bill is a true testament to the thunderous power of The American Legion. This bill was passed faster than most coin bills. We broke and established a new record for cosponsors, and in the end, I look forward to carrying that coin in my pocket.

As a quick reminder, this Congress has been particularly active, as we have been instrumental in creating and passing appeals modernization, VA accountability, the Harry W. Colmery GI Bill, and Choice Extension, and others. That said, none of this is even slightly possible without the help of our Legionnaires. The absolute core of our power resonates not in the work ethic of the national staff, but with the fine men and women who love this organization, engage their elected officials, and make them hear the loud voice of The American Legion.

Lastly, I ask you to contact your members of Congress more, encourage those in your state to engage them, your neighbors, friends, family, everyone. If you need contact information or advice on how to engage the representatives, please feel free to contact me or our Legislative Division in Washington.

Commander Rohan, members of the NEC, on behalf of the Legislative Commission, I'd like to thank you for your outstanding leadership and entrusting me with the leadership of this commission. It's been my privilege and honor to serve The American Legion as your chairman. Commander, this concludes my report. Thank you.

Report: Legislative Commission
James W. Oxford, North Carolina, Chairman

The National Legislative Commission did not meet during this time.

Attached to this report is Addendum I listing resolutions with Legislative Intent that were approved at this NEC and National Convention. The American Legion’s legislative program is in accordance with Rule 8-b of the Rules of the National Executive Committee.

The remainder of this report provides a summary of congressional actions since the National Convention on issues of particular concern to The American Legion.

115th Congress, First Session

The fiscal year (FY) 2018 appropriations process has once more ground to a halt. On September 8, the House of Representatives passed H.R. 601, a measure amended and passed by the Senate with three main components:

$15.25 billion in disaster relief aid to areas of the country devastated by Hurricanes Harvey and Irma;

• A temporary increase in the national debt limit; and,
• A continuing resolution for funding the federal government – at FY 2017 levels – until December 8, 2017. This would give both congressional chambers additional time to develop final funding for FY 2018, which began on October 1.
This measure was enacted by President Trump on September 8 as Public Law (PL) 115-56.

Internal Affairs

The Legislative Division focused much of the past few months gathering support and co-sponsors for HR 2519 and S 1182, The American Legion 100th Anniversary Commemorative Coin Act, which were introduced on May 18. These bills would require the U.S. Mint to produce a centennial coin in celebration of The American Legion turning 100 and proudly representing and supporting millions of veterans.

The Senate version – S 1182, sponsored by Sen. Todd Young (IN) – was introduced with 28 co-sponsors and currently has 75. The Senate measure passed that chamber on August 3 by a voice vote. The House bill – HR 2519, sponsored by Rep. Tim Walz (MN) – was introduced with 102 co-sponsors and currently has 385. On September 25, HR 2519 passed the House by a voice vote. On September 27, the Senate approved H.R. 2519 by unanimous consent. President Trump signed the measure into law on October 6.

Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation

On August 12, the President enacted PL 115-46, the VA Choice and Quality Employment Act of 2017. This legislation – a compromise created and supported by both sides of the aisle – will provide $2.1 billion to the Veterans Choice Program, which allows veterans to seek health care outside of the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) if the needed care is not available through VA. It will also invest $1.8 billion into hiring more health-care providers (VA currently has about 49,000 vacancies) and authorizes leases for 28 new VA clinics, many of which are badly needed for local care in rural areas.

Without congressional action, the Choice program was expected to run out of money by mid-August, which VA leaders said would have led to layoffs and interrupted medical care for thousands of veterans.

A second measure, PL 115-55, the Veterans Appeals Improvement and Modernization Act of 2017, was signed into law by the President on August 23 at The American Legion’s 99th National Convention in Reno, NV. The new law creates three “lanes” for veterans’ appeals, including: a) the “Local Higher Level Review Lane” in which an adjudicator reviews the same evidence considered by the original claims processor; b) the “New Evidence Lane,” in which the veteran could submit new evidence for review and have a hearing; and, c) the “Board Lane,” in which jurisdiction for the appeal would transfer immediately to the Board of Veterans’ Appeals.

PL 115-55 was cosponsored by every member of the House Veterans’ Affairs Committee, and passed the House 418-0 on May 23. The Senate amended and passed the measure on August 1. The Senate’s substitute amendment clarifies that in certain circumstances VA must correct duty to assist errors unless VA can grant the maximum benefit; provides for a limited duty to assist in connection to a supplement claim when veterans identify additional evidence needed to decide a claim; clarifies the difference between an “issue” and “claim”; and, includes some changes to the reports and reporting requirements included in the House version.

Both the House and the Senate this week approved legislation, HR 3819, the Department of Veterans Affairs Expiring Authorities Act of 2017, to extend VA authorities in a number of areas. The House approved the measure on September 25 by a voice vote. On September 27 the Senate passed the bill by unanimous consent, clearing H.R. 3819 for the White House. President Trump signed the measure on September 29, as PL 115-62.

Among the provisions is a five-month extension of the assisted living pilot program for veterans with traumatic brain injuries. This will enable the VA to transition currently participating veterans into other existing programs for ongoing support and rehabilitation. The bill also extends caregiver support payments, a pilot program for newly separated women veterans to receive counseling in retreat settings, and a temporary increase in payments for travel to Vet Centers. The legislation extends several other healthcare-related provisions, such as collection of copayments and recovery from third parties for care provided in some instances for non-service connected care.

Authorities in both benefits and homeless veteran programs were also extended. The measure also included some technical corrections to the recently-enacted “Harry W. Colmery Veterans Educational Assistance Act of 2017” (PL 115-48) which were requested by the Trump Administration.

Veterans Employment & Education

President Trump on August 16 enacted PL 115-48, the Harry W. Colmery Veterans Education Assistance Act of 2017 – familiarly known as the “Forever GI Bill” – would make significant changes to the Post-9/11 GI Bill. These changes include:

- Eliminating a requirement that veterans use their benefits within 15 years of leaving active-duty service;
- Expanding benefits for reservists, Purple Heart recipients and surviving dependents;
- Retroactively restoring benefits to veterans affected by school closures, and;
- Providing additional funds to GI Bill users pursuing degrees in science, technology, engineering and math.

Many of the provisions of this law do not go into effect until next year, with others becoming effective in 2-4 years. This legislation received expedited action; it was introduced on July 13, approved by the House Veterans’ Affairs Committee on July 19, and received final House approval on July 24 by a vote of 405-0. The bill then went to the Senate, where it was passed by unanimous consent five days later.

This concludes The American Legion National Legislative Commission’s Report to the National Executive Committee.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: Commander, motion to receive and file the report of the Legislative Commission with the exception of Addendum I. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to receive the report of the Legislative Commission with exception of Addendum I. Are there any questions? All those in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Carried. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: Commander, attached to the Legislative Commission report is Addendum I. I move the actions of the Legislative Commission become the actions of the National Executive Committee. ...Second NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to accept Addendum I. Are there any questions? All those in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Motion carried. I'd now like to recognize the NEC from Texas, Butch Sparks.

NEC MEMBER SPARKS (TX): Good morning. Why am I here? You know why I'm in front of you this morning? Have you ever heard of Harvey? Have you ever heard of Irma? Have you ever heard of Maria? Mother Nature, in the last month or so, has played havoc on our country and Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and others.

You know, when a storm hits, everybody gets in a panic mode, what we do and whatever. But in the last month or so in Texas, I have seen something that I had never witnessed before. You know, when you get involved in a hurricane, you wonder where help is going to come from.

You know, we look up after Hurricane Harvey hit us with up to 60 inches of rain, up to 140-mile-an-hour winds, covering an area about 385 miles from Louisiana to Corpus Christi and 30 and 40 miles inland. Everybody was wondering, where are we going to get food? Where are we going to get this, and where are we going to get clothing, and whatever?

All of a sudden, on the fifth day after the hurricane, all these tractor-trailers showed up, tractors and trailers from all over the country. Were they from FEMA? No. Were they from the Red Cross? No. Where did these tractors and trailers, all those supplies come from? The American Legion Family. Everywhere from New York, Pennsylvania, I could go on and on and on.
You know what? We help people, we, The American Legion, help people that most likely would not have gotten any help at all. When you see a four-year-old kid with no clothes or a four-year-old kid with no shoes and you give him something, you give him something to eat or give her something to eat or get clothes or a blanket to keep them warm, it makes you feel very honored and good to be a member of The American Legion.

On behalf of the thousands and thousands of people that all of you from all over this country sent supplies and money to help the people who were devastated by Hurricane Harvey, let me give you a little example of what Hurricane Harvey did to Texas.

It came onshore near north of Corpus Christi with 145 mile-an-hour winds. It came onshore and went up to a town called Victoria and it stopped. Most hurricanes come in and leave; Hurricane Harvey came in over Victoria and sat there for a day and a half. Then it decided it wasn't finished with Texas yet, so it went back into the Gulf of Mexico, then came ashore again. Then it dumped rain and more rain.

In the local area of Houston, Texas, there's over 100,000 homes gone. Can you imagine that? 100,000 homes gone. For lack of a lot of other things, big cities like Houston, New York, get all the news and whatever. But there's a lot of smaller communities surrounding south, east, north, and west of Houston that are gone, that are basically devastated.

But on behalf of all those people, I want you to go back to your departments and tell them "Thank you, thank you, thank you for what you do to make sure The American Legion Family comes first." Thank you, commander. (Applause)

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Commander Comer?
PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: Commander, members of the National Executive Committee, I rise to ask that we reconsider Resolution No. 4 as it relates to the Sons of The American Legion reserve fund. ....Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded that we reconsider Resolution No. 4 in regard to the Sons of The American Legion reserve fund. Are there any questions about reconsidering Resolution No. 4? All those in favor of reconsidering, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Commander Comer.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: Commander, we constantly refer to the Sons of The American Legion as a program of The American Legion. In the first "Resolved" clause, in terms of the excess of $750,000 to go to charitable endeavors from The American Legion, and it says, the last sentence, "With the consent of the Sons of The American Legion." If the Sons of The American Legion should not consent, then we can't give the money to a various charity. It's our program, it's our money. So I would ask that the Resolution No. 4 be passed and amended with the striking of "with the consent of the Sons of The American Legion." ....Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded in Resolution No. 4, in the first "Resolved" clause at the very end, to strike "with the consent of the Sons of The American Legion." Are there any questions? Commander Brieden?
PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER BRIEDEN: I just comment. With all due respect, I agree with the fact that the Sons of The American Legion is a program. When they raise money, when they say, "We have this amount of money set aside for our emergencies" or whatever, you know, it's money they raised.

I know that there was an event a few years ago here, where we decided we didn't like where they were giving money and so, therefore, we were going to put it somewhere else. We discussed that on the floor and, in fact, reconsidered and decided that maybe we ought to give it for what they raised it for.

I definitely feel the same way here. This is a resolution that in the past has said they can accumulate no more than $500,000 reserve. All that's changed is we're changing that to $750,000 instead, because times have changed and they made need a little more reserve. But if money they raised and you say, "You get a cap and therefore we're not going to let you hold any more than that, it has to go to a charitable thing," it should go to what they raised the money or what they want the money to go to. I don't like the idea that we tell them, "We want you to be part of the family. Oh, by the way, you'll do what the hell we tell you."

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER SANTOS: If the people that we work with are opposed to this in the department versus the detachments, we control those funds, they raise them in the name of The American Legion. We should maintain the opportunity to direct those funds where we feel necessary. Because if we allow that squadron to direct those funds without consent of the post and they can do it on their own anyway, I think we're setting a bad precedent. So I rise and agree with Past National Commander Comer.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Any other discussion on this? The motion on the floor is regarding Resolution No. 4, the first "Resolved" clause, the last sentence, to strike "with the consent of the Sons of The American Legion." All those in favor of striking that part, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. The ayes have it, motion carried. I now call on Chairman Robert Newman from Indiana for the report of the Internal Affairs Commission.

Oral Report: Internal Affairs Commission
Robert E. Newman, Indiana, Chairman

Thank you very much, Commander Rohan. Members of the National Executive Committee, my fellow Legionnaires, ladies and gentlemen. You have a detailed report of our actions and deliberations. I draw your attention to the great work that the Sons of The American Legion, the Legion Riders, and the 100th Anniversary Committee are doing, and I commend every department for supporting these great programs. Past National Commander Rehbein's very detailed report on the 100th Anniversary is attached to my written report. He's done a great job.

Our NEF is in good shape. We currently have over $4.3 million available in the trust fund to help our members and families impacted by the recent hurricanes. We still have families struggling after they returned to their homes. The people of Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands are facing a long recovery period. Because of the devastating impact of the four recent hurricanes, many in our Legion Family are still not settled so that their lives can return to normal. Therefore, for these four hurricanes, the 90-day processing period is waived; so as the families return, they can assess the impact on their lives and have time to collect and submit the necessary documentation for out-of-pocket expenses while displaced from their homes. Also, there are many who may not know of the National Emergency Fund. We need to get the word out to our Legion Family and assist them in their time of need.

From the recent visits of the national vice commanders and the national staff members to the foreign departments, we discovered some interesting occurrences. For example, local foreign businesses are referring veterans to the post because of the work being done to serve the local communities in support of neighborhood outreach centers in very depressed sections of the cities. Also, the posts are sponsoring and managing orphanages and, in one case, a school. Are these core programs of The American Legion? No, but these Legionnaires wanted to make a difference in their community they reside in.

Another example, a post was instrumental in establishing a fire station in the local community to include obtaining excess salvageable fire equipment from stateside fire stations. One last example: Our veterans living overseas experience a difficult time getting medical care and needed prescriptions. In one community, a post service officer created a relationship with local physicians where they accept and have been approved for TRICARE and VA benefits.
Bottom line, the posts and veterans in the foreign departments are providing a needed service to their communities in which they reside. Common in all visits was the need for training, not only in the core programs of The American Legion, but in such essential tools as myLegion.org. The training is just not being done for the new members and those going into leadership positions. In summary, will they ever be as large as the stateside posts? Probably not. But the potential for membership still exists and they are performing a service to their communities. The need for training is essential for them to continue to function as a post and uphold The American Legion's basic principles in an isolated area. The training program development proposed and being worked on by Internal Affairs would be exactly what the foreign departments need to assist the remote posts.

In regards to the recommended rejection of Resolution No. 42 from the Department of Washington on free admission to national parks for veterans, the commission felt that Congress would not support a free pass. Therefore, a compromised solution was developed to ask for $20 annual pass for honorably discharged veterans. This is in line with the recent national park pass increase for senior passes. It is our opinion that this stands a better chance of being accepted by both the National Park Service and Congress.

Commander, at this point I ask for permission for Past National Commander Rehbein to briefly address the National Executive Committee on the 100th Anniversary and expand on his written report.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Commander Rehbein.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER REHBEIN: Thank you, commander. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. You have our written report in front of you. I simply want to hit a few highlights out of that report. Before I do that, the chairman talked about what a great job I've done. That great job is only because of the foundation that was laid by my predecessor as chairman, Bob Spanogle, past national commander, and the outstanding work of the staff that has spent their time working on the 100th Anniversary of The American Legion.

I want to talk to you for just a minute this morning about some things that have been developed here that, while they were developed for the 100th Anniversary, will go on to serve as tools of this organization, to make this organization better down the road.

We operated under the theme of Legacy & Vision. As part of that legacy theme, we developed a website where posts could go online and post their history. That will continue to serve us down the road. We have 2,600 posts that have posted history on that website. That website right now is internal, aimed at us. It will be turned around and become a public-facing website for those posts to tell their history to their local communities and help educate their local communities on what the legacy of that American Legion post is. It has also served, for many of our posts, mine included, to relearn pieces of our history that had been forgotten. And so as we make those electronic records of those histories, we are less apt to forget the bits and pieces and important parts of our history that have made up our legacy.

Another tool that the departments will be able to use is what's called "Every Department Has a Story." It's a placemat-sized paper on both sides that is a summary of the history and the legacy of that department, the important parts that have been pulled out. Yes, once you print one, it seems to end right there. But that electronic record will be available to the department to update as they go down the road. So that's a tool that the departments can use to build pride in their posts and their Legionnaires in their state as to what The American Legion has accomplished in that state. So these are the kinds of things we're developing for the centennial, but we don't want them to go away once we get to 101 years. We want to use them to continue to tell the story of The American Legion.

There is a third one that I want to mention specifically. Thanks to a grant from Legion Charities, there is now a traveling exhibit that The American Legion owns, to tell the story of the GI Bill: where it came from, how it was originally passed, how it's been improved over the years, where it stands right now, and The American Legion's primary role in all of those things happening. It's at the World War II Museum in New Orleans right now, it will be there into December; that was a six-month tour. We opened it with a moderated panel talking about the GI Bill and The American Legion's role, but also The American Legion's role in the Forever GI Bill, because we had one young man from Student Veterans of America as part of that panel.

It will go from the World War II Museum to the Student Veterans of America National Convention and be there throughout their convention for their delegates, who we very much want to be members of our organization, to see the role that we played in the benefit that they now enjoy. From there it will go to Patriotic Hall in L.A. for a three-month run there in Patriotic Hall, which gets a lot of veteran traffic because there are many veteran services there, but it's also a tourism center in Los Angeles.

We will put it at the Minneapolis National Convention, you will see it there. We hope to put it in the World War I Museum with the Liberty Memorial in Kansas City to highlight the role that The American Legion played in creating that Liberty Memorial. Like I said, that's all due to a grant from Legion Charities. That's our property; we own it. From now on, we can put that wherever we can get agreement for that to go. That's a tool that will continue to tell the story of The American Legion, that we developed during our centennial.

Last thing, and actually, there's one more, the memorials database that's being created right now. We fought the problems around veterans memorials and crosses for a long time, but we never knew just how many memorials were out there. Thanks to the work of Jeff Stoffer and his people, we now have a database of memorials and we're seeing ten to a dozen memorials a week added into that database. Well over a thousand memorials now, and it will continue to grow.

We're seeing a number of our posts that applied to the Pritzker Museum & Library for their matching grant money to help restore memorials. Fifty of those grants have been awarded; approximately half of them had an American Legion post involved.

The last thing we're asking departments and posts to do, we did this with one of our founders in Reno, we visited the grave of Tom Miller, vice chairman of the Paris caucus, department commander and NEC from Delaware, department commander and NEC from Nevada. We all have a founding commander, whether it be of our post, of our department. We need to find those graves, we need to honor those individuals.

All of us that served as commander had a model ahead of us, somebody who served ahead of us that showed us the way. They did not. They had to be commander based out of their vision, and that vision that they provided us deserves to be honored as part of our centennial. So find your founding department commander, find that grave. Find that grave of your founding post commander. We have posts that have already done that, departments that have already done that. Take that home and let's make that a way to honor the posts not just that were founded under that founding commander, but the next year, there was a second department commander and posts were founded under that commander's leadership. Let's make that a way that we can continue to honor the founders once the centennial is past.

We thank you for all the support you've given to the 100th Anniversary. We look forward to a great convention in Minneapolis, we look forward to a great convention in Indianapolis, and we look forward to the next century of The American Legion. Thank you, chairman. (Applause)

INTERNAL AFFAIRS COMMISSION CHAIRMAN NEWMAN: Thank you, Past National Commander Rehbein, for your remarks and the great job you and your committee are doing for the departments to prepare us for the 100th Anniversary.

Commander, I submit my report and our resolutions for the action of the National Executive Committee with my deepest respect and appreciation for the support and encouragement we enjoy from this body. Thank you.
Chairman Robert E. Newman, Indiana called the Internal Affairs Commission to order at 9:00 a.m., October 9, and at 8:30 a.m., October 10, in 314A, National Headquarters, Indianapolis, Indiana. We had thirteen members present and several guests.

The report consists of the following sections: Standing Committee Reports; Program and Internal Action Reports; and Actions on Assigned Resolutions.

I. Standing Committee Reports

Membership and Post Activities Committee
Randy Goodman, Georgia, Chairman

The Internal Affairs Commission was updated on the 2018 Membership Year. A detailed update is provided in Chairman Goodman’s Membership and Post Activities Report to the National Executive Committee.

We are entering the fifth year of The American Legion Strategic Plan. The plan is good but to perform at full potential it requires leaders and members, at all levels, to execute the tasks. The strategic plan and its implementation will be the main topic of discussion at the January 2018 planning session.

The online renewal program continues to perform well. The 2017 campaign resulted in 245,824 members renewing online, an increase of 33,263 members over 2016. To date, 143,612 members have renewed online for 2018. We expect these totals to continue to increase every year.

There are 21 district revitalizations planned October - December 2017. Several of the departments continue to deliver the program successfully without the support of National staff. The program does more than just transfer members, it also signs new members up and provides great membership training.

Constitution and By-Laws Committee
Hon. Vincent M. Gaughan, Illinois, Chairman

The Constitution and By-Laws Committee met in Indianapolis, Indiana at 8:30 A.M. on October 9, 2017. Present were Hon. Vincent M. Gaughan (IL), Chairman and Charles G. Mills, Esq. (NY), Vice Chairman. The Chairman noted there were no resolutions before the Committee.

American Legion Riders Advisory Committee
Robert B. Sussan (VA), Chairman

Changes made to the qualification criteria of the Legacy Scholarship Fund proved to be effectual as the number of recipients this past year increased dramatically and we were able to award an amount just under $700,000.

2017 Legacy Run: A few changes made this year which proved to be very efficient and widely accepted. Lunches were optional but suggested and if selected were paid with registration. Gas was required and paid with registration.

Legacy Run Financials: Donations received for Legacy Fund during National Commander Schmidt’s year (actual dates: 10/1/2016 - 9/30/2017): $1,270,830
Legacy Run + Onstage Collections at National Convention: $931,733
Legacy Fund balance as of 8/31/17: $13,121,849

A concern was raised about future plans to acknowledge donations in excess of $500. Internal Affairs will work with the committee to find a resolution. A committee member questioned the scholarship amount and new criteria. The following explanation was provided: Needs based scholarship – Awards up to $20,000 (arbitrary amount currently set.) Children of 50% or higher disability rating are eligible after the primary class of recipients (children of the fallen) are provided for. Awards can be for six years and cover trade schools, colleges, university, and graduate study.

American Legion 100th Anniversary Observance Committee
PNC David K. Rehbein, Iowa, Chairman

PNC Rehbein updated the commission on the work of the committee. The American Legion 100th Anniversary Observance Committee continues to follow its five-year strategic plan toward August 2018 when the centennial window officially opens. The celebration period extends through to Nov. 11, 2019. As such, the committee and support staff are now focused primarily on projects, programs and promotions already planned and under way. The over-arching goal is to use the centennial as an opportunity to celebrate The American Legion’s legacy and vision and, in so doing, build membership, brand awareness, corporate relationships and appreciation for the organization’s identity, a century in the making.

The committee met Oct. 7-8, 2017, at the Sheraton in Indianapolis. Topics included:

Organizational:
- Every department and thousands of posts now have centennial committees and chairpersons, as reflected by over 2,600 posts profiles launched on the centennial website at legion.org/centennial, along with over 10,000 subscribers of the monthly centennial e-newsletter, and personal correspondences with centennial volunteers across the country and beyond.
- Centennial workshops at the national convention are extremely well-attended and lively in recent years. Some departments have invited staff to mid-winter and summer conventions to discuss the anniversary and ways to commemorate it at the state and local levels. These events are helpful in the delivery of centennial promotional materials, such as media toolkits.
- The 100th Anniversary Honorary Committee, chaired by Theodore Roosevelt IV, will not meet in early 2018 in order to preserve funds for honorary committee attendance and participation at the 100th American Legion National Convention in Minneapolis. Honorary committee member, Diane Carlson Evans, will receive the Patriot Award at the Washington Conference in February.

Post and Department Activities:
- American Legion Media & Communications Division staff have worked with the national commander to develop promotional materials elevating the centennial message around her Family First Veterans Day Dinner. Sample press releases and media guidance encourage posts to use Veterans Day 2017 to launch centennial awareness in local communities.
- The Memorials Database, a key feature of the forthcoming new centennial website, now has nearly 1,400 submissions from 54 states or countries.
- Certificates to acknowledge centennial posts – those chartered for 100 years or more – are in development to be distributed in 2018 and 2019.
- The Every Department Has a Story program continues to grow and so far consists of: Alaska, Wyoming, Iowa, Kansas, Montana, South Dakota, Connecticut, Indiana, Colorado and Washington with many more in process. Each of these placemats is a separate downloadable centennial media piece, and it contributes to a growing national chronology of The American Legion for the forthcoming centennial website.
Media & Communications staff members are at work developing a multi-element wall display for post presentation including such features as the four pillars. From their origins to their continuing activities and vision going forward; “Voices of Values” from founders and other prominent members, past and present; wall chronologies of important events and accomplishments in American Legion history; displays to show the establishment dates of key programs and reasons they were created; to name a few. Staff members are working with the Detroit-based Fathead Co., Emblem Sales and the National Judge Advocate to establish a licensee agreement/relationship on the wall displays, with a percentage of sales revenue back to National Headquarters.

Media & Communications:
- The Media & Communications Division is now working to add a public-facing landing page – “Legacy and Vision” to tell the organization’s story and historical identity in chronologies, words, daily push notifications, graphics, videos, links and more. The division is also reconfiguring the existing centennial workshop website, which has been highly successful, as a resource for post historians and centennial committees.
- The November 2018 issue of The American Legion Magazine is expected to be more than double the size of a regular issue, dedicated to the centennial, and kicking off a 12-month series on the history of the organization.
- A script is now in development for a new American Legion history video, scheduled for completion in time for the 2018 National Convention, which will be used on the new centennial website and in the new Basic Training education module.
- A national centennial media kit – topic by topic – has been outlined for presentation to national media outlets during the centennial.

Museum Outreach
- The centennial program received a $100,000 American Legion Charities grant during the Spring 2017 meetings in Indianapolis. These funds were used to complete the “Greatest Legislation” exhibit at the National WWII Museum in New Orleans in such a way as to make it a traveling exhibit. It is now scheduled to be on display in San Antonio Jan. 4-6 and in Los Angeles Jan. 18 – March 31, 2018. Additional locations in negotiation include Kansas City, Minneapolis and New York.

Coins, Medallions and Other Merchandise
- With passage of legislation authorizing an American Legion centennial coin by the U.S. Mint, work is now under way to identify the next steps to promote and ensure strong sales. This effort is led by the Marketing Commission with promotions by Media & Communications and the Centennial team.
- Emblem Sales plans to begin taking orders for a high-quality silver medallion commemorating the centennial to begin in March 2018 with fulfillment no later than December 2018.
- Emblem Sales reports nearly $150,000 in centennial merchandise sales so far, with polo shirts leading the way. As more merchandise rolls out, the Media & Communications Division will promote heavily.
In addition to those sales, Emblem Sales reports having sold 3,592 copies of the second edition of “Indivisible: The Story of Our Flag” through late September. Coupled with the sales from the first edition, more than 25,000 copies have now been purchased.

National WWI Centennial

- The 100th Anniversary Observance Committee, Media & Communications and Internal Affairs Commissions continue to work closely with the United States WWI Centennial Commission, which includes as a member American Legion representative Jack Monahan of Connecticut. Among the efforts to collaborate include promotion and involvement with the 100 Cities/100 Memorials grant project with Pritzker Military Library and Museum, which recently released the first 50 recipients, a large percentage of whom were American Legion posts; ongoing editorial support in print and digital media of the WWI centennial; and other forms of media sharing to get the Legion story into WWI Centennial media channels.

- The American Legion 100th Anniversary Observance Committee has reviewed and offers to the Internal Affairs Commission its recommendation on a resolution of financial support for the construction of the World War One Memorial at Pershing Park. It is hereby advanced to the Internal Affairs Commission.

- Also on the World War I centennial front, several Legionnaires, including Mr. Monahan, took time at the 99th National Convention to care for the grave of Thomas W. Miller, a Legion founder who is laid to rest in Reno, NV. The 100th anniversary committee plans to launch a campaign in 2018 and 2019 to encourage posts to find the graves of their founders and ensure that they are properly maintained, decorated and, where appropriate, conduct ceremonies inviting the public and media.

Special Events

- The 100th Anniversary Observance Committee is working closely with the Department of Minnesota Convention Corporation, Department Headquarters, the national Convention and Meetings Division and others to strategize a first-class 100th Anniversary National Convention in Minneapolis in August 2018. Among the features in development are:
  - Military vehicles and vintage aircraft involvement
  - War-era re-enactors
  - Special speakers and entertainers
  - A vintage quilt show
  - Historical film debut

- American Legion Riders National Chairman Bob Sussan is working with the 100th Anniversary Committee to promote early the 2018 Legacy Run to include new centennial-themed features. A similar approach will be strategized for the 2019 Legacy Run. The committee heard a report on those plans during the Oct. 7-8 meeting.

- Plans are also in process to thematically promote the 2019 National Convention around “vision” while the 2018 National Convention will be more about “legacy.” Plans are also in development by the Department of Missouri to recognize the 100th anniversary of the St. Louis Caucus in May 2019.

Also on the 100th Anniversary Observance Committee agenda:
The committee is working with the Marketing Commission team to find opportunities to collaborate on activities like National Poppy Day 2018, corporate relationships, centennial travel programs in Europe and a 2019 Tournament of Roses Parade float in Pasadena, Calif.

The committee is working with the Legislative Division to set up milestones to request congressional and/or White House recognition of the Legion’s 100th anniversary.

Membership promotions also will be developed around the centennial theme, specifically leading candidate for National Commander Brett Reistad’s “Team 100” vision.

Conclusion
The American Legion 100th Anniversary Observance Committee extends its deepest gratitude to all the posts, counties, districts and departments took this opportunity and plans to celebrate the organization’s Legacy and Vision. National workshops and department conferences have shown that the Legion is truly buzzing about the centennial, from pillar to post, across the country and around the world, which was the original intent of forming this committee.

Sons of The American Legion Sub-Committee
George V. West, New Hampshire, Chairman

The Sons of The American Legion Sub-Committee of the Internal Affairs Commission met at 9:57 a.m. on October 9, 2017. Members present were George V. West (NH), Chairman, Larry D. Sheets (FL), James F. Army (MA), Herbert W. Odell (TX), Don Hayden (MN); Michael K. Seaton (CA), Consultant; and Paul M. Brown (CA), Headquarters Staff.

There were five resolutions brought forward to the sub-committee that require action from the Internal Affairs Commission and the National Executive Committee of The American Legion. They are listed along with their recommendations on Addendum B (attached). Motions were made and duly seconded by the SAL Sub-Committee recommendation on all of the resolutions requiring action of the Internal Affairs Commission.

The Internal Affairs Commission approved the resolution actions taken by the Sub-Committee on both Convention and NEC resolutions.

The Sub-Committee discussed the recent establishment of the Past Commanders Panel to increase the voice and input of the program on decisions overseen by the Internal Affairs Commission such as appointments to the Committee on Committees and Commander’s Advisory Committee as well as to serve as mentors in the development of committee members and potential candidates for National Commander. SAL PNC Michael Seaton (CA), SAL Consultant to the Internal Affairs Commission, agreed this panel would provide a much desired opportunity for the past national commanders to provide input to the Internal Affairs Commission.

American Legion Training Sub-Committee
Alton R. Ford, Michigan, Chairman

The Training Subcommittee was called to order by Chairman Alton R. Ford (MI) at 9:45 a.m. on Monday, October 9, 2017, at National Headquarters, Conference Room 311. Additional members present were James Bojanowski (NY), Timothy J. Collmer (NY), Richard Sullivan (SC), Carl Swisher (OH), and Jim Van Horn (AK).

The subcommittee first received a report from national staff regarding the national program training initiatives underway. The American Legion Extension Institute, a training module in existence since the 1950’s, is being re-branded as “Basic Training” under the expanded American Legion Education Institute. All on-line courses will be made available without charge to members of The American Legion family. Further training courses will include P.R.I.M.E. training modules as advanced material instruction on post operations following the initial “Basic Training.” Online YouTube video training, District training, Department Legion College training, and a new training newsletter were other training initiatives presented.

The committee supports the new training initiatives and recommends strongly that national staff obtain input from the committee, commission, and the department adjutants and department American Legion Colleges. The committee requested and received the new Training Newsletters being published by the Internal Affairs Division, and will be kept informed of progress and the timeline of each of the new training initiatives.

The recommendation of the Sub-committee was approved by the Internal Affairs Commission.

II. Program Reports

Sons of The American Legion (SAL)

The past year the Sons of The American Legion strengthened our commitment to the Legion Family and achieved positive gains in all areas.

As of October 5, 2017 we have a total reported membership of 367,260 members for 2017. We are currently at 61,834 members for 2018, which is 15.46% of our goal of 400,000 for 2018.

The S.A.L. was the single largest contributor to The American Legion Child Welfare Foundation in 2017 raising $594,414. At the National Executive Committee Fall meeting this past weekend over $17,967 was donated to the Foundation. This gives us a total to date of over $76,074, which is 18% of our goal. In addition to the CWF donations, the Sons of The American Legion also presented $28,603 for NEF, $670 for the Legion’s Endowment Fund, $1,376 to Operation Comfort Warriors and $250 to TFA.

The Sons of The American Legion continues to support The American Legion in all aspects. Our dedication to the veterans and their families only strengthens our bond with the Legion Family. We will continue to insure productive, in-depth programs so the Sons of The American Legion will be a strong asset to The American Legion. We held our first ever Commission and Committee Forum at this NEC meeting. Over 120 members attended. It was very well received.

Establishment of a past commanders panel for the Sons of The American Legion program.

The purpose of this panel is to:

A) Nominate appointments to TAL Internal Affairs Commission for openings on Committee on Committees and Commanders Advisory Committee.

B) Function as a mentoring body, on a referral basis, for development of committee members and potential candidates for National Commander or National Vice Commander positions.

C) Other duties as assigned by TAL Internal Affairs Commission Chairman.

Panel Structure: (15 members total)

Three Fixed Members – Position held due to being most recent National Commanders
Three most recent Junior Past National Commander’s
Twelve Elected Members – Elected by Past National Commanders at Spring Meeting and/or Fall Meeting depending on vacancies

4 Past National Commander’s (3 year term ending at Fall NEC)
4 Past National Commander’s (2 year initial – replacement is a 3 year term ending at Fall NEC)
4 Past National Commander’s (1 year initial – replacement is a 3 year term ending at Fall NEC)
Panel Chairman Role – Will be held by the most senior of the three junior past national commanders holding fixed positions on the panel for one year. This panel allows for the program to project an experienced voice on those appointments which have the greatest effect on the direction of the program. It will provide for program participant input, while placing the most productive and functioning of the Past National Commanders in a role to mentor and develop the committee/commission members/chairmen and candidates for national office to increase the impact these roles have on the program. The panel size allows for a wide spectrum of input while still producing a product in a timely manner.

American Legion Riders (ALR)
In late September of 2017 the numbers of chapters reported by the posts and reported on the national chapter locator exceeded 2,175 chapters and exist in virtually every department in the United States and worldwide. We estimate 110,000 American Legion Family members now participate in the program.

The American Legion Riders continue to expand local and state fundraising activities and “Legacy Runs”, raising public awareness and visibility of the Legacy Scholarship and the critical needs of these children. The Riders seek and obtain donations from posts, units, and squadrons and also from private organizations, businesses, and individuals. Moreover, of the more than $13.5M raised from all sources from 2002 to 2017, approximately $7M (54 percent) was directly generated by ALR programs. Significantly, a major portion of the ALR donations were the result of a growing number of department organized Legacy Runs.

National American Legion College
Attending this year, we have 55 students from 38 departments. Chancellor PNC David Rehbein (IA) will be continuing the opportunity for each attendee to be challenged by real American Legion issues encountered by our leaders presented in scenarios.

The focus for this year includes:
- New Leadership Scenarios
- New Leadership Module
- How to run successful meetings
- How to effectively write resolutions
- How to implement a department level American Legion College
- Leadership style assessment (DISC) and development
- American Legion Q&A with National Commander

National Emergency Fund
Since its creation in 1989, the National Emergency Fund (NEF) has awarded nearly $9,000,000 to American Legion family members and American Legion posts.

As of September 28, 2017, we have distributed over $116,500 in grants, primarily as a result of tornados in Illinois, Tennessee, and Georgia as well as hurricanes Matthew (South Carolina), Harvey (Texas and Louisiana), and Irma (Florida and South Carolina). We are expecting requests for Hurricane Maria from our members in the Caribbean (Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands) and most recently, Hurricane Nate.

Summary:
January through August: 56 grants $51,120.00
Hurricane Harvey: 72 grants $42,355.00
Hurricane Irma: 56 grants $23,090.00
Hurricanes Maria & Nate no grant requests received to date

In order to fast-track our assistance to members, we set up a temporary toll-free number for members to call for immediate aid from Texas and Florida. Staff contacted each caller within 24 hours and determined an appropriate grant amount (not exceeding $500) in each case. Most of the 128 Harvey/Irma grants awarded were for less than $500—but most of these members later submit the formal NEF forms and supporting documents through their departments for additional relief funds since they have returned to their communities after emergency evacuation orders were lifted.

We anticipate we will continue to receive a high number of grant applications as a result of these four storms for the remainder of 2017 and into 2018. The 90 day requirement for grant submission is waived for Harvey, Irma and Maria.

Currently there is over $5M available for grants.

Leadership, Education And Development Training

Leadership, Education, And Development (LEAD) is a block of training sessions designed to provide professional development for posts, districts and department level members. National staff subject matter experts have developed courses on topics relevant to the operations of The American Legion.

Currently the instructors, lesson plans, handouts and training materials are provided at no expense to departments. Departments are only responsible for identifying and providing the training facility and audio visual equipment. The target audience is open to anyone interested in becoming more involved in The American Legion at the post, district/county and department levels.

The concepts developed and promoted through the LEAD training vehicle will be folded over into the new training vehicles as they get developed and launched over the next few years. The intent is to get this training down to the levels it is needed the most without relying directly on National Headquarters support to provide training facilitators.

Consolidated Post Reports

Each year, American Legion posts around the world donate millions of volunteer hours, raise millions of dollars for the benefit of their community and Legion programs, and positively influence millions of lives.

Year over year the reporting numbers have continued to rise. This year the response rate was 8,880 (68%) – an increase of 94 posts reporting from last year.

The winners of 100% reporting were Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Ohio, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Virginia, and Wisconsin. Those department commanders were recognized on stage in Reno with a plaque presented by the National Commander Charles Schmidt.

Departments receiving a certificate recognizing them for 75% or higher reporting were Arkansas, Kentucky, Maryland, West Virginia and Wyoming.

Our National Commander testifies before a joint session of the House and Senate Committees on Veterans Affairs and the information provided in this report is used to prepare the testimony.

Global War on Terrorism Painting for NEC Room

Matt Hall was selected as the artist for the painting and he is a distinguished painter that specializes in “accurately depicting the stories and sacrifices of military veterans.”
Being a traditionally trained artist, he draws inspiration from artistic greats like NC Wyeth and Norman Rockwell. He has contracted work from the Metal of Honor Society, Electronic Arts Company, LucasArts and The American Legion.

The Internal Affairs Commission approved both the artist and the artist’s concept for the painting. As stated above, the artist has been used in the past for over a dozen pages in The American Legion Magazine and the cover of the Bookazine, a publication covering the American Flag. His web site is: http://www.matthallstudios.com/ From his website: “Matt Hall Studios is dedicated to accurately portraying historically important moments through rich detailed fine art.”

The American Legion Media and Communications Division requested approval from the Internal Affairs Commission for the final design of the painting. The design was approved. The delivery of the final painting may be as early as Spring Meetings 2018.

Paid Up for Life

The campaign for new PUFL members this year has a goal of 8,000 conversions. As of 9/27/2017, we have converted 6,626. There are five email campaigns left for this year. We are projecting that we will be close to the 8,000. We are averaging 60 per week and the expectation for late November and December will be higher if history repeats itself. Our largest email campaign will be during that period.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE MEMBER HAAS: Commander, this has been submitted and approved by the Internal Affairs organization and your Subcommittee on Resolutions, and I move that we accept this resolution. ...Second NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to approve Resolution No. 10. Question?
PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER SANTOS: Does the transition data have to be a hard-copy form or electronic form?
NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: The question is, does a proof need to be in paper or electronic?
PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER SANTOS: Hard copy, electronic copy, or a combination thereof?
INTERNAL AFFAIRS COMMISSION CHAIRMAN NEWMAN: They can both be sent in.
NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Any other questions on Resolution No. 10? Past National Commander Miller?
PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER MILLER: Since when do we have two different effective dates, January 1 on one and October 31 on the other?
NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Mr. Chairman? Why are there two different effective dates?
INTERNAL AFFAIRS COMMISSION CHAIRMAN NEWMAN: There's two different actions. One is for next year. Two different dates with two different actions.
The "Resolved" clause, "it is recommended that before induction into office, every officer of The American Legion," so on and so forth, and that takes effect January 1, 2018.
"It is recommended that there be submitted to department headquarters a copy of the member's discharge papers or other honorable service, certified by the post; branch of service; date of military service." That's effective October 31 of this year.
NEC MEMBER NARVAEZ-NEGRON (PR): I think it would be, the first one is for officers: commander, the adjutant, the treasurer.
INTERNAL AFFAIRS COMMISSION CHAIRMAN NEWMAN: Correct.
NEC MEMBER NARVAEZ-NEGRON (PR): The other one is for members, so that's the difference on the dates. That's the way I see it; correct?
INTERNAL AFFAIRS COMMISSION CHAIRMAN NEWMAN: There's two different things that they're asking. One is eligibility for post officers and eligibility for national officers. The other one is branch of service, dates of military service, and type of discharge. I guess the easy solving of the problem would be a recommendation to change the other date to January 1, 2018, and put that date on both "Resolved" clauses. Could we do that, amend the resolution to reflect that?
NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: That's the recommendation. Is there a motion to that effect?

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: Commander, I make a motion to amend that resolution to reflect that date. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded on Resolution 10, the very last line, to change the October 31, 2017, to January 1, 2018. Is there any discussion on that? Yes.

NEC MEMBER MALONEY (FR): Ma'am, I don't have a question on the dates. I have a question on the other eligibility of honorable service. A military ID card, you can't get one of those if you don't have an honorable discharge.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: We'll deal with the amendment first. So on the amendment only to change that October 31 to January 1, 2018, only on that amendment, are there any questions? All those in favor of that amendment to January 1, 2018, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. The amendment is carried. Back to further discussion on the resolution.

NEC MEMBER MALONEY (FR): My question is "other evidence of honorable service." Retiree ID card, you can't get one of those if you don't have an honorable discharge. We have nowhere in the faces of folks that are left, the eligible Legionnaires that I know of, that there's any more than 20-year period where they would have an honorable discharge without being in some sort of meeting an eligible date to be an American Legionnaire.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: We'll refer that to the judge.

NATIONAL JUDGE ADVOCATE ONDERDONK: I'm not sure what the question is. That's what the problem is.

NEC MEMBER MALONEY: The question is why wouldn't a retiree ID card also suffice as proof that a person has an honorable discharge? And the dates that we are in now of everyone who is eligible to be a Legionnaire, if you came in the military in 1982 and you retired in 2002, you're eligible. I'm just using those dates as an example. So a retiree card would be either 20 or more years of somebody in the military service. Why would that not be also acceptable as a proof of having an honorable discharge and being able to meet the dates of The American Legion criteria?

NATIONAL JUDGE ADVOCATE ONDERDONK: I understand, thank you. While the retirement may be evidence of an honorable discharge, it does not necessarily reflect accurate dates. We have run into situations where an individual was retired after like a year and a half in service, probably because of wounds, but it was still a military retirement. So I would agree with you on proof of honorable discharge, but I would say we would also have to check the dates.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Past National Commander Brieden.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER BRIEDEIN: Madam Commander, I'm just trying to seek a clarification of what we're doing. When I read the resolution, it says when somebody's going to be an officer, we check all this and send it in. Now what we're saying is, every time a new member is signed up, we have to have the post send to the department a copy of the discharge papers or a proof of honorable discharge and eligibility. What I'm not seeing or not hearing is we make a whole bunch of folks that's not eligible signing up. I'm not hearing you saying that, but that seems to be what's happening.

The second thing is, do you realize the logistical situation that will be with each post trying to send that in and the department handling and being a repository of that? And is that what we're trying to accomplish? I'm not sure, I need somebody to clarify what we're trying to do and what our aim is.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Thank you.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER CONLEY: Commander, I'd like to make a motion that we table this for further discussion at a later date. ...Second.
Proceedings of Wednesday, October 11, 2017

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: There's a motion to table this for discussion, and it's been seconded. Is there any discussion on tabling this resolution? Okay. All those in favor, say aye. Opposed? Tabled. We're on Resolution No. 11 now.

...National Commander Rohan resumed the chair.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: I now call on the chairman of Membership & Post Activities Committee, Randy Goodman from Georgia.
Good morning. National Commander Rohan, members of the National Executive Committee, national officers, and guests, thank you for allowing me this opportunity to address you this morning. You have a written copy of my report in front of you. You will find updated information on membership renewals, district revitalizations, and post cancellations included in this report.

We're now starting the fifth year of The American Legion strategic plan for sustained membership growth, and as we all know, there are five priorities within this plan. The mission of this plan has always been to increase membership and post development by creating a culture of growth within our organization.

There are a few departments that have had some success and saw an increase in their membership numbers. Unfortunately, as an organization, we have not been able to do this. Based on this, there are three priorities I would like to focus on today that I feel we need to place more emphasis on in getting this membership to turn around.

The first item I'd like to discuss is the fourth priority in the strategic plan: Post creation, development, and revitalization. We've done an outstanding job, I think, technically working district revitalizations. In 2016, district revitalization teams revitalized more than 2,500 posts across 36 departments. This does not even take into account districts and departments that have conducted revitalizations on their own. As you can see, we're doing a good job on this part. As far as post development, we really need to step up our efforts. Since the inception of the strategic plan, we have canceled 953 posts and have lost over 350,000 members. It is easy to see, if we continue to cancel posts, more posts than we charter, we can connect that directly to the loss of membership. Overall, we've chartered 180 posts over the same five-year period.

It is important to always be on the lookout for communities that do not have posts supporting them. Are there communities where there are high schools but no American Legion presence? A number of them. We should be aware of where veterans are moving and whether or not a post is near them to support their local community. Keep in mind, every community should have the benefit of an active American Legion post that provides service to veterans and their families through the programs of the Four Pillars of service.

The next item that I'd like to bring to your attention is the fifth priority: Membership recruiting and retention. As an organization, for the 2017 membership year, we renewed at a rate of 86 percent. I know that sounds pretty good, and it is. But take into consideration that in 2001, which is the last year that we had membership growth, we renewed at a rate of 91 percent.

Now the strategic plan states retention must be the first priority to increase membership. National Commander Rohan has also made it her priority to increase the retention rate for the 2018 membership year. And based on this, we cannot solely rely on renewal notices or wait until January or February timeframe to start contacting our members. If we're going to increase our retention rate this year, posts need to personally contact their members, and many of you already said that that is your plan. Can we achieve 91 percent renewal rate this year? Yes, we can. Yes, we can. We have to execute better.

Increasing our retention rate will only get us so far; we need to increase our new member recruiting as well. In 2015, we recruited 75,467 members traditionally; in 2016, we dropped to 71,565; and we only recruited 64,924 in 2017. From 2015 to 2017, that's a difference of 10,500 less members being recruited. And during this time, there were 20 less Legionnaires who earned the Silver or Gold Brigade award. At the very least, that equals 1,000 less new members.

We have to increase our traditional recruiting efforts if we are going to grow this organization. Plus, the capability of this organization to support and provide service to veterans regardless of war era, hinges on us asking all eligible veterans to join us. The job is not done once we have signed up a new member; it's just the beginning. We need to start the process of integrating these new members into our organization. We want them to have a clear understanding of The American Legion, we want them to understand their role as a member, and how they can participate and become active members. I call this the onboarding process. By adding this onboarding process at all posts, we are ensuring that all members feel welcome and are invited to participate in activities at all levels.

Reconnect was a Department of Defense initiative for our country to conduct outreach with the military. As we always do, The American Legion took this to heart and developed a program to provide support to our military and their families. How many of you heard of the newly published pamphlet called "Access Granted?" That's very few. This pamphlet now is our guide to assist you and other Legionnaires across the country with reconnect opportunities within your department.

I bring this up because the strategic plan encourages all levels of our organization to develop a working relationship with our military. Educate them on The American Legion and encourage them to take part in our programs. It is vital for our success to reach out and reconnect with the military. When we build relationships with the military, we are able to educate them on what The American Legion does and how we support the military and their families. Our first priority is to provide service; second priority should be to allow for membership.

The last priority I'd like to discuss with you this morning is the third priority: Increase training, education, leadership development. The strategic plan challenges all of us to improve our knowledge of The American Legion by implementing educational tools and encouraging leadership development at all levels. This statement proves the importance of indoctrinating new members into the organization, and this is where the training and mentorship begins, but it cannot stop there. We need to look for every opportunity where training can be offered to our members. Many departments have taken advantage of conducting leadership, education, and development training conferences and conventions.

During our national convention in Reno, Nevada, we held training for newly elected district commanders and continued our subject matter expert training sessions in the expo hall. These training sessions were well received and we will continue to build upon them. The American Legion Extension Institute was recently rebranded, and many of you now know that as our Basic Training course. This is now offered for free to any Legion Family member who wants to learn more about our organization.

As you can see, the opportunities and venues are there, but we cannot limit ourselves to just these. We need to take advantage of each and every opportunity to train and mentor our members. Like I mentioned earlier, this plan has been in place for five years and we have not experienced a culture of growth yet. Why is this? This can be answered by a quote from President Theodore Roosevelt: "Dreams are a dime a dozen. It's their execution that counts."

Our success depends on executing the plan and the tactics within. Without execution, we're going to continue along the same path that we've traveled over the past five years. Does any one of you want that to happen? You raise your hand if you do.

I'd like to leave you with this one last thought: This year, National Commander Rohan has been gracious during the membership negotiations, and I think each department has a clear chance to exceed their membership goals. We can all reward her graciousness by pushing our posts, districts, and departments to attain 100 percent of their membership goal. We have to start this turnaround now and begin this culture of growth if we are to remain the premier veteran service organization we know we are.

Commander, thank you for allowing me this time to address this distinguished group. This concludes my report.
As of October 6, 2017, the 2018 membership total is 1,113,396 – 23,655 members behind this same time for 2017. These membership results do not include newly acquired 2018 DMS members. The total DMS members acquired to date for 2018 is 37,485 which is 11,742 ahead of 2017 totals.

During the recent 50% Target Date, 48 departments exceeded the target date – same as the 2017 membership campaign. The 55% target is the next target date, on October 12, 2017 - 38 departments have already met this goal. We hope to see all the departments meet this target.

We are entering the fifth year of The American Legion Strategic Plan. The plan is a good one but in order for it to perform at full potential it will require our leaders and members, at all levels, to begin executing the tasks. The strategic plan and where we go with it will be the main topic of discussion at the upcoming January 2018 planning session.

One area that has not received a lot of attention in recent years is the number of current active posts. There are currently, 12,922 active posts. During this meeting 54 posts have been submitted for cancellation. Over the last five years we have cancelled 953 posts and only chartered 180. There has always been a correlation between membership growth and the number of active posts – we are now seeing the effect it has on membership. The potential to build new posts is there and it needs to become a part of our long-term plan to grow.

The online renewal program continues to perform well. The 2017 campaign resulted in 245,824 members renewing online which was an increase of 33,263 over 2016. To date, 143,612 members have renewed online for 2018. We expect these totals to continue to increase.

National staff, working in conjunction with local volunteers, were directly involved in more than 2,500 posts being started or revitalized through the efforts of district revitalization teams in 2016 (staff efforts run from Jan 1 – Dec 31). We expect that number to be equal to if not greater than for 2017. It is the one program that is part of the strategic plan that seems to be working well and has been accepted by many of the departments and districts. The retention rate for members who transferred from these efforts remains higher as compared to those members who remain as DMS99 members. There are 21 district revitalizations planned between October through December 2017. Several of the departments continue to execute the program on their own without the support of National staff and are doing quite well. The program does more than just transfer members, it also signs new members up and provides great membership training.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: Commander, motion to receive and file the report of the MP&A Committee. There are no resolutions, no addendums. Second. Oral Report: National Security Commission
G. Michael Schlee, Maryland, Chairman

Thank you, commander. I guess we all survived with no Elbow Room. It looks like you got fed somewhere today. It's always a pleasure to be with you. Your National Security Commission had not had a meeting since I reported to you in Reno. However, in the interim period, two resolutions were referred by the 99th National Convention and one was received from a department executive committee. Attached to our report you have Addendum A, which is our recommended disposition on those three resolutions. We did consultation by email and by phone with the leadership executive session of the commission and committee chairmen, and these are our recommendations. Nothing is recommended for approval, they're all for other actions.

It's a pleasure to be with you. What we do on a daily basis in Washington and my interaction with the staff is guided by the 80 resolutions in our portfolio from the 98th and 99th National Conventions. The staff has provided you an extensive update on five areas for your use and review.

The first one is just an assessment of the world situation, the threat analysis that goes country by country. Second one is TRICARE update. There's changes to TRICARE which become effective in January of 2018. The last three major areas I'd just like to talk to very briefly.

The first is resourcing or budgeting for the force. The reality is, the NDAA, the authorization act for the defense budget for fiscal year 2018 looks lovely right now. However, I hasten to point out that ghost in the closet, sequestration, is still, in fact, a fact of law. While it may be waived for one budget cycle, sequestration still exists and could rear its ugly budget axe at almost any time after this NDAA, so we have to exercise unique caution.

The second area I want to touch on briefly is readiness of the force. I'm not going to stand before you today and say we're facing a hollow army like we did in the '70s and '80s. What I am saying is the force is starting to show signs of wear. USA TODAY, I happened to catch it, I think Arkansas has it over on their desk there, that the Army has announced they're settling for less-qualified soldiers because of the inability to compete in the market. Additionally, equipment needs to be refitted.

As a Vietnam guy, when I talk to the servicemen and women and the active-force folks, we had career people in my era who had two, three, four, five tours in Vietnam. Almost every troop I talk to today has three, four, five, six combat tours, men and women. Additionally, unlike Vietnam, you talk to the reservists; most of the reservists and the guard people have two, three, four, five combat tours. The reality is, with this massive rotation in the combat tours, the force is starting to show signs of wear. We have to be aware of those signs of wear and address them in terms of both management issues that the Army and the services exercise, as well as budgeting issues.

The final issue I just want to give a fast update on is the POW/MIA issue, an issue which we work day in and day out and sometimes really may not be in the consciousness of our mind. But as we visualize that POW/MIA You Are Not Forgotten flag, I do want to announce that they announced two weeks ago, after 15 months, 15 months of not having a head, they did announce a new director of Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency, Major General, Retired, Kelly McKeague who actually ran the operation in Hawaii. We're excited that we'll have leadership with DPAA.

Freddy Gessner, our deputy, gave a good summary of where we are on the accounting issues by numbers of World War II and forward. I can report to you, it appears that on the number of identifications this year will reach 200 which is the "congressionally mandated" number for an annual basis. Funding for the POW/MIA efforts year after year struggle, something we have to continue to fight.

Before I close out, I do want to introduce the staff. Joe Sharpe is our interim director of the division. Rhonda Powell, you may not know, is on a one-year assignment over at the Pentagon in the Office of the JCS, a good assignment for her. So Joe's been around, what, a quarter of a century; I've known Joe for a good while. You know, I'm a half-century guy, so a quarter of a century, you know, you're a young guy. (Applause)

I want to particularly thank Freddy Gessner, our deputy. I've had the honor of being the chairman for seven years. Throughout that period of time, Freddy has consistently given me timely and professional support. I really appreciate what you do. (Applause)

In addition, I do want to acknowledge somebody in the back. Past National Commander Bob Spanogle sent me updates. He's still a civilian aide, I believe, to the secretary of the Army. What he sends me is valuable in what we formulate in working with the commission.

In closing, I want to thank you, National Commander, our NEC liaison, and all members of the National Executive Committee for your continued support of your commission's efforts to take care of the troops, to protect U.S. interests worldwide, and to provide for the common defense. I thank you. (Applause)

Report: National Security Commission

G. Michael Schlee, Maryland, Chairman

You have received a copy of the report of the meeting of the National Commission on August 19, 2017 prior to the 99th National Convention in Reno. The National Security Commission has not met since that meeting. However, two resolutions were referred to the standing Commission by the 99th National Convention. 1) Resolution No. 5: Strategic Nuclear Policy; and 2) Resolution No. 9: Support Walkway in Arlington National Cemetery on Chaplains Hill. A third resolution was received from the New Mexico Department Executive Committee, Register Resolution No. 2750: Commission the USS Los Alamos. The recommended action for Resolution No. 5 is to dispose of administratively, Resolution No. 9 is being referred to the Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation Commission, and Resolution No. 2750 is recommended to be held for further study (Addendum A).

The National Security Commission and its seven committees along with the council continue to review developments in the national security and foreign relations arenas. The 99th National Convention adopted nine resolutions which, when added to the more than 80 existing resolutions, comprise the Commission’s policy and legislative agendas for the year ahead.

The following are brief updates on several critical areas for your review:

Current Threat Environment

Counter-ISIL coalition/counter-terrorism

On July 10, 2017, Prime Minister Abadi of Iraqi declared the liberation of Mosul, the 2nd largest city in Iraq, and the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) capitol in Iraq.
U.S.-backed Iraqi forces retook the city after eight months of intense urban combat that has killed and injured tens of thousands and displaced close to million Iraqi citizens. The counter-ISIL coalition continues to degrade the capabilities of the group and force them from territory, and are in the final phase of retaking ISIL’s capitol in Syria, Raqqa, using U.S.-allied fighting groups.

There have been several major terrorist attacks since our last report by ISIL and al-Qaeda affiliates in the Europe, including the St. Petersburg Metro bombing in April (15 killed, 64 injured), the Manchester Arena bombing in May (22 killed, 116 injured), the London Bridge attack (8 killed, 48 injured) in June, and the Catalonia attacks in August (16 killed, 152 injured). ISIL and al-Qaeda affiliates have shown time and again the capacity and capability to execute mass-casualty terrorist attacks, with security officials concerned that as the Islamic State collapses they will turn continue to turn toward targeting soft targets like civilian gatherings.

North Korea

Kim Jong Un continues to develop, refine, and threaten the use of nuclear weapons against the United States and its allies in East Asia, drawing universal condemnation and a broad array of international sanctions. Current intelligence estimates and observations of ballistic missile tests indicate that North Korea has the capability of reaching the continental United States, with the development of a reliable intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM) and reentry vehicle estimated by early 2018. On September 3, 2017 North Korea claimed to have successfully tested a thermonuclear (hydrogen) bomb which, based on the corresponding 10 fold increase in seismic activity the day of the test compared to previous attempts, demonstrated a blast with a potential yield of 250 kilotons.

In response, the United Nations Security Council passed Resolution 2371 in August, banning all exports North Korean coal, iron, lead, and seafood, and Resolution 2375 in September, which limits North Korean petroleum imports, banned joint ventures, textile exports, natural gas condensate and liquid imports, and banned North Korean nationals from working abroad in other countries. Additionally, in September President Donald Trump issued an executive order allowing the U.S. to cut from its financial system and/or freeze assets of any companies, businesses, organizations and individuals trading in goods, services or technology with North Korea, as well as banning aircraft and ships who have entered North Korea in last 180 days from entering the United States. Another executive order followed banning entry of North Korean nationals to the United States.

Russia

Details have emerged about the complex and wide-ranging information operation conducted by alleged Russian government affiliated entities through social media over the course of the 2016 presidential election. In May, Facebook reported that unnamed actors exploited the social network in an attempt to influence election through a combination of tactics including false news, disinformation, or networks of fake accounts aimed at manipulating public opinion. In September 2017, Facebook told congressional investigators it had discovered that hundreds of fake accounts linked to a Russian troll farm had bought $100,000 in advertisements targeting the 2016 U.S. election audience. The ads, which ran between June 2015 and May 2017, primarily focused on divisive social issues; some were geographically targeted. Facebook has also reportedly turned over information about the Russian-related ad buys to Special Counsel Robert Mueller. Facebook had previously denied that fake news on their platform had influenced the election and had insisted it was unaware of any Russian-financed advertisements.
China
Despite continuing tensions in the South China Sea between the United States, China, and other claimants like Philippines and Vietnam, current discussions between the White House and President Xi Jinping have been focused on North Korea. China remains a persistent cyber threat, however, and like Russia is interested in shifting the balance of power in what it sees as its sphere of influence. China is undergoing a concerted modernization and expansion of its maritime presence and power projection, with plans to add 100,000 Marines and the recent launching of its first indigenously built aircraft carrier as current examples. Whether this buildup of capability and capacity will worsen relations between China and its neighbors remains to be seen. China’s critical role in the global economy, and the desire of the Chinese Communist Party leadership to continue high economic growth, constrains China’s ability to act too aggressively, though it continues to test the United States.

Iran
In April 2017, the Trump administration certified that Iran had continued to comply with the JCPOA, the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action, who’s provisions essentially dismantle Iran’s capability to develop nuclear weapons. In July 2017, Xiyue Wang, an American graduate student and researcher at Princeton University, was sentenced to 10 years in prison for “infiltration” of Iran. While the International Atomic Energy Commission continues to monitor Iranian compliance with the JCPOA, the Treasury Department’s Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) designated 16 entities and individuals for what it said was “engaging in support of illicit Iranian actors or transnational criminal activity.”

The U.S. and its regional allies in the Middle East have long worried about Iran’s influence in Iraq; as well as its actions in Syria, where it supports President Bashar al-Assad; its backing of Hezbollah, the Lebanese Shia movement; its role in the Yemeni civil war, where Tehran is engaged in a proxy war with its main rival, Saudi Arabia; and its influence over Shia minorities throughout the majority-Sunni Arab world.

TRICARE Update
Beginning in January 2018, there will be changes to the TRICARE benefit.
• Section 701 of the 2017 National Defense Authorization Act will be implemented and synchronized with the Department’s transition to the TRICARE 2017 contracts, beginning January 1, 2018.
• Broadened access for beneficiaries by setting the requirement that at least 85 percent of U.S. beneficiaries have ready access to network providers in TRICARE Select and gives Select beneficiaries access to no-cost preventive services from network providers.
• It expands TRICARE coverage of preventive care services, treatment of obesity, high-value care, and telehealth.
• It establishes the annual open season enrollment period that beneficiaries will participate in each year to choose their health plan, and the rules for qualifying life events that will allow for changes outside that open season. It also establishes 2018 as a transition year, during which enrollment changes will be available throughout the year as beneficiaries adjust to this new process.
• For Prime beneficiaries, it establishes new requirements for timely appointments and more access to care without the need for referrals, reinforcing standards for access to care. Prime beneficiaries will also have expanded access to urgent care without the need for a referral from their primary care manager.
For Select beneficiaries, DOD has converted the current cost-shares, where you pay a percentage of the total cost, to a fixed dollar amount.

It preserves benefits for active duty dependents and TRICARE-for-Life beneficiaries.

It restructures and continues authority to update TRICARE Prime retiree copayments, which have not changed since 1995.

TRICARE Select will replace TRICARE Standard and TRICARE Extra on January 1, 2018. TRICARE Select brings together the features of TRICARE Standard and TRICARE Extra in a single plan. Select enrollees may obtain care from any TRICARE authorized provider without a referral or authorization. Enrollees who obtain services from TRICARE network providers will pay lower cost sharing amounts for network care.

All current TRICARE beneficiaries will be automatically enrolled in their respective plan on January 1, 2018. TRICARE Prime enrollees will remain in TRICARE Prime. TRICARE Standard and Extra beneficiaries will be enrolled in TRICARE Select. Appendix B outlines what actions will unfold automatically, effective January 1, 2018. Future beneficiaries, or beneficiaries wishing to change their TRICARE plan must proactively change their enrollment during enrollment eligibility periods.

Beneficiary out-of-pocket costs will be updated.

Beneficiaries can choose to enroll in or change their TRICARE Prime or TRICARE Select coverage during an annual open enrollment period in November-December, 2018 for coverage beginning on January 1, 2019. Failure to enroll in TRICARE Prime or TRICARE Select results in the termination of coverage for civilian care. These beneficiaries who choose to not enroll may only receive care at a military clinic or hospital on a space available basis.

2018 will be a transition year with a grace period for enrollment. To allow beneficiaries to adjust to making their health care option choices during an annual open season enrollment period or to remember to elect their coverage when a QLE occurs, beneficiaries can elect to make their coverage changes anytime during 2018 to ensure they have the right coverage in place starting in 2019.

READINESS

In a June 2017 report (GAO-17-369) from the Government Accountability Office (GAO) identified five key readiness areas that are significantly affecting the Department of Defense’s ability to accomplish its mission:

- Rebalancing forces and rebuilding readiness: the military services are generally smaller and less combat ready than in recent years, and DOD officials warn that the military is not strong enough to protect U.S. national security interests from worldwide threats. In particular, the Air Force, Navy, and Marine Corps all are facing increasing maintenance challenges for their naval and air platforms due to operational strain.

- Mitigating threats to cyberspace and expanding cyber capabilities: in 2016, the Director of National Intelligence identified cyber threats as first among strategic threats in the United States. While DOD has made progress in developing a strategy to protect its networks against cyber-attacks, it must improve planning for continuity of operations in a degraded cyber environment, and strengthen its insider threat awareness program, and improve oversight and visibility of the cyber capabilities of National Guard units.
• Controlling escalating costs and managing finances: DOD’s FY16 budget accounted for nearly half of federal discretionary spending, and its costs continue to grow. DOD remains one of the few federal entities that cannot demonstrate an ability accurately account for and reliably reports its spending or assets. DOD needs to consistently implement leading acquisition practices, address improper payments to control rising costs in the military health system (which now accounts for a projected $60 billion of DOD’s budget, a 217% increase over 16 years), identify underutilized space, and remediate financial management deficiencies. Since 2011, GAO has directed 79 recommendations to DOD in this area, of which 72 remain open, including 52 priority recommendations.

• Strategically managing human capital: funding for civilian and military personnel costs represented nearly half of DOD’s budget, projected to be $180 billion in FY18, while it spent about $115 billion on contractor-provided services in FY15. GAO has raised questions in the past about DOD’s information on its contractor workforce, as well as the need for a workforce mix assessment and comprehensive compensation strategy to meet recruiting and retention goals.

• Achieving greater efficiencies in defense business operations: DOD has emphasized the need to improve its business practices and reduce overhead and free up resources for higher priorities, but needs to take additional actions to drive business transformation efforts, implement management controls for its business systems investments, and develop guidance to manage the acquisition of contracted services.

BUDGETING

FY18 NDAA - Both the Senate and House Armed Services Committees (SASC/HASC) have passed a version of the FY18 National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA). The House Appropriations Committee – Defense (HAC-D) has released their FY18 defense appropriations bill, while the Senate Appropriations Committee – Defense (SAC-D) has not. The topline budget differences between the bills and the Presidential Budget Request (PBR) are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>FY18 PBR</th>
<th>FY18 HASC NDAA</th>
<th>FY18 SASC NDAA</th>
<th>FY18 HAC-D Defense Appropriations</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Base budget</td>
<td>$574 billion</td>
<td>$631.5 billion</td>
<td>$640 billion</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Overseas Contingency Operations (OCO)</td>
<td>$65 billion</td>
<td>$64.6 billion</td>
<td>$60 billion</td>
</tr>

It is important to note that every passed FY18 defense authorization or appropriations bill exceeds the caps put into place by the Budget Control Act of 2011 and amended by the Bipartisan Budget Control Acts of 2013 and 2015. Currently, the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) estimates that in FY18, defense and non-defense discretionary spending is capped at $549 billion and $516 billion respectively (money authorized in the Overseas Contingency Operations (OCO) budget does not count against the budget caps). That means that the PBR and every defense bill passed this session exceeds the budget cap for defense spending between $25 to $91 billion dollars.

The Senate and the House Armed Service Committees must now conference on the NDAA to harmonize the language in their bills. However, should Congress authorize and appropriate defense funds above the current cap without legislation in place that adjusts or removes those caps, it will trigger sequestration and automatic cuts to discretionary spending.

POW/MIA UPDATE

In September, the Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency announced the appointment of its new director, Kelly McKeague, who had previously served as the DPAA’s first Deputy Director.

Full funding of DPAA is something we continue to be concerned about. The effects of continuing resolutions and threats of government shutdowns are crippling to DPAA efforts. Without guaranteed funding recovery teams are threatened with having to end their mission and return stateside short of mission dates. Mission planning is impacted as well. The difficult mountains of Vietnam can only be excavated during the warm months and without guaranteed funding recovery opportunities may be missed or delayed.

The follow is the current statistical list of the unaccounted for from past conflicts:

Oral Report: Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation Commission
Ralph P. Bozella, Colorado, Chairman

Thank you, commander. Good afternoon, commander, national officers, NEC, and guests. Your VA&R Commission has met twice since the national convention. We met on September 25 with the System Worth Saving program by use of telephone conference calling and Zoom computer technology, and we used the same methods to meet again as a full commission on September 29 so that we could be prepared for this meeting today.

We have a written report filed, and I would like to just brief you on a few things that we believe are of importance to you. First of all, the TBI/PTSD Committee met here in this building on Saturday, October 12. Now, according to the outline of authorization, the TBI/PTSD Committee report is to be included within the VA&R report. Now, our committee met, unfortunately, in the absence of our chairman, Past National Commander Bill Detweiler of Louisiana who, I'm really happy to report, is recovering at home. We will continue to hope and pray, and I know you join our committee in praying for Bill's quick return and healthy return back to our midst. We miss him.

The TBI/PTSD Committee received an update from Mynd Analytics from California regarding the use of big data in measuring brainwave technology through the use of EEG technology. They have the ability to take this information and apply it to the analysis of drug use within the brains of veteran patients, and to take that information and recommend further treatment options.

We also received a truly fascinating report from a TBI/PTSD Committee member, Dr. Ron Poropatch, from the University of Pittsburgh. His presentation was on the translation of TBI research and on neuroimaging breakthroughs. They're doing some incredible things in his office with returning veterans with TBI and PTSD. We were really excited to hear the news coming out of the University of Pittsburgh.

We also heard from Dusty Baxley, Boulder Crest Retreat, for a military veteran wellness out of Virginia. What the Boulder Crest Retreat does is, they take military veterans and their families, in groups or individuals, to an outdoor facility, and it's really full of alternative treatment methods. Certainly, the outdoor activities, archery and shooting, calisthenics, counseling, yoga, art, equine therapy. We find that other programs like this that we've heard from in Ohio and Georgia, Wisconsin, they're all doing good things as alternative ways to help bring veterans back from a wartime experience.

I'm very excited to report, we also heard from, again, a TBI/PTSD Committee member, Dr. Jeanne Stellman, from Columbia University. You may remember that name as Dr. Stellman and her husband, Steve, and John Summers who was at one time an executive director out of our Washington, D.C. office, worked together to conduct a study in 1983, the first study of Vietnam veterans at the time in five different states. They took a second look at those same veterans in 1998, and she has applied for a research grant and was funded for a third look of the same veterans, those that are still with us, of course, in those same states. Even those that are deceased, they're going to look into information of how those veterans died and try to apply that data to enable us to again learn more about veterans as they return from war.

So all in all, we had a very good meeting. We ended up with a strategy session and a planning session of where we want the TBI/PTSD Committee to go. One of the outcomes will be a seminar that we're planning in Washington, D.C. in June of 2018, and we'll have more information on that later.

Those of you who may have been to the Washington conference in the VA&R room in February of 2017, you may remember a Dr. Shah who was, I believe, a White House intern working with VA at the time. She made a presentation to our group about physician burnout. First of all, she was very complimentary of The American Legion and the System Worth Saving program. She then challenged us, The American Legion, to find a way to assist with physician burnout in VA by offering an American Legion award. She thought that would be and VA thinks that would be quite prestigious for an American Legion award.

Past National Commander Comer was in the room; he stood up and supported such an idea. I know he had a private conversation with Dr. Shah after the meeting and he suggested that we work on such resolutions, which we presented here in May, and you passed a resolution for two American Legion awards, a VA Physician of the Year and a VA Healthcare Provider of the Year.

Now, we have sent information out to all your departments two months ago, asking for nominees. I'm really disappointed to say, we have only nominations from two departments. So I've extended the deadline to November 1. I'm challenging you to go home. We will resend that to you if that will help, we will send it to you directly, NECs, we will send it to your adjutant, and we'll send it to your department commanders in asking us, again, for nominations for VA Doctor of the Year and VA Physician of the Year. These American Legion awards will be presented at the Washington conference, in cooperation with VA to have them there, and The American Legion will pay all expenses to the award recipients, so please keep that in mind.

Another resolution that we passed back in May was a suicide prevention program to be developed by The American Legion, and you assigned that to the TBI/PTSD Committee. That was part of our planning session, and we are working on what that program could look like. We really feel that The American Legion should be and can be the leader of VSOs again, but in the field of suicide prevention. So we really want to develop something that we can be proud of and, more importantly, is a real tool to help veterans, military personnel with suicide prevention.

I've talked to our legislative chairman, Bill Oxford, and also to our Legislative Division, and asked that they consider putting veteran suicide prevention, military suicide prevention as a legislative priority on our legislative drop sheet for Washington this year. When Dr. Poonam Alaigh spoke to us in Reno, she mentioned that VA was starting a suicide prevention advisory council, and we have representation on that council. Roscoe Butler, our deputy director for VA health care, is representing The American Legion on that council.

In your written report, you will see, on page 2 or 3, a list of the VA leasing projects and minor construction projects. I encourage you to read those for the simple reason that there's a lot of them, and most of your departments will have those kind of projects going on, and I think it would be very good for you, our National Executive Committee, and your commander, to pay attention to those projects in your department.

The System Worth Saving program, we have a tentative schedule. We're going to visit 16 sites in 2018. That schedule is also in your written remarks.

Arlington National Cemetery was presented to us at the national convention by Mrs. Yates, the deputy superintendent. She is urging The American Legion to be more involved and to lead the conversation regarding the future of Arlington and what they can do with the capacity issues. Arlington is running out of land. Again, this is a VA entity asking The American Legion to take a leadership role. We are working on that.

Commander, VA&R never rests. On behalf of our commission members, the volunteers, and our division staff in Washington, D.C. led by Mr. Lou Celli who is, of course, here today, we want to congratulate you on your historic election, and we want you to know we stand ready, commander, to take all actions necessary to continue to work together to improve the quality of life for veterans and our families. Commander, that concludes my oral report.

Legion Volunteering

The American Legion’s Department of Veterans Affairs Voluntary Service (VAVS) program has again been proven beneficial. By the end of the 3rd quarter, 2017, there are over 4,465 regularly scheduled volunteers who serve veterans in VAMCs, clinics, Vet Centers, Fisher Houses and State Veterans Homes across the nation.

The regularly scheduled volunteers contributed 554,143 hours and occasional volunteers contributed 43,485 hours. Their combined service contributed in excess of 597,628 hours resulting in savings to the Department of Veterans Affairs of more than $14.426 million. While the number of total volunteers and hours continues to decrease from previous years, the commitment of The American Legion’s volunteers remains strong.

The VA Voluntary Service (VAVS) National Advisory Committee (NAC) Executive Committee (EC) fall meeting is scheduled for October 18-19, 2017, at the Fleet Reserve Association National Headquarters, in Alexandria VA. This meeting will be co-hosted by the Fleet Reserve Association and Blinded Veterans Association. A report from the meeting will be provided at the Spring 2018 National Executive Committee Meeting

TBI/PTSD Committee

The TBI/PTSD Committee met in Indianapolis, IN on Saturday October, 7, 2017 during the Fall NEC Meeting. The committee heard from Mr. George Carpenter, CEO, MYND, Inc. Mynd Analytics, Inc. which is a predictive analytics company. The company has developed a decision support tool to assist physicians reduce trial and error in mental treatments and provide personalized care to patients. Mynd Analytics Inc. uses a simple, painless, non-invasive electroencephalogram (EEG) test that measures brain waves generated by electrical signals in nerve cells.

Mynd Analytics Inc. is using the Psychiatric Electroencephalogram Evaluation Registry (PEER). The online registry currently at 10,700 individuals captures real-world outcomes for specific medications and how individuals respond to different medications and what their brainwaves look like. This data allows physicians to detect new patterns for the purpose of proving the proper treatments and therapies.

Mr. Carpenter provided the committee a presentation with his company’s medical research entitled Can “Big Data” Help Physicians Improve Treatment for Psychological Trauma? The presentation was the results from an ongoing registry trial.

The Committee also heard from Dusty Baxley, Executive Director of Boulder Crest Retreat (BCR) presented to the TBI and PTSD Committee on how his organization is assisting veterans and their families who are suffering from mental health illnesses and disorders such as posttraumatic stress disorder. Boulder Crest Retreat is a local organization nestled near the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains in Bluemont, Virginia, roughly an hour from Washington, D.C.

Their mission is to assist former servicemembers and their families to successfully rehabilitate from mental health issues through education, individual and group therapy. This is accomplished by giving them “resiliency tools”, and the ability to follow-up post Warrior Progressive and Alternative Training for Healing Heroes (PATHH) program at no program cost to them (minus travel and food).

They have five different programs, including couple, family, caregiver, mentoring, and PATHH. The Warrior PATHH is BCR’s focal point, as a 7-day intensive therapy program designed to rehabilitate those for whom the tolls of war have had the greatest effect. Individual therapies in several of the programs include equine, meditation/yoga, culinary/gardening, counseling, art, archery, and other programs that heal the mind, body, and spirit.

BCR is currently expanding nationwide with a facility being developed near Tucson, AZ and plans to open more servicemember and veteran wellness retreats within a few years.

Following the morning presentations, the afternoon meeting consisted of additional presentations given by Medical Consultants and members of the TBI/PTSD Committee Dr. Jeanne Mager Stellman, Ph.D. who presented on her and her husband’s medical research titled: A Third Look: American Legion/Columbia University Vietnam Veterans Study and Dr. Ron Poropatich, M.D., MS (Ret. Col), who presented on Translation of TBI Research & Important Neuroimaging Breakthroughs. The University of Pittsburgh is a leader in medical research and values its close affiliation with military medicine. The presentation provided an overview of the Center for Military Medicine Research at Pitt as well as the key Traumatic Brain Injury research programs that are funded by the DoD. The TBI research programs presented include translational research to improve treatment of TBI, new neuroimaging techniques, and mild TBI research programs that target an active duty military population.

National staff also led a discussion on the Committees strategies for 2017/2018 to include:

- The American Legion Suicide Prevention Program
- Complementary and Alternative Medicine (CAM) usefulness to evidence-based VA treatments for TBI and PTSD
- The American Legion being represented on the VA/VSO Suicide Council
- The American Legion Caregiver Support Program
- Advances in Medical Cannabis and
- The American Legion 2018 TBI/PTSD Symposium
Claims Update

The American Legion continues to press the Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA) on improving their administrative processes while improving upon the quality and accuracy of claims decisions. Since 2012, The American Legion has encouraged veterans to file for VBA benefits via the fully developed claim (FDC) process. Due to the efforts of National Headquarters staff and American Legion accredited representatives, over 70 percent of claims submitted to VBA holding American Legion as power of attorney are submitted via FDC. These efforts have resulted in thousands of veterans receiving their benefits in a timelier manner. The fact that over 70 percent of claims have been submitted via FDC is staggering; at its inception, VA was hoping for only a 25 percent submission rate for FDCs and truly reflects a dedication by our accredited representatives to improving the delivery of benefits.

In February 2017, VBA introduced the Decision Ready Claim (DRC) process. DRC largely involves service officers following the same procedures as FDC; however, they also have the ability to schedule compensation and pension (C&P) examinations. Service officers electing to file claims via DRC must initially file VA’s “Intent to File” form to retain the earliest effective date. Following the filing of the form, the service officer will schedule the C&P examination; after the C&P examination’s conclusion, the service officer files the DRC.

American Legion service officers expressed serious concerns regarding DRC. Questions surrounding increased liability by service officers and faulty VA computer programs resulted in little interest in participating in the program. National Headquarters staff circulated a letter identifying the various concerns to the service officers for their endorsement. Responses from the service officers were significant and led National Headquarters staff to work closely with senior VBA personnel to address these concerns. Following weeks of discussion, VBA agreed to release a statement to Veterans Service Organizations (VSOs) clearly stating that VA maintains their regulatory duty to assist, and VSOs will not inherit additional liability through DRC participation. Moreover, National Headquarters staff participated in a requirements meeting with VBA information technology (IT) personnel to discuss and implement improvements to VBA IT programs to encourage a higher level of participation.

National Headquarters staff recognizes improvements in VBA IT programs will result in improved delivery of services for all types of VA claims. DRC is a microcosm of the entire claims process; improvements to one form of claims process will improve the entire system.

American Legion accredited representatives continue to struggle with the creation and implementation of National Work Queue (NWQ). NWQ is a program designed to redirect cases to VA regional offices (VAROs) throughout the nation. Conceptually, the program would seem viable; however, American Legion representatives report difficulty in reaching VA personnel to discuss case outcomes at other VAROs. The problem is compounded by time zone differences and staff availability.

A common complaint among DSOs is the lack of correspondence that is received by VA. VA will mail correspondence to veterans and indicate the veteran’s DSO received a courtesy copy of the letter. DSOs are reporting they neither receive a courtesy copy nor an electronic alert within VBMS to inform them of the correspondence.

Our accredited representatives continue to work tirelessly to honor those that have served. Currently the American Legion has over 3,200 accredited representatives. With this number of professional representatives, The American Legion represents over 800,000 claimants in receipt of VA monetary benefits. Due to their efforts, claimants holding The American Legion as power of attorney receive over $9.9 billion in VA disability benefits during the past fiscal year. The awarding of the benefits permits access to other benefits, such as access to free VA healthcare, increased federal hiring preference, and elimination of funding fees for VA mortgages.

The enactment of the Veterans Appeals Improvement and Modernization Act has led to rapid implementation of the new design. National Headquarters staff attended a meeting hosted by the Board of Veterans’ Appeals (BVA) and VBA on September 14, 2017. VA Secretary David Shulkin has directed VA staff to begin to implement appeals modernization immediately. Individual VAROs will implement the program; VARO personnel will identify veterans that have filed appeals and invite them to “opt-in” to the improved system and reduce the inventory of appeals nationwide.

Cemetery Update

The National Cemetery Committee and staff last met on August 26th during our National Convention in Reno, Nevada. The committee heard from Ms. Renea C. Yates, Deputy Superintendent, Cemetery Administration and Major Shannon Way Arlington National Cemetery. Their discussion was on Arlington’s ongoing dilemma with space availability. Ms. Yates reiterated that at the current rate Arlington would reach capacity by the middle of this century. Things that can be done to expand the availability are to change the requirements for burial and interment. Major Way also mentioned that acquiring new space poses a problem due to the geographical location of being in a highly dense populated area surrounded by major highways and roads. The takeaways are, if future land acquisition for expansion needs to be considered and what will happen when the cemetery has reached capacity. Ms. Yates urged The American Legion to participate and lead a national discussion on the future of Arlington and what to do when capacity has been reached. The Committee also heard from Mr. Ken Johnson, Program Manager, Pacific District, National Cemetery Administration. Mr. Johnson discussed NCA’s structure, mission and eligibility criteria for burial or internment. Mr. Johnson also discussed the rural and urban initiatives currently underway in NCA in an effort to increase burial options for veterans. The following National Cemeteries have been awarded grants for improvements, flag assembly areas, front entry walls, signage construction, and maintenance. The cemeteries outlined for these grants are all National Veterans Cemeteries near Fort Yates North Dakota, The Standing Rock Sioux Tribe, Rio Grande Valley State Veterans Cemetery Mission, Texas, The State of Texas, East Tennessee State Veterans Cemetery and The State of Tennessee.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: Commander, motion to receive and file the report of the Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation Commission with the exception of three resolutions and Addendum A. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to accept the Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation Commission's report with the exception of Addendum A and three resolutions. Are there any questions? Question in the back.

NEC MEMBER RYNES (WI): Just a comment, Mr. Chairman. Could you send those applications for awards also to, like, the VA and VS offices and hospitals? Would that help? Bypass maybe headquarters?

VETERANS AFFAIRS & REHABILITATION COMMISSION CHAIRMAN BOZELLA: No, I think we're sending them to the right place. We're sending to our department offices. This time we're sending them to you. You've heard about it, and I really believe that you can create an action on them. Your department commandera heard the same massage yesterday. Then it's up to your departments how you will facilitate that. Thank you for the question.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Are there any other questions? On the motion to receive and file the report of the Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation Commission, all those in favor, say aye. Opposed, same sign. Carried.

Resolution No. 12: Department of Veterans Affairs Drug Pricing Policy

Origin: Resolution No. 72 (CA) 2017 National Convention

Submitted By: Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation Commission

WHEREAS, The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) is the primary source of medication for those veterans who are eligible for and receive services from the VA based upon their military service to our country; and

WHEREAS, As a result of a combination of congressional action and other discount pricing opportunities from the pharmaceutical industry, the VA is able to negotiate with drug manufacturers, lower pricing arrangements allowing the VA to continue to provide a wide assortment of pharmaceutical drugs to the veterans it serves; and

WHEREAS, Recently there are efforts in various states, such as Ohio, Maine, Vermont and Washington state, to require state governments to not pay more for their drug purchases for state employees and other state medical recipients than those paid by the VA; and

WHEREAS, Most recently this issue was on the November 2016 California ballot as Proposition 61 where it was opposed by over 30 veterans organizations, including The American Legion; and

WHEREAS, California voters listened to the veterans and overwhelmingly defeated Proposition 61 by a margin of 53.20% to 46.80%; and

WHEREAS, The VA stated that if Proposition 61 had passed it would have cost the VA an additional $3.8 billion per year in increased drug prices and administrative costs; and

WHEREAS, There is currently a ballot measure similar to Proposition 61 on the November 2017 ballot in Ohio by the same California proponents of Proposition 61; and

WHEREAS, The proponents of these ballot and legislative measures will continue in their efforts to require state and other governmental agencies to pay no more for drugs than what is paid by the VA; and

WHEREAS, These VA price controls were previously tried by Congress in the 1990s and after they proved to be unworkable and they were removed by Congress, and

WHEREAS, If any of these ballot or legislative measures pass, it will undoubtedly require the VA and Department of Defense to raise medication co-payments and/or reduce services based upon current budgetary constraints; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, By the National Executive Committee of The American Legion in regular meeting assembled in Indianapolis, Indiana, on October 11-12, 2017, That The American Legion shall oppose any effort to require any governmental agency to align its drug pricing structure with the Department of Veterans Affairs.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to approve the Resolution No. 12. Are there any questions? All those in favor of adopting Resolution 12, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Resolution 12 carries.

Resolution No. 13: Columbia University Vietnam Veterans Health Study
Origin: Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation Commission
Submitted By: Veterans Affairs & Rehabilitation Commission

WHEREAS, beginning in 1983 The American Legion supported, both financially and through significant volunteer and professional contributions of its staff and membership, the creation and execution of The American Legion – Columbia University Vietnam Veterans Health Study of more than 12,000 randomly selected Legionnaires in five Departments; and

WHEREAS, the first findings, published in the December 1988 issue of the peer-reviewed journal Environmental Research that was devoted entirely to the study, were of pivotal importance in furthering the understanding of both PTSD and Agent Orange effects in Vietnam veterans and establishing treatments and benefits for Vietnam veterans; and

WHEREAS, in 1998 The American Legion continued to provide professional and logistical support to the Columbia University team for a second wave of surveys, this time with the financial support of the US National Academy of Sciences; and
WHEREAS the new survey showed the continuing patterns of PTSD and decline in health of a portion of the American Legionnaires in the study; and

WHEREAS, the Columbia University team in 2017 obtained additional funding from the Department of Veterans Affairs to determine the current location of the original Legionnaire survey sample, and whether they are still alive or deceased and, if deceased the cause of death, for the purpose of updating the data of Agent Orange exposure based on new methods the team has developed; and

WHEREAS, The American Legion – Columbia University Vietnam Veterans Health Study has had a profound impact on both the benefits received by Vietnam veterans and the understanding of the long-term impact on the health and well-being of stressful, possibly toxic military service; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, By the National Executive Committee of The American Legion in regular meeting assembled in Indianapolis, Indiana, on October 11-12, 2017, That The American Legion continue to provide professional and logistical assistance and support for the Columbia University team in its continuing research and outreach to the members of the American Legion and their families who have participated in the earlier studies; and, be it finally

RESOLVED, That The American Legion continue its longstanding collaboration with Columbia University and to help ensure that the team has access to all needed records and research.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE VICE CHAIRMAN KILE: Resolution 13 has the approval of the VA&R Commission, the Subcommittee on Resolutions, and I move for its adoption. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to adopt Resolution 13. Are there any questions? Hearing none, all those in favor of Resolution, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. 13 carries.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE VICE CHAIRMAN KILE: Resolution 14 has the approval of the VA&R Commission, the Resolutions Subcommittee, and I move for its adoption. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to adopt Resolution 14. Are there any questions? All those in favor of approving Resolution 14, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. 14 is carried.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE VICE CHAIRMAN KILE: Attached to the report is Addendum A, and I move the actions of your VA&R Commission become the actions of the NEC. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded that the Addendum A become the actions of the NEC. Are there any questions? All those in favor, say aye. Opposed, same sign. Addendum A is carried. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I now call on Chairman Walter Ivie from Texas, Media & Communications Commission.
Thank you, Commander Rohan, members of the National Executive Committee, staff, and guests. You have my written report so I will keep my comments brief.

I want to start by sharing some good news. We all recognize the quality of the articles, photos, and advertisements in The American Legion Magazine, but do you know how we compare to other magazines? Every year, an independent audit asks readers if they have read at least three of the previous four issues of their magazine, and if they have read each of the past four issues of their magazine. In both cases, The American Legion Magazine has the highest percentage of readership among roughly 200 U.S. magazines. Not only that, we are the only magazine to have at least seven out of every ten readers say they have read each of the past four magazines. (Applause)

At the same time, our digital audience continues to grow. We saw an explosion of growth in key metrics after the major web redesign was launched 18 months ago. Today, we are still seeing steady increases in page views, unique visitors, and mobile visitations.

Moving to the financial numbers, the Media & Communications Division is running slightly ahead of budget in advertising sales and below budget in total expenses. It's worth noting that our ad sales for the national website are ahead of last year and could break the all-time record set in 2014. Overall, the division is poised to finish 2017 in a surplus position.

Now, staff members are working hard to promote the national commander's vision for November 11, a special Family First Veterans Day dinner across the United States and beyond. Legion post, units, squadrons, and chapters are all encouraged to engage their communities on this day to honor veterans and unite as a family. I'll mention that we have the beginnings of the kit with the reference information on it on the tables out back, if you want to make sure you take one with you today. Guests could include National Guard units, police officers, firefighters, city government officials, homeless veterans, and others who share The American Legion's values. Resources, including materials to plan and hold the event, are available in the publication pages of the national website, again, referenced on the handout.

Additionally, we recently wrapped up coverage of how American Legion members and posts rallied in the wakes of Hurricane Harvey and Irma. Legionnaires led roles in the recovery after these natural disasters, offering aid and assistance, including National Emergency Fund grants.

As The American Legion continues to fight hard to keep its membership numbers up, it's important to know what the Legion means to its communities across the nation. Bob Grinnis knows what his Legion Post No. 11 in Arcadia, Florida means to local veterans and community members alike. As he surveyed his post, which was inundated by floodwaters, Grinnis proclaimed, "I'm not going to let this place close. I refuse."

Commander Rohan, I'm inspired by Mr. Grinnis' words and determination. Amid the floodwaters, he sees how important it is to work to rebuild the post to serve his community. We, too, must be able to work to rebuild our declining membership so that we can serve veterans in all communities across these great United States.

Commander, I want to again thank the staff of the Media & Communications Division for their hard work and the great results they have accomplished. That concludes my report. Thank you for your continued support of our media program, outreach, and branding.
The mission of The American Legion Media & Communications Commission continues to evolve in a fast-paced year of improved news coverage, revitalized digital media, increased brand awareness, expansive external outreach and promotion of the organization, its programs, stances and initiatives.

The print, electronic, social and external media channels handled by the Media & Communications team are faring extremely well in comparison with others in the industry. Most notably, American Legion Magazine continues to be the best-read magazine out of roughly 200 U.S. titles surveyed by independent auditor GfK MRI Doublebase. In fact, Legion Magazine is the only U.S. magazine that has at least 7 of every 10 readers saying they have read each of the most recent four issues.

In addition to the magazine, staff members have zeroed in on several key areas instrumental to the Legion’s continued success.

Staff is working hard to promote National Commander Denise H. Rohan’s vision for November 11 — a special Family First Veterans Day Dinner across the United States. Legion posts, units, squadrons and chapters are all encouraged to engage their communities on this day to honor veterans and unite as a family. Guests could include National Guard units, police officers, firefighters, city government officials, homeless veterans and others who share The American Legion’s values.

The Media & Communications Division has distributed information in print and digital forms on what post leaders should know about the Family First dinner. Resources, including materials to plan and hold the event, are available at www.legion.org.

Another area of concentration for the division is The American Legion’s 100th Anniversary. Division staff members are actively involved in all aspects of the planning and execution of the program. Right now, the staff is working on developing a mobile-friendly centennial website that will not only provide a better user experience but broaden the offerings available for truly celebrating the Legion’s first 100 years.

Additionally, more Every Department Has a Story placemats are being wrapped up. Staff members are working with departments with the goal of finished each department by the time the centennial celebration kicks off at next year’s convention.

Staff members are also working with NALPA, other internal and external groups to solidify The American Legion’s branding strategy. For example, staff members are providing stories, speeches, ad slicks, videos, PSAs and other materials for department and post public relations volunteers that can be used in their media.

Other activities and projects under way by the division include online training materials and programs, media workshops and physical displays, including The American Legion float at the New York City Veterans Day Parade.

Meanwhile, print advertising sales are slightly above the goal. For the print and digital media assets – which include The American Legion Magazine, Dispatch, the National Convention Guide, www.Legion.org and e-newsletters such as The American Legion Online Update – are over budget by $19,349, to date, at just over $8 million.

Through 10 issues, magazine advertising sales are down nearly $150,000, which is significantly better than last year at this time when sales trailed the budget by nearly $500,000. Ad sales for The American Legion national website are pacing to close the year around $240,000, which would be higher than last year and just off the 2014 total, which was the highest ever recorded. The American Legion Online Update is more than $13,500 over budget for ad sales in 2017.

The M&C area continues to benefit from reduced paper prices and from stable U.S. Postal Service rates, which are expected to continue through the end of the year. Paper costs are significantly ($148,000) below budget for the year. Meanwhile, postage expenses ($73,700) and printing costs ($23,400) are also below budget for the year. The division expects to end the year with a budget surplus.

All those in favor, please signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Carried. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I now call on Chairman Richard Anderson from Connecticut for the Americanism Commission report.

Oral Report: Americanism Commission
Richard W. Anderson, Connecticut, Chairman

Commander Rohan, members of the National Executive Committee, national officers, and esteemed guests, good afternoon to all of you.

The Americanism Commission and its Committee on Children and Youth would like to thank the Finance Commission and this body for having previously approved the resolution titled, "Restructure of the Temporary Financial Assistance Statement of Policy." We firmly believe that restructuring this policy will not only serve to significantly enhance fiscal administration and efficiency of the program but, more importantly, it allows a greater opportunity for touching the lives and sharing the TFA benefit among a more sizable number of children in need.

The Americanism Commission congratulates the Department of North Carolina, the City of Shelby, host American Legion Post 82, and the hundreds of volunteers who made this year's American Legion World Series another resounding success. The Americanism Commission was proud to report to the Marketing Commission, and now to this body, that total viewership of the World Series this year on ESPNU far eclipsed that of last year. Total viewership of all the games totaled 605,000. That is approaching almost double the 316,000 viewership from last year. The commission was also very pleased to learn that ESPNU elected to subsequently rebroadcast two games of the World Series, one of which was the national championship game, something that was never done before. The viewership of those two rebroadcasts totaled 107,000.

Operation Comfort Warriors, in coordination with endeavors of the VA&R Commission, has been engaged in providing grants to VA medical centers across the country. This year's OCW has fulfilled 24 grants that provided $144,000 in comfort items to the wounded, injured, and ill veterans and servicemembers, with additional grants continuing to be developed for fulfillment before the end of the year. Those forthcoming grants will likely include support for patients in military and veteran health-care facilities located in hurricane- and fire-ravaged areas.

When it comes to fostering and perpetuating a 100 percent Americanism, The American Legion is in a key position to carry that message forward. How? Simply put, lead by example. So many American principles have come under attack: Prayer has been taken from our schools; the flag of the United States remains unprotected from acts of physical desecration, and the Flag Code is, at times, set aside; references to God are challenged by the ACLU and other like-minded groups, as just a very few examples.

Our challenge, to serve as steadfast and clear examples to our local communities of what it means to foster and perpetuate 100 percent Americanism: Actually bring that to life by teaching youth about American values; helping new citizens assimilate into one American culture; teaching veteran appreciation and flag etiquette in our schools; fostering patriotism; upholding respect for the rule of law; and practicing good citizenship by getting out to vote, to name only a few.

At the conclusion of my oral remarks, you will be considering resolutions from the Americanism Commission. One that I and the commission are proud to bring before this body is Resolution No. 1, "Reaffirmation for a Strong America." It calls for unity and respect. Unity and respect of this nation, unity and respect of what she stands for, and unity and respect of each other as Americans. Should this resolution receive the approval of this body, the commission urges everyone to take this back to their departments.

This is a resolution meant not to be filed away in an archive somewhere. I'm very passionate about this, I have to tell you. Somebody's got to stand up in this country sooner or later, and it's got to be The American Legion; it starts right in this room, today. As chairman of the commission, we delved into this resolution to quite some detail. Our staff, under the direction of Jill Druskis and others, put together this resolution because it stands for who we are and what we represent. As I stated in my remarks, do not bring this home and put it somewhere. Put it on your websites, get it out to the membership of our country and, above all, get it out to the citizens of our nation. Our society is being torn apart and it's time that we did something about it. (Applause)

It cannot be disputed that we are a nation of diverse people having diverse perspectives, but I am confident that coming together as Legionnaires and especially as proud Americans alike, that a 100 percent Americanism will prevail.

Commander Rohan and members of the National Executive Committee, this concludes my report. Thank you very much.

Report: Americanism Commission
Richard W. Anderson, Connecticut, Chairman
October 9-10, 2017

The Americanism Commission met at the Sheraton Hotel City Centre in Indianapolis, Indiana, on Monday and Tuesday, October 9-10, 2017. The meeting convened at 9:00 a.m. and roll call taken. Following opening remarks, the minutes from the pre-convention commission meeting held on August 27, 2016 in Cincinnati, Ohio, were approved.

AMERICANISM CONFERENCE

In September 2017 the annual national Americanism Conference included sessions for Boys State and Girls State directors; department Baseball, Oratorical, Junior Shooting Sports, and children & youth chairmen; and department chaplains. Conference sessions were held at the Sheraton Hotel City Centre in Indianapolis, Indiana. Over 350 program volunteers came together to share in training, brainstorming and networking within their respective conference sessions that will assist them with conducting the programs in their own departments for the coming year. The annual department Scouting chairmen’s conference this year will be held at the Boy Scouts of America’s Scouting U Westlake (TX) campus on October 28-29, 2017.

CHILDREN & YOUTH

The Committee on Children & Youth met on Monday, October 9, 2017, in the Ohio Room, 21st Floor of the Sheraton Indianapolis City Centre Hotel. The Committee received updates on programs of The American Legion Endowment Fund Corporation and grants awarded by the American Legion Child Welfare Foundation. Having been assigned the resolution entitled War On Drugs Poster Contest by the Americanism Commission, the Committee on Children & Youth reviewed, discussed, and directed staff to conduct further research for review and discussion at the next committee meeting. The committee also gave additional discussion to its favorable concurrence of the resolution entitled Restructure of the Temporary Financial Assistance Statement of Policy. The Secretary of the American Legion Endowment Fund Meagen Sweet (IN) provided an update on the fund. Earnings from the endowment provide funds for the Temporary Financial Assistance (TFA) program and Department Service Officers (DSO) schools.

Vice President of the American Legion Child Welfare Foundation (CWF), Peggy Moon, provided the Children & Youth Committee with an update. Now in its 63rd year, CWF has awarded $636,467 to twenty-eight non-profit organizations for the 2018 calendar year. These grants were determined during the annual meeting of the board of directors, held at the Sheraton Hotel City Centre in Indianapolis, Indiana, on Sunday, October 8, 2017.

The 11th annual national Children & Youth Conference was held September 15-17, 2017, at the Sheraton Hotel City Centre in Indianapolis. This conference segment shared training, information and networking to 89 Legion family representatives of 38 departments. Attendees heard two Samsung American Legion scholarship awardees and two organizations having received a 2016 American Legion Child Welfare Foundation grant – each shared the positive impact that The American Legion had upon them. Presentations and updates were provided on: The American Legion Strategic Plan for Sustained Membership Growth by M&PA Chairman Randy Goodman; Legacy & Vision of The American Legion: Children & Youth by Division Director Jeff Stoffer; troop and family support programs by Assistant Director Bruce Drake; and reports were received from the national children & youth chairmen of the American Legion Auxiliary and Sons of The American Legion. Training on the Temporary Financial Assistance program and application process was provided by Assistant Director Meagen Sweet.

AMERICAN LEGION BASEBALL

The American Legion Baseball Committee met Sunday, September 24, 2017, at the Sheraton Indianapolis City Centre Hotel, in conjunction with the 57th annual American Legion Baseball Chairmen’s Conference. During the chairman’s conference, congratulations were extended to the Department of Nevada for laying claim to the championship team of the 2017 American Legion Baseball World Series when the team sponsored by Post 40 in Henderson, Nevada, took the series in Shelby, North Carolina in August.

A recap of the 2017 season was given by Assistant Director Steve Cloud, noting that although there was still an overall decline of teams in 2017, that 80% of that decline was attributed to only five departments.
Assistant Director of Baseball Promotions, Jeremy Field provided a recap of the website and social media activity during the playing season and at the World Series: the national baseball website is trending towards 3 million visits this year, with over 900,000 of those during the month of August. American Legion Baseball Facebook and Twitter accounts reach over one million views combined. Total viewership on ESPN U for the nine televised games was over 600,000, with 91,000 tuning in for Championship Tuesday. Additionally, a later replay of the championship game and a semi-final game on ESPNU had over 100,000 total viewers.

The American Legion Baseball Committee has formed a working committee to explore getting younger youth participating in the program, and assigned that as a discussion topic at one of the department chairmen’s breakout caucus sessions during the baseball conference.

Upon adjournment of the Baseball Department Chairmen’s Conference, the American Legion Baseball Committee convened. The Baseball Committee made recommendation to the Americanism Commission that Brian Duensing of the Chicago Cubs be awarded the 2018 American Legion Baseball Graduate of the Year. Duensing played Legion baseball for American Legion Millard South Post 374 in Nebraska for four seasons and contributes financially to the post’s baseball program annually.

The committee made recommendation to the Americanism Commission to change Rule 1.G. Courtesy Runners so as to allow senior teams to use courtesy runners during regular season only; change Rule 1.S. Re-entry Rule so as to allow senior teams to us re-entry during regular season only; and adopt 7 inning games for state, regional and World Series tournament play, allowing departments the option of playing 9 inning games during the regular season. The committee recommended rejection of proposed rule changes pertaining to dual participation and changing high school enrollment numbers, giving consideration to feedback from department chairman. The committee concluded with a thorough review of the 2018 American Legion Baseball rulebook and national tournament rules and policies, with all editorial changes to receive final review by the committee chairman prior to publishing.

AMERICAN LEGION BOYS STATE

A total of 19,139 young men participated in the 49 American Legion Boys State programs during 2017, reflecting an overall decrease of 421 participants from the previous year; there were 583 no shows this year – although that reflects a slight decrease, still a very concerning number.

The 82nd annual conference of American Legion Boys State directors was held September 22-24, 2017, as a conference session of the annual national combined Americanism Conference. Past National Commander and Boys Nation staff member Robert Turner (GA) served as conference chairman. This conference segment shared information and provided networking opportunities for 165 Boys State directors and Legion family representatives of 40 departments. Attendees heard a panel discussion of topics that included fundraising, recruiting program participants, and membership initiatives. Attendees also received presentations on: enhancements to the online application process for the Samsung American Legion scholarship by Assistant Director Tyler Mitchell; introduction of a new Boys State media kit by Division Director James Baca; and a variety of information sharing/best practices presentations by Connecticut, Kentucky, Wisconsin, New Jersey, Missouri, South Carolina, Florida and Texas American Legion Boys State programs. Conference attendees were challenged to re-focus upon the goal of a national participation level of 20,000 delegates, and to continue to re-double their efforts to reduce the number of no-shows.

Congratulations were extended to the Department of Alabama for the election of Darius Thomas as the 2017 American Legion Boys Nation president.
The Committee on Youth Education met on October 7-8, 2017, in Panorama B, 21st floor of the Sheraton Indianapolis City Centre Hotel. The Committee selected and recommends the following students as recipients of 2017 Samsung American Legion Scholarships as follows:

YOUTH CADET LAW ENFORCEMENT

The Youth Law Enforcement Committee (YCLE) met on October 9, 2017, at the Sheraton Indianapolis City Centre Hotel. This meeting included review of the 18 August, 2017, committee meeting that took place during national convention in Reno, Nevada; review and updates to the YCLE strategic plan; and discussion of YCLE department classification. Points of emphasis during this committee meeting included: program growth in the number of participating departments; achieving department participation to a level to support achieving national-level program status, wherein development of a national capstone event can begin, akin to what Boys Nation is to Boys State; developing additional program resources; and undertaking greater awareness for the program. Three more departments have expressed interest in receiving more information and support for starting a program.

JUNIOR SHOOTING SPORTS

The 3rd annual Junior Shooting Sports Chairmen’s Conference was held September 15-17, 2017, at the Sheraton Indianapolis City Centre Hotel, Indianapolis, Indiana. Loren Sperry (WA) served as the Junior Shooting Sports Program Conference chairman. Eleven departments were represented by either their Junior Shooting Sports chairperson or designee; there were 15 attendees present. Conference topics presented and discussed included: review of the 2017 national championships by Shayne Abrahams (IN), Assistant Director, Americanism Division; Department Spotlight and Best Practices by Loren Sperry (WA); a fundraising presentation from Patrick Myers of US Coin Boards LLC; and an update on the planning and arrangements for the 2018 national championships by Shayne Abrahams, Assistant Director, Americanism Division (IN).

The Departments of Colorado and Illinois each received congratulations for precision shooter Emily Stith (CO) and sporter shooter Hailey Smith (IL) having captured national wins in their respective categories of The American Legion’s Junior 3-Position Air Rifle Championship at the Olympic Training Center’s USA Shooting Range in Colorado Springs, Colorado, this past July.

ORATORICAL

The 48th annual national department Oratorical chairmen’s conference was held September 23-24, 2017, at the Sheraton Indianapolis City Centre Hotel, Indianapolis, Indiana. Forty-two departments were represented by either their oratorical chairperson or designee; there were 56 attendees present. Oratorical conference topics included presentations from the National Christian Forensics and Communication Association and the National Speech and Debate Association, and information sharing about program fundraising from U.S. Coin Boards. Refresher training on contest procedures was provided by Assistant Director Shayne Abrahams, as well as an update on the planning and arrangements for the 2018 national contest.

TROOP & FAMILY SUPPORT

Assistant Director Bruce Drake reported that over 100,000 active duty, reserve and national guard servicemembers continue to deploy throughout the world supporting Global War on Terror missions and in response to unprecedented disaster response efforts within the United States and its territories. Family Support Network programs in departments are encouraged to be very proactive in reaching out and providing assistance to those military families at home who are affected by deployments.

During calendar year 2017 to date, Operation Comfort Warriors (OCW) has achieved $514,337 in donations. During the last ten months, OCW has fulfilled 24 grants that’s provided $144,000 in purchased items to wounded, injured and ill veterans and servicemembers, with additional grants continuing to be developed with expectation for fulfillment before the end of the year, including possible grants for veterans and military health care facilities in hurricane-ravaged areas.

National Chaplain Robert Vick (FL) led the conference segment. Twenty-three departments were represented by 36 Legion Family chaplains in attendance.

The chaplains received a presentation from The American Legion’s Social Media Manager Steve Brooks about social media engagement, and discussions about how chaplains may recruit and retain members of the Legion Family, the Four Chaplain’s Service, and FROG (Fully Rely On God) were led by National Chaplain Vick. Immediate Past National Chaplain Harvey Klee (TX) provided his year-end report, and the chaplains then took opportunity to review The American Legion Chaplain’s Handbook for updates and revision.

FLAG ETIQUETTE

During these Fall meetings, the Americanism Commission reaffirmed its position of the following:

- Once an unserviceable flag has been burned in an Unserviceable Flag Ceremony, it should no longer be considered the flag and the remaining ashes no longer considered with the same reverence and respect as an intact flag.
- Half-staffing of the United States flag should be exercised judiciously to help lessen the risk for public complacency and desensitization as to the solemn reason and meaning for its half-staff.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE MEMBER BOLAND: Commander, may I have a point of privilege?

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Yes.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE MEMBER BOLAND: At this time I'd like to call Past National Commander Charles Schmidt to the podium.

Commander Schmidt, it was a pleasure last year to serve as your president of the board of directors of the Child Welfare Foundation. At our national convention you were doing your job and had one of your national vice commanders take the podium. At that time, I was giving out awards and I didn't have the honor to present you with a five-diamond lapel pin of The American Legion Child Welfare Foundation. Thank you. Under your tutelage, we raised over $886,000, and Sunday night we gave out $636,000 to 28 children's organizations. Thank you so much.

(Past National Commander Schmidt: Thank you, Mr. Chairman, for this kind award, but I feel like I didn't deserve it because it wasn't me that raised the money, of course; it was all of you and all of your folks in your departments to take care of youth of America. It's fantastic that all of the new grants that you've given out that are going to help some children, the future of our country. That's what we do. By the way, taking care of children is just one of the many things that our American Legion does. Thank you so much, Dennis. (Applause)

Operation Comfort Warriors Donations

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: If anyone has donations for Operation Comfort Warrior or other contributions, to come forward, please.

...National Vice Commander Marcouillier assumed the chair.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: Thank you, commander. The Department of Massachusetts is proud to be here to present to you one check from the Blues for Veterans Association, it's an organization in Woburn, Mass, who puts on a blues program, and I have a check for the Comfort Warriors for $3,000; the Widows Sons of Stonecutters chapter from Easthampton, Mass, for the Legacy Fund $200; the Department of Massachusetts general fund, Legacy Fund, $800; and The American Legion Riders Chapter 118 of Cohasset, Massachusetts, $1,500. So there's about $3,300 here that I'm proud to present to all of you. (Applause)

With me is my NEC and my alternate, it's always a pleasure to have them here to present with me. Thank you.
PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER KOUTZ: Thank you, commander. As I always say, thanks for all your work you do for Operation Comfort Warriors. Let's keep this program going. I have a few donations here this afternoon. The first one is from American Legion Riders Post 500, for Zach's Ride, it's an annual ride we have every year, $12,752; American Legion Riders Post 42 in Floyds Knobs, Indiana, they had a ride for $2,500; David, Matt, and Sandra Hicks from Gary, Indiana, a $25 check. I always have a table at our fall conference that we just concluded in Indiana Sunday that I sell a few items that I get, it was $141. Streetsboro American of Streetsboro, Ohio, gave me a check for $300. They had a concert that got shortened out by rain, so that's all they made this year, but they said they'd be sure to have more than that next year. Cicero American Legion 351 Riders, they have a Battle Ride, this year is the third year for the Battle Ride. They'll have a check in the morning, because we thought it was tomorrow, for $4,500; and then a check for the Indianapolis Northside Harley-Davidson for $500. So that's a total of $20,718 for Operation Comfort Warriors. (Applause)

NEC MEMBER MOORE (MI): Well, Madam Commander, once again, the Great State of Michigan and Commander Brett Holt. It's my pleasure to present, on behalf of the membership in Michigan, a check for $680 to the national Legacy Scholarship Fund; and another check for $2,500 to The American Legion Endowment Fund. (Applause)

...National Commander Rohan resumed the chair.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: Commander, at this time I'm going to reread Resolution No. 21 under Rule 8A. Let the record show it is 1:52 p.m., which complies with the four-hour interval.

Origin: Subcommittee on Resolutions

Submitted By: Subcommittee on Resolutions

WHEREAS, The 21st Century Ad Hoc Committee reported to the National Executive Committee, October 15-16, 1997, its findings and recommendations were six resolutions being approved by the National Executive Committee in May 1998; and

WHEREAS, The 21st Century Report was developed to study the future needs of the veterans for which The American Legion could adapt its programs and activities as we entered the 21st century; and

WHEREAS, The American Legion has in place many programs designed to meet the basic needs of those who are currently or have recently served, and their families, through programs to include, but not limited to, Family Support Network and Temporary Financial Assistance, but there remain other challenges faced by the current generation of veterans related to multiple deployments, serious injuries incurred during combat and reintegration to civilian society; and

WHEREAS, The original 21st Century Report of The American Legion focused on those that were serving in the U.S. Armed Forces in 1998; and

WHEREAS, Since 1998, the United States military has been involved in the Global War on Terrorism being fought on multiple fronts simultaneously and there is currently no indication our U.S. military involvement will diminish; and

WHEREAS, Post-911 veterans and military servicemembers today represent a more diverse demographic group than those serving when the original 21st Century Report was developed; and

WHEREAS, This resolution establishes an ad hoc committee to determine when and what actions could be taken to ensure a productive outcome for the future of The American Legion; and

WHEREAS, The Finance Commission has reviewed this resolution and supports not to exceed $100,000 to cover expenses for this 21st Century Ad Hoc Committee; now, therefore, be it
RESOLVED, By the National Executive Committee of The American Legion in regular meeting assembled in Indianapolis, Indiana, on October 11-12, 2017, That the national commander is directed to create a committee to review the 21st Century Report and update for current and future needs to move the organization forward; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That the budget to support this effort will not exceed $100,000, without additional approval from the National Executive Committee; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That the members of this ad hoc committee be made up of a diverse group of veterans of varying ages and different ethnic and gender backgrounds; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That the committee will consist of no more than ten Legionnaires, not including the chairmen of the Internal Affairs Commission, the Membership & Post Activities Committee and the 100th Anniversary Observance Committee who will serve as ex-officio members; and, be it finally

RESOLVED, That upon completion of the committee meetings, a final report will be submitted to the National Executive Committee.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: Commander, this resolution has the approval of the Subcommittee on Resolutions. I move for its adoption. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to adopt Resolution 21. Are there any questions?

NEC MEMBER ROY (NH): Yes, Commander. Just on the timeline, it says the final report. What is the timeline on this ad hoc committee?

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: I believe it's anticipated that, hopefully by this time next year, there would be a final report. Are there any other questions? All those in favor of Resolution No. 21, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Resolution No. 21 carries. Mr. Comer?

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: May I approach the podium?

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Please.

PAST NATIONAL COMMANDER COMER: Since this is going into announcements, I thought it very important that we make this announcement to the NEC. I've asked the staff to put a copy of this announcement and report on your desk for tomorrow morning. It was presented to the Commanders Advisory Committee and I was very, very impressed, and I'm sure you will be. It's about the best places to work as a nonprofit.

"Whether you're a volunteer or a paid professional, working for a nonprofit can be highly rewarding. But which of them are giving their employees the very best experience while empowering them to serve their community? Our data science team crunched the numbers in Indeed's 15 million strong reviews databases to find out. Let's take a look at the answers."

Out of the hundreds, and I mean hundreds of companies throughout the United States, the Bureau of Labor Statistics have come up with 15 companies that are the best place to work. Number 1, the Habitat for Humanity; number 2, AARP; 3, Boys and Girls Club of America; 4, Boy Scouts of America; 5, Communities in Schools; 6, YMCA; 7, The American Legion. (Applause)

The only veterans' organization on the list. 8, the YWCA; 9, the Salvation Army; 10, Easter Seals; 11, Girl Scouts of the U.S.A.; 12, Teach for America; 13, the American Red Cross; 14, Planned Parenthood; and 15, PRIDE Industries.

Under the item for The American Legion, "The American Legion, Incorporated, is a U.S. wartime veterans organization formed in Paris on February 16, 1919, by three officers of the American Expeditionary Forces. The American Legion was chartered by the U.S. Congress on September 16, 1919, and is headquartered in Indianapolis, Indiana, and has a legislative office in Washington, D.C. The Legion played the leading role in the drafting and passing of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, otherwise known as the 'GI Bill.'

"In addition to organizing commemorative events, volunteer veterans operating through The American Legion support activities and provide assistance at Veterans Administration hospitals and clinics. The Legion is active in issue-oriented United States politics. Its primary political activity is lobbying on behalf of interests of veterans and servicemembers, including support for veterans benefits such as pensions and the Veterans Health Administration."

We should be very, very proud of this article that's gone throughout the United States, and that's why I read all that other people are going to be reading about you, The American Legion. Thank you. (Applause)

NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Thursday, October 12, 2017

...At 8:30 a.m., the National Executive Committee reconvened, National Commander Rohan presiding.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Colors of our nation in place, hand salute: One, two. I now call on Chaplain Vick for the invocation.

Invocation
Robert A. Vick, Florida, National Chaplain

Before I pray this morning, I have one thing I'd like to mention to you. Please, those of you in the room who believe like I do and believe that prayer is effective, and that it's not only effective but it's necessary for us to walk closer to the Lord, please pray for the family of Texas Adjutant Bill West. His father-in-law just died. I have an address for Bill and for Petra, his wife. If you'd like to send cards, please see me sometime today when I'm free and I'll give you the address where you can contact Bill with a card or a letter of sympathy. Now bow your heads with me, please.

Father, one of the great things about these meetings is that we have the opportunity not only to do something for You and for the veterans that we represent, but we have the opportunity to get together with friends we haven't seen in a long time and renew acquaintances and make new acquaintances. Father, if everybody in this world would just pick one person that they do not know right now and go to that person and say, "I love you in the Lord and I accept responsibility for you because you are my brother," there would be peace on Earth. How wonderful that would be, because that type of thing spreads. Father, be in our midst today, guide us in our deliberations. May we do only those things that are pleasing to Thee and will praise You because You are worthy of all of our praise. I pray this in the name of my Savior and my soon-coming King. Amen.

Pledge of Allegiance

NATIONAL ADJUTANT WHEELER: You have a quorum.
NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Thank you very much.

Unfinished Business of Preceding Day

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: We'll now go into unfinished business from yesterday, and I'd like to recognize VA&R Chairman Ralph Bozella.

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN BOZELLA: Thank you, commander. Good morning, everybody. As I mentioned yesterday during my report, in accordance with Resolutions 7 and 8 passed at the National Executive Committee meeting this past May, The American Legion will now recognize a VA Physician of the Year award and a VA Healthcare Provider of the Year. We will recognize this annually at our Washington conference. You were sent full nomination packets on June 12, August 7, August 31, and finally, one sent to you by Mr. Wheeler on September 6 asking for your participation in the nomination process.

At this time, it's my great pleasure to submit to this National Executive Committee the recommended winner for VA Physician of the Year, from the Department of Minnesota, Dr. Amy Candy; and the VA Healthcare Provider of the Year, from the Department of Oklahoma Nurse Jillene Sroczynski. A copy of each of their nominations are on your desk for review.

The winning nominees were recommended by our selection committee based on a number of criteria that included the nominee’s ability to make a positive impact on patient care, testaments from the patients, and the quality of the nominators' recommendation. The winning nominees will be notified by National Headquarters and invited to attend our Washington Conference at American Legion expense, where they will receive their award and be treated to a personalized tour of the VA central office in Washington, D.C. Thank you for your attention, and at this time, I submit these nominees for your consideration.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: Commander, I make a motion that the nominees be accepted and approved by the National Executive Committee. ....Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved that these nominees be accepted and approved by this committee. Are there any questions? All those in favor of approving, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Carried. Thank you. I'd now like to recognize Bridget Robinson, the director of our Convention Division, for an announcement.

NATIONAL CONVENTION DIRECTOR ROBINSON: Thank you, commander, I appreciate the time. Good morning, members of the National Executive Committee. My name is Bridget Robinson. As the commander stated, I'm the director of National Convention and Meetings, and I've had the opportunity to work with a young lady for nine and a half years, and that is Ms. Marti Wooden. (Applause)

Marti is retiring after almost 20 years of service to The American Legion, and she's going to earn a new title called "Mimi" and she's going to be taking care of her granddaughter, Sierra, who is five months old. So we wish Marti all the best and thank you, Marti, again for everything you've done. On behalf of my chairman, Chairman Mike Walton, he wanted to extend his apologies. On behalf of the Convention Commission and our entire team, thank you. (Standing applause)

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Marti, on behalf of the entire body, thank you for your 20 years of service. She's got a whole year's worth of stuff to schedule before she goes. Donations from yesterday. National Emergency Fund, $16,164.50; American Legion Charities, $350; Operation Comfort Warriors $18,718; the Legacy Fund, $3,180. Are there any other donations to be turned in?

...National Vice Commander Callies assumed the chair.

ALTERNATE NEC MEMBER BEISCHEL: I have one last donation of $500 for the Legacy Foundation from my Auxiliary at Post 58. (Applause)

...National Commander Rohan resumed the chair.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: I'll now call on Chairman Paul Dillard from Texas for the Veterans Employment & Education Commission report.

Oral Report: Veterans Employment & Education Commission
Paul E. Dillard, Texas, Chairman

Thank you, Commander. Good morning. Commander, Past National Commanders, National Officers, members of the National Executive Committee, and guests, the Veterans Employment & Education Commission met on October 10, 2017, at the Sheraton in Indianapolis, Indiana, for the purpose of considering those matters that have previously been referred for study, considering new resolutions, and a range of other matters. Your subcommittee considered three resolutions from the Veterans Employment & Education Commission. That has been forwarded to you, to the National Executive Committee, for your consideration and approval. You have a copy of my written report, but I would like to highlight a few items.
The commission continues to work closely with businesses, business leaders, and government authorities to help veteran-owned small businesses with certifying opportunities within the federal government. The American Legion applauded the unanimous decision by the Supreme Court for Kingdomware Technologies Corporation, which is a victory for all service-owned small businesses and service-disabled-veteran small businesses that submit reasonable bids for VA contracts. The ruling directed to give preference to veteran small business when procuring contracts for goods and services.

In less than five years, Hiring Our Heroes, a joint venture of The American Legion and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, has helped more than 31,000 veterans, servicemembers and military spouses nationwide find jobs. The U.S. Chamber of Commerce has hosted over 100 hiring events at Legion posts and partnered with The American Legion on over 250 events. These events have resulted in 15 percent of all veterans being employed.

In closing, Commander, I would like to say thank you for the opportunity to serve as your commission chairman and working with the full-time staff in our DC staff office, and that being Executive Director Verna Jones, Director Joe Sharpe, Deputy Director Mark Walker, and Assistant Director John Kamin, Assistant Director Kaitlin Gray, and assistant director Ariel De Jesus, and also working with the staff in the Indianapolis office. I want to thank the Commander and Adjutant for your support for this year. Commander, that completes my report. workforce. We conducted the first systematic study in this area in the mid-1990s, and since then have undertaken numerous initiatives to further facilitate the credentialing of servicemembers and veterans. This includes numerous credentialing roundtables held over the past ten years as well as two highly successful National Credentialing Summits held in 2012 and 2015. Legion staff members have also served on advisory committees, we have worked closely with Congressional leaders and staff to promote legislation that will facilitate the ability of servicemembers and veterans to attain civilian credentials, and we have informed numerous White House initiatives on credentialing.

One of the most compelling takeaways from our work in this area has been that facilitating the credentialing of servicemembers and veterans is a complex issue that involves a multitude of stakeholders. We’ve worked to bring order to this multifaceted issue by convening key groups of stakeholders, and coordinating the development of strategies to overcome the unique barriers to credentialing faced by those whose primary occupational training is gained during military service. Significant progress has been produced by the commendable efforts exerted by a variety of stakeholders. Consequently, The American Legion released a detailed report – “State of Credentialing Report” regarding findings and best practices shared during the Summits. The report summarized the major theme of the Summits to include:

- Ensuring the Quality of Credentials
- Tracking Credentialing Outcomes
- Best Practices and Lessons Learned
- Stakeholders Roles
- Next Steps/Call to Action

The National Veterans Employment & Education Commission is planning on hosting a third Credentialing Summit in February 2018 during Washington Conference. Please note - the problem has always remained the same: Military members gain valuable on-the-job training and certificates during their service that align with civilian job qualifications, but experience difficulty translating them into civilian licenses and certifications. Furthermore, building on the substantive efforts that have already been undertaken to facilitate credentialing of servicemembers and veterans, The American Legion has identified eight opportunities for action. Listed below are the recommended actions:

- Improve the Post-9/11 GI Bill Licensing and Certification Benefit
- Ensure the Quality of Certification Programs
- Ensure the Quality of Non-Traditional Credential Preparation Programs
- Better Identify the Labor Market Demand for Credentials
- Track Credential Attainment Outcomes
- Reduce State Licensure Barriers
- Develop a Repository of Information on Best Practices in Facilitating the Credentialing of Servicemembers and Veterans
- Ensure Military and Veteran Credentialing Interests are Represented in Civilian Workforce Credentialing Initiatives

Cooperation among The American Legion, state governments, private sector employers, institutions of higher learning and the federal government have been crucial to effect the necessary changes in policies and practices to fully recognize the education, training, and experience provided to transitioning veterans. The American Legion will continue to work with the White House, National Governors Association, the National Conference of State Legislatures, government agencies such as the Departments of Defense, Transportation, Energy, Labor, and others, as well as congressional representatives, military training commands, credentialing boards and the private sectors.

Small Business

The American Legion views small business as the backbone of the American economy. It is the mobilizing force behind America’s past economic growth and has given the United States a competitive advantage in the global economy. Small business development will continue to be a major factor in our nation’s economic and national security well-being as we move further into the 21st Century. Reports show that small businesses have generated 65 percent of net new jobs over the past 25 years, and 67 percent following the 2009 recession. Furthermore, there are nearly 28 million small businesses in the U.S. and 99.7 percent of all firms are small businesses. Listed below are several facts regarding veteran business owners according to the Small Business Administration (SBA):

- Veterans are 45 percent more likely to be self-employed
- According to the U.S. census, about 2.4 million, or 1 out of 10 of all U.S. small businesses are veteran-owned
- Veteran-owned small businesses generate over $1.2 trillion in receipts

The American Legion recognizes the benefits of American entrepreneurship, not only for the overall American economy but also for the transitioning servicemember seeking to develop their own business and becoming local job-creators. The American Legion knows that giving veterans the resources they need to start businesses will assist in stimulating the nation’s economic recovery. Veterans, when compared to their civilian counterparts, are more successful at creating a lasting small business. Encouraging and supporting veterans is the first step to recovering from a near 40-year low in entrepreneurship in the United States.

Many veterans channel the skills and leadership ability they develop in the military to starting a business. Having served in the military, there are a fair amount of resources one can take advantage of when establishing a business. Listed below are a few of these resources:

- Small Business Administration (SBA) Veterans Advantage Loan Program
- SBA Operation Boots to Business Training Program
- Women Veterans Igniting the Spirit of Entrepreneurship (V-WISE)
- Entrepreneurship Bootcamp for Veterans with Disabilities (EBV)
- The Bunker – Startup Incubator

The American Legion has been working on expanding the Post-9/11 GI Bill for start-up capital. The process will take the form of a limited capacity lump-sum payment tied to an intensive SBA educational program and counseling. Please note - a longitudinal study would accompany the pilot program to validate the concept. In addition, we are committed to working with SBA’s Office of Veterans Business Development to support and foster the community of veteran small business owners. The American Legion stands behind the concept that to have successful partnerships between the SBA’s Office of Veterans Business Development and small businesses owned by veterans, the following three criteria are paramount:

- Ensuring all federal agencies meet the 3 percent standard Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business utilization;
• Ensuring there are effective programs in place that allow responsible access to capital; and
• Igniting the entrepreneurial spirit within the veteran’s community and to educate them.

The Veterans Benefits, Health Care, and Information Technology Act of 2006 (the “2006 Act,” codified at 38 U.S.C. § 8127) requires the VA to establish annual goals for contracting with Veteran-Owned (VOSB) and Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned (SDVOSB) small businesses. Since the passage of the 2006 Act, the VA had interpreted § 8127 (d) as freeing the Department to employ full and open competition once its VOSB and SDVOSB contracting goals for a given fiscal year had been met. This policy led to several bid protests at the Government Accountability Office (GAO). Although GAO consistently held that the VA was required to follow the Rule of Two regardless of whether it had already met its annual contracting goals, the VA declined to follow GAO’s non-binding recommendations.

On June 16, 2016, the U.S. Supreme Court (Kingdomware Techs. v. United States) ruled that consistent with Public Law 109-461 (38 U.S.C. 8127 and 8128), the VA shall award contracts based upon competition restricted to SDVOSBs or VOSBs when a contracting officer has a reasonable expectation, based on market research, that two or more firms listed as verified in Vendor Information Pages database are likely to submit offers and an award can be made at a fair and reasonable price that offers best value to the United States. This is known as the “VA Rule of Two.”

The American Legion applauded the unanimous ruling by the Supreme Court, which is a victory to all VOSBs and SDVOSBs that submit reasonable bids for VA contracts. The ruling directs to give preference to VOSBs and SDVOSBs when procuring contracts for goods and services. The law gained exposure in 2012 when the plaintiff, Kingdomware Technologies Inc., protested a contract award, citing Public Law 109-461 as the basis. In support of the plaintiff, The American Legion filed an amicus curiae with the Supreme Court, submitting written statements addressing Kingdomware’s concerns. Based upon this ruling, the National Veterans Employment & Education Division recommends that the SBA’s Office of Veterans Business Development create a veterans procurement liaison position in their office to ensure that these procurement goals by the VA and other federal agencies are met consistently.

Recently, a small business bill was introduced in Congress that would close a loophole in 38 USC 8127 procurement requirement and requires VA to set aside the proper amount of contracts for VOSBs and SDVOSBs. Currently, VA obtains its office supplies, janitorial products, and other commodities through government-wide strategic sourcing contracts run by the General Services Administration (GSA). In some categories of these products, VOSBs/SDVOSBs hold few or no contracts. VA is required to work with GSA to increase VOSB/SDVOSB representation on the contracts and veterans must be given all available opportunities to actively pursue the 3 percent standard allotted to SDVOSBs. The American Legion views this bill as having the potential of producing substantial benefits for the VOSB and SDVOSB community.

Lastly, The American Legion continues to work closely with business leaders and government authorities to help veteran-owned small business and increase the role of veteran-owned businesses in communities around the nation. Veterans are natural entrepreneurs. They are disciplined, goal-oriented self-starters. Accustomed to accountability, they know the value of being decisive and flexible. Leveraging the talents of veterans will promote self-employment and will help stimulate the economy. Veterans know the value of veteran employees better than anyone else, and veteran-owned small businesses are one among the best employers of veterans.
The American Legion Small Business Task Force

The American Legion Small Business Task Force sponsored a number of events this year to assist veterans, disabled veterans, Reservists and active-duty military members in obtaining employment, to include starting and growing their own businesses.

- February 24 Washington Conference  Boots to Business Reboot
- August 22 National Convention  Boots to Business Entrepreneurship Course
- August 22 National Convention  Veterans Small Business Summit

During The American Legion’s 99th National Convention in Reno, Nevada, the National Veterans Employment & Education Commission hosted a successful Veteran Small Business Summit to include a Boots to Business: Entrepreneurship Course, a small business development workshop, co-sponsored by the Small Business Administration (SBA) and Syracuse University's Institute for Veterans and Military Families (IVMF). The sessions were open to all veterans, active-duty servicemembers and spouses of servicemembers who shared the goal of launching a sustainable business venture. Over 50 veterans and service members participated in this event. The Boots to Business curriculum included an introduction to entrepreneurship as well as detailed information on SBA resources and private sector support programs designed to aid veterans working with the federal government.

Topics included, but were not limited to:

- Cybersecurity for a Small Business,
- Government Contracting,
- Supplier Diversity,
- Five Habits to Profitability,
- Access to Capital,
- How to Qualify for VA’s Vet First Program; and
- Construction Procurement Bid Opportunities.

Speakers for the Veterans Business Summit included: Representative Mark Amodei (NV); Raymond Milano, Deputy Associate Administrator, Office of Veterans Business Development, SBA; Chris Tande, Small Business Manager, Service Area Office SAOWest, VA; Thomas Martin, Lender Relations Specialist, Nevada SBA District Office, SBA; Kathy Carrico, State Training Director, Nevada Small Business Development Center, SBA; Robert Vermillion, CEO, RMV Technology; Ken Shoemake, President, Stay Safe Solutions; Timothy Devine, President, Aviate Enterprise; Erica Courtney, CEO, 2020vet; Lori Falkenstrom, E23, General Services Administration; Brett Vegeto, Chief of Construction Branch NCO21, National Veterans Business Development Council and Coreena Conley, Executive Director/CEO, Veterans Business Outreach Center.

Participants were able to meet and hear from service providers and industry experts regarding the utilization of SBA lending products and resources for technical assistance. After completing Boots to Business: Entrepreneurship Course, participants have a basic knowledge of how to identify a business opportunity, draft a business plan, and launch their small business. Upon completion, all participants will also be eligible for an 8-week online program sponsored by Syracuse University that will take a deeper dive into entrepreneurship theory and practice.
These events bring a wide array of medium and large businesses, universities, government agencies and veteran groups under one roof. These events provide services or employment opportunities for veterans and their families. The National Veterans Employment & Education Commission is encouraging departments and posts to host these types of events to share the Legion culture and provide tools/knowledge for service members, veterans and their spouses in order for them to succeed in establishing small businesses.

Veteran Homelessness

Current estimates put the number of homeless veterans at approximately 40,000 on any given night, a decline 46 percent (or 33,896 people) since 2009. Between 2009 and 2016, the number of unsheltered veterans decreased by 56 percent (16,891 fewer veterans), and by 39 percent (17,005) among those staying in sheltered locations. Two thirds of homeless veterans (67 percent or 26,404 veterans) were staying in emergency shelters, transitional housing programs, or safe havens, while a third (33 percent or 13,067 veterans) were found in places not suitable for human habitation. Almost all veterans were experiencing homelessness in households without children (97 percent or 38,340 veterans). About 3 percent (1,131) were veterans who were homeless as part of a family.

The number of veterans experiencing homelessness increased in seven states between 2009 and 2016. The largest absolute increases were Hawaii (171 more veterans), Utah (169), South Carolina (109), and Oregon (64). The largest percentage increases were in Utah (102 percent), Vermont (80 percent), Hawaii (34 percent), and Maine (19 percent). The number of veterans experiencing homelessness decreased in 43 states plus the District of Columbia between 2009 and 2016. The largest absolute decreases were in California (8,361 fewer veterans), New York (4,631), Florida (4,233), and Texas (3,723). The largest percentage decreases were in Louisiana (80 percent), New York (79 percent), Kansas (74 percent), and Texas (68 percent). Nationally, 9 percent of homeless adults were veterans, but the proportion varied by state.

Rental assistance and support services provided through HUD-VASH are a critical resource for local communities in ending homelessness among our nation’s veterans. The HUD-VASH program combines Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) rental assistance for veterans experiencing homelessness provided by HUD with case management and clinical services provided by VA. At the local level, the HUD-VASH program operates as a collaborative effort between VA Medical Centers (VAMCs) and local Public Housing Agencies (PHAs). The VAMC identifies veterans who are eligible for the program and refers them to the PHA to receive a HUD-VASH voucher. The PHA provides the rental subsidy, and the VAMC provides case management and clinical services. Since 2008, more than 93,000 vouchers have been awarded.

On August 21, 2017, during The American Legion’s 99th National Convention in Reno, the VA Sierra Nevada Health Care System – Healthcare for Homeless Veterans (HCHV) Facility opened its doors to members of our National Veterans Employment & Education Commission. On the site visit, the commission members met the clients and the organization’s leadership team. The Reno VA has roughly 125 grant and per diem beds and 400 HUD-VASH vouchers for their catchment area. In Reno and Carson City, they hover around 98 percent utilization of the vouchers. HCHV programs serve as the hub for a myriad of housing and other services that provide VA with a way to reach and assist homeless veterans by offering them entry to VA care.

Furthermore, HCHV provides funding to local VA Medical Centers, which contract with community-based agencies, to provide short-term residential treatment to veterans who need an immediate housing placement, even as they seek permanent housing and/or additional care and services. VA personnel stated that outreach is the core of the HCHV program. The central goal is to reduce homelessness among veterans by conducting outreach to those who are the most vulnerable, and not currently receiving services and engaging them in treatment and rehabilitative programs. The VA facility declared that without the amazing assistance from Legion Post 1 in Reno, they couldn’t do all they do to help homeless veterans and their families.

Due to our work with homeless veterans and their families, The American Legion understands that homeless veterans need a sustained coordinated effort that provides secure housing and nutritious meals; essential physical healthcare, substance abuse aftercare and mental health counseling; as well as personal development and empowerment. Veterans also need job assessment, training and placement assistance. The American Legion believes all programs to assist homeless veterans must focus on helping veterans reach their highest level of self-management.

Lastly, The American Legion directly provides housing for homeless veterans and their families, including facilities in Pennsylvania and Connecticut. One of the goals of The American Legion is to help bring federal agencies, nonprofit organizations, faith-based institutions and other stakeholders to the table to discuss best practices, along with funding opportunities, so homeless veterans and their families can obtain the necessary care and help in order for them to properly transition from the streets and shelters into gainful employment and/or independent living.

Employment

The current rate of unemployment in the United States is 4.2 percent. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the unemployment rate for Iraq and Afghanistan veterans is 3.9 percent. The total number of unemployed veterans from the current wars in Iraq and Afghanistan is approximately 131,000, with a total of 309,000 unemployed veterans from all eras. The American Legion has been hosting and participating in Job Fairs since 2007. The main purpose of participation in these Job Fairs is to educate veterans of their benefits, provide veterans outlets for employment and promote The American Legion.

The American Legion participates in approximately 100 Job Fairs a year through our national partnerships. A Hiring Our Heroes Hiring Event was held on Tuesday, August 22, during the National Convention in Reno, Nevada. This event was sponsored by U.S. Chamber of Commerce, along with The American Legion Department of Nevada. The hiring event yielded 25 firm job offers. 40 employers and a total of approximately 56 registered jobseekers attended this event.

In addition, The American Legion has collaborated with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce (USCC), Department of Veterans Affairs, Department of Labor, Veterans’ Employment and Training Service (DOL-VETS), Employer Support for the Guard and Reserve (ESGR), various State Workforce Agencies and various corporate sponsors, in hosting numerous veteran specific Job Fairs across the nation. The ‘Hiring our Heroes’ Initiative seeks to lower the unemployment rate amongst our nation’s veterans by bringing Job Fairs to many of the nation’s underserved communities.

In less than five years, Hiring Our Heroes -- a joint initiative of The American Legion and USCC -- has helped more than 31,000 veterans, servicemembers, and military spouses nationwide find jobs. USCC has hosted over 100 hiring events at Legion Posts and partnered with the Legion on more than 250 others. These events have resulted in 15 percent of all veterans being employed. The American Legion is scheduled to participate in 20 more Career Fairs by the end of the year. Currently, The American Legion is strategizing with USCC staff to identify where the best states and cities are for these events. The location of these events occurring in 2018 will be based upon individual state unemployment rates and places where there are substantial veteran populations. Listed below are the veteran jobseeker demographics:

- 11.1% of the veterans who attended our Hiring Fairs are student-veterans about to graduate
• 55.8% are under 24 years old
• 92% are enlisted and 8 percent are officer
• 82% have been employed for under one-year
• 18% have been employed for over one-year
• 34% reported some college (15% reported a bachelor’s degree and 2% reported a master’s degree or higher)

Several Department Highlights:
• Department of Illinois – held 1 Job Fair affiliated with the DOL
• Department of New Jersey – held 6 Job Fairs, 3 affiliated with the state of New Jersey with U.S. Chamber of Commerce
• Department of New Mexico – Held 1 Job Fair affiliated with the Department of New Mexico
• Department of Puerto Rico – held 1 Job Fair with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce
• Department of Texas – held 1 Job Fair affiliated with Department of Labor (DOL), 1 during the state convention, 1 during Fall Conference, and 1 with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce
• Department of Virginia – Held 1 Job Fair in conjunction with their state convention

Furthermore, the unemployment rate for veterans who served on active-duty in the U.S. Armed Forces at any time since September 2001 – a group referred to as Gulf War-era II veterans – edged down to 5.1 percent in 2016, the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics reported. The jobless rate for all veterans also edged down over the year to 4.3 percent. About 36 percent of Gulf War-era II veterans had a service-connected disability in August 2016, compared with 22 percent of all veterans.

Highlights from the 2016 data:
• The unemployment rate for male veterans overall was not statistically different from the rate for female veterans in 2016. The unemployment rate for male veterans (4.2 percent) edged down over the year, and the rate for female veterans (5 percent) changed little.
• Among the 453,000 unemployed veterans in 2016, 60 percent were age 45 and over, 36 percent were age 25 to 44, and 4 percent were age 18 to 24.
• Veterans with a service-connected disability had an unemployment rate of 4.8 percent in August 2016, about the same as veterans with no disability.
• Nearly 1 in 3 employed veterans with a service-connected disability worked in the public sector in August 2016, compared with about 1 in 5 veterans with no disability.
• In 2016, the unemployment rate for veterans varied across the country, ranging from 1.8 percent in Indiana to 7.6 percent in the District of Columbia.

Additionally, the National Veterans Employment & Education Division has established a new relationship with JobZone. JobZone is Career Fair organization that caters to active-duty, veterans, National Guard and Reservists. All of the Career Fairs are held on military installations or just outside these installations. JobZone operates within the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia.
Education

On August 16, President Donald Trump signed the “Forever GI Bill” into law. The Forever GI Bill, also called the Harry W. Colmery Veterans Educational Assistance Act of 2017, is named for The American Legion’s past national commander who created the draft of the original GI Bill of Rights in 1944. The legislation was introduced into the House of Representatives July 13th and quickly moved through both chambers of Congress. At the time, American Legion National Commander Charles E. Schmidt praised the legislation. “The signing of the Harry W. Colmery Veterans Educational Assistance Act of 2017 marks a new era for all who have honorably served in uniform. We believe that this legislation, named after a past national commander of The American Legion, will transform America as the original did following World War II.”

This bill improves and extends GI Bill benefits granted to veterans, their surviving spouses and dependents. Listed below are specific improvements of the bill:

- Removes time restrictions to use the GI Bill, enabling future eligible recipients to use their GI Bill benefits for their entire lives as opposed to the current 15-year timeline.
- Simplifies the benefit for future servicemembers by consolidating the GI Bill into a single program, which would reduce the VA’s administrative costs.
- Provides significant increases in GI Bill funding for Reservists and National Guardsmen, dependents, surviving spouses and surviving dependents.
- Provides 100 percent GI Bill eligibility to Post-9/11 Purple Heart recipients.
- Restores eligibility for servicemembers whose school closes in middle of a semester and creates a pilot program that would pay for veterans to take certain high technology courses.
- Corrects a Pentagon deployment authorization that has kept thousands of National Guardsmen and Reservists from accumulating earned education benefits.

The American Legion’s aggressive advocacy along with other VSOs pushed the Forever GI Bill through Congress. Before the bill’s passage, the Legion, in tandem with Student Veterans of America (SVA), conducted a roundtable meeting at our headquarters office in Washington, DC, to discuss how to improve the Post-9/11 GI Bill and better serve the veteran community. The roundtable was called due to publicly voiced disagreements over the past months on the GI Bill as reported by several national publications. This event led to the agreement of the eventual terms within the Forever GI Bill that President Trump signed. The American Legion continues to lead in ensuring veterans have every opportunity to obtain a quality education, and ultimately financial stability.

Conclusion

The National Veterans Employment & Education Commission is fully aware that it would be impossible to carry out its mandates without the active involvement of Posts, Districts, Counties, Departments and individual Legionnaires. We deeply appreciate their continued support and involvement. Chairman Dillard also thanks the National Commander, the National Adjutant, the National Executive Committee, and the staff of both the Washington and Indianapolis offices for the outstanding support and cooperation they have provided during the past year.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: I now call on the chairman of the Subcommittee on Committees, Charles Aucoin, for his report.
Commander, national officers, my colleagues in the NEC, and guests, the future of this organization, The American Legion, lies in your hands, for you have the responsibility of recommending the most qualified members of your departments to serve on various commissions, committees, and councils. We stress this especially on the qualifications of a particular member to serve in the capacity for which you recommend. It's also imperative that those individuals that you appoint understand and are committed to the aims and purposes of The American Legion. It's important that when these members that represent your departments either pass or resign, that you notify the national office so that proper people can be notified.

This committee has reviewed over 1,200 recommendations in the past few days, so you can understand the importance of submitting them by the deadline issued, to give the national commander's executive assistant proper time to prepare the folders for the committee's review. I thank you for your support in this matter. I would like to stress the importance of filling out your forms in their entirety and submitting them by the deadline. I would also ask that you use the electronic template provided to you from National Headquarters. If you have any questions on these appointments, please refer to the new NEC orientation brochure.

Commander Rohan, thank you for the privilege of serving as chairman of this subcommittee and for the qualified people you have assigned to serve with me. I'm pleased at this time to present the members of your Subcommittee on Committees who have assisted all week, and would they please rise and be recognized: Our vice chairman, D. Joseph Jackson, Connecticut; Mary V. Erdman, Arkansas; James Huls, South Dakota; Terry D. Schow, Utah; and Michael Mitrione, Virginia. Thank you, ladies and gentlemen, for all the hard work you put in this week. (Applause)

Commander, your committee met at national headquarters on Sunday, October 8, 2017, and remained in session all day Monday and Tuesday. We held interviews with 55 departments and received their recommendations. On behalf of all the members of the subcommittee, I want to commend the National Executive Committeemen, department commanders and department adjutants for the courteous presentations of their recommendations. Upon completion of the interviews, this report was prepared in rough draft and submitted to the national commander's office for final approval. The report is now being circulated, being placed on your desk. We commend the staff for its excellent work in preparation of this work and especially the national commander's assistant, Debbie Andrews, for her patience and dedication throughout our deliberations. I also commend the members of the subcommittee for their hard work and thank you, commander, and all of those others who helped in the selection of these appointments.

With the list now on your desk, you have the opportunity to look it over. I recommend that we do not take time to read them, there's only about 1,200. Therefore, I move that this report be approved with the exception of any minor corrections that may be required and that the national commander be given authority to make any interim appointments as deemed necessary. Commander, this completes my report. ...Second NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to receive and file the report of the Subcommittee on Committees. Are there any questions? Hearing none, all those in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Carried. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Now call on the final report of the Resolutions Subcommittee.

Final Report of Subcommittee on Resolutions
David O. Warnken, Kansas, Chairman

The resolutions passed in the last two days will be available within a few days on the Digital Archive at archive.legion.org.

I would like to take this time to thank the members of the committee who have done such an outstanding job, who have attended every session and participated in discussion of these resolutions. As I introduce you please, please stand. My special thanks to Vice Chairman Bill Kile of West Virginia; Dennis Boland, Florida; Jim Pisa, Alaska; Marland Ronning, Minnesota; Dennis Haas from Pennsylvania; and our newest member, Robert Liebenow of Oregon. I thank you very much for your dedicated service this week. (Applause)

Our appreciation is also extended to Howard Trace and his staff who have served our committee. I want to thank the document center, directors and chairmen of the commissions and committees on this week's work in order to bring the reports and resolutions to you. During our deliberations, we have met with a number of chairmen and staff who have been very helpful to us in explaining questions we have about the resolutions.

Commander, it is a pleasure to serve as chairman of your Subcommittee on Resolutions. We would like to thank the National Executive Committee in the reporting of the various resolutions. You have been most cooperative, commander. I move that this report be received and filed....Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to receive the final report of the Resolutions Subcommittee. Are there any questions? All those in favor of receiving and filing the final report of the Resolutions Subcommittee, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Thank you. Miscellaneous business and technical motions.

Miscellaneous Business and Technical Motions

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRMAN WARNKEN: I would like to make a technical motion that the national adjutant be instructed to review the minutes of the NEC meeting and make any necessary corrections without changing the intent of the National Executive Committee meetings and to proceed and edit and distribute these minutes. ...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded for the adjutant to make any technical amendments. Are there any questions? All those in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Thank you.

...National Vice Commander Stephenson assumed the chair.

Closing Remarks
Denise H. Rohan, Wisconsin, National Commander

Good morning again. Yesterday I asked you all to have a great meeting, and I think that we did. So many of you, including those who are watching on the Internet, notice that I'm struggling with my voice, and I want to thank everybody for all of your suggested cures and remedies. Still working on it, though. (Laughter)

But you know who has not lost their voice? This great American Legion Family; we have not lost our voice. Now, last night we issued a new resolution, Resolution No. 1. A news release was put out. It was a reaffirmation for a strong America. It was also a reaffirmation of The American Legion. It's who we are and who we have always been: Patriotic veterans who love America. We are not against anyone. We are for America and we are for Americanism, and we stand by, ready to protect the land that we love.

We have also improved our Temporary Financial Assistance programs. We discussed our legislative victories. Now that the commemorative coin bill has passed, we begin the marketing phase. I know that I can count on you to promote these historic and rare collectibles at every opportunity. Finally, I really look forward to visiting your departments. I have been inspired by so many of the departments that I've already visited, and I know that what I see is just really a snapshot of what's going on in your departments each and every day.

Let's keep those that are impacted by our natural disasters in our thoughts and our prayers, and continue to support them as we always have in the past. Please remember to open your Legion homes and invite everyone over for Veterans Day. I hope you have a safe trip home and God bless each and every one of you. Thank you. (Standing applause)

...National Commander Rohan resumed the chair.

RESOLUTIONS SUBCOMMITTEE VICE CHAIRMAN KILE: Commander, a motion to receive and file the report of the remarks of National Commander Denise Rohan.

...Second.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: It's been moved and seconded to accept that final report. Are there any questions? All those in favor, signify by saying aye. Opposed, same sign. Is there any other business to come before this meeting? I call on National Chaplain Robert Vick for the benediction. Uncover.

Benediction
Robert A. Vick, Florida, National Chaplain

Father, this has been a learning experience for some of us, and it has been a reaffirmation of our commitment to You and to our veterans for all of us. Father, we have learned many new things, met many new people. I pray that these are friendships that last, fellowships that last, and I pray that everybody here considers everyone else their brother and their sister and they commit to being their brother's keeper.

Father, I commit this audience to You and to Your grace, to Your mercy, to Your salvation. As we travel home, give us traveling mercies; protect us, Father, from the evils in this world. And God, my Savior, bless America for the sake of those people in this country who still love You and still serve You and still believe that America is the greatest country on earth, the country that was founded on the principles of Your word. And this has not changed, even though some in our midst have changed.

Forgive us our sins, father. Stay close to us, give us Your peace, and God bless our veterans, deployed and retired, and especially those who need Your help for physical and mental help. I pray this prayer in that name that's above all names. Amen.

NATIONAL COMMANDER ROHAN: Cover. With the colors of our nation in place, hand salute: Two. I now declare this meeting of the National Executive Committee adjourned.

...At 9:14 a.m., Thursday, October 12, 2017, the National Executive Committee meeting of The American Legion was adjourned. Sine die.
