SECOND NATIONAL CONVENTION
OF
THE AMERICAN LEGION
Cleveland, Ohio
September 27, 28, 29, 1920

Resolution No. 106: National Commander may Call Together the Department Adjutants for Conferences
Origin: Minnesota
Submitted by: Convention Committee on Department Organization
(As Amended)

RESOLVED, By The American Legion in National Convention assembled in Cleveland, Ohio, September 27, 28, 29, 1920, That the national commander may at his discretion and as he deems necessary, call together the several department adjutants for conferences, and make the necessary appropriation to cover their expenses.