Resolution No. 303: Law and Order
Origin: California
Submitted by: Convention Committee on National Security
(As amended)

WHEREAS, Lawless elements in our society have seen fit to destroy portions of property owned by the citizen of the United States of American and endangering the lives of all those within the realm of such destruction; and

WHEREAS, The laws against sedition and treason as set forth in the constitution of our country are not being enforced to the fullest extent in which they were intended; and

WHEREAS, This desecration of our legislative halls has brought shame and this honor upon our beloved land; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, By the American Legion in National Convention assembled in Houston, Texas, August 31, September 1, 2, 1971, That the President of the United States of America use the prestige and power of his office to insure the maximum efforts of the investigating agencies, law enforcement agencies, and the judiciary, in the name of the citizens of this great nation, to bring to justice these criminal violators and to prevent reoccurrence of the perpetrations of these violations of not only our hallowed shire of freedom, our National Capitol Building, but also all public and private property of this nation.
