American Legion Family presents "INDIVISIBLE: The Story of Our Flag"

INDIANAPOLIS, (Nov. 2, 2015)-- "INDIVISIBLE: The Story of Our Flag" is a richly illustrated 112-page tribute to our nation's colors – from the Revolutionary War to the 21st century – available at more than 1,700 retail outlets across the country beginning Nov. 10.

Printed on high-grade paper, the American Legion Family centennial bookazine explores the flag's history, meaning, rules and place in society. Included are dozens of colorful photos, illustrations, quotations, lyrics, poems, fun facts and mysteries, as well as an illustrated guide to U.S. Flag Code, which was the product of a 1923 American Legion conference in Washington, D.C.

Individual copies may be purchased for $9.95 at Barnes & Noble, Sam's Club, Books-A-Million, Hastings and Book World locations, as well as selected post exchanges and commissaries at U.S. military installations. Copies are also available for order online through American Legion Emblem Sales at www.legion.org/flag with a discounted price for purchases of 25 or more. Orders can also be placed by calling toll-free: (888) 453-4466.

"INDIVISIBLE: The Story of Our Flag" is an American Legion Family 100th Anniversary project involving The American Legion, American Legion Auxiliary, Sons of The American Legion and Legion Riders.

The 2.2-million-member American Legion, the nation's largest veterans service organization, and the American Legion Auxiliary, largest U.S. patriotic women's group, celebrate a century of service to veterans, troops, youth and communities in 2018 and 2019.
