PUFL Membership Program
The American Legion's Paid-Up-For-Life (PUFL) membership plan is a good deal for all parties involved – the National Organization, the Department, the Post, and most important, the individual Legionnaire. Over 125,000 Legionnaires have taken advantage of this good deal by paying their dues for Life. High participation in PUFL helps Posts stabilize their membership base. Recent tests suggest that many Legionnaires are not aware of the program and that increased PUFL participation comes about in much the same way as recruiting new members –"just ask them"– particularly those 50 or older. You will be pleasantly surprised at the results.Many Posts purchase PUFL memberships for their Honorary Life Members. They waive Post dues and figure the PUFL payment on Department and National per capita only. This saves Post money and keeps Honorary Life Member dues paid. The National PUFL program is not available in CO, KS, NE, OH & PA. Check with Department Headquarters for similar programs in these states.
