True accomplishment isn't measured by how many projects we initiate or how many tasks we begin—it's measured by how many we bring to completion.

Think about it. How often have we seen promising initiatives falter midway, only to fade into obscurity? How Secondly, it requires resilience. It requires the resilience to overcome setbacks, to navigate obstacles, and to persevere in the face of adversity. It means recognizing that challenges are inevitable, but they are also opportunities for growth and learning.

And finally, it requires commitment. It

Defining the KPIs of the American Legion Family

Did the title of this article catch your eye? Did you find yourself searching everything you know about the Legion Family and not knowing what a KPI is? You have not forgotten anything!

- KEEP PEOPLE INVOLVED: Leadership of the Legion Family does not have to do everything. Find ways to engage members in organizing, running, and supporting our activities.
- KEEP PEOPLE INSPIRED: We Legion Family members should provide additional avenues of support to all of our Legion Family chari-

Don "JR" Hall, National Commander, Sons of the American Legion:

"Let's finish strong as we head to convention"

Legion Family, are you ready to celebrate?

As we roll into July and wrap up our Legion Family year, there are numbers out there that are worthy to celebrate. So I hope that everyone is pre-see, so I encourage everyone — don't slow down. Let's continue the roll into New Orleans and celebrate all the work that is happening to spread the word of "Be The One," along with working all the great programs of the American Legion Family.

As Commander Seehafer says, together we "Save Lives and Change Lives." Remember that and you will continue on. It is as easy as remem-
